Five Fundamental Causes of Dis-Ease

- Detrimental substances in the body, superfluities in too great a quantity, toxins and poisons, resultants from autointoxication
- Deficiencies: the absence of substances needed by the body for growth, and normal maintenance and repair
- Mechanical injury and damage to the body
- Environmental stress, having to live and work in surroundings which place on the individual stresses greater than those for which he or she was designed
- Psychosomatic complaints, or the conflict between the soul energies and the personality, the individual's failure to come to terms with life, uncoordination of the Mental, Astral and Etheric Body

Components of Dis-ease

In addition to cold-scanning for “primary cause,” we can also cold-scan for “primarily maintaining.”

Key Insights

- The holographic Gene Keys can trigger cellular recognition, depending upon Shadow, Gift, or Siddhi state of expression
- Can this be a clue in “genetic” dis-ease???

INTRODUCTION WEBINAR TRANSCRIPT

An Introduction to the Gene Keys - the Tools, the Technique and the Transmission

Welcome to the Gene Keys. My name is Richard Rudd and I happen to be the first student of the Gene Keys. I put it that way because that is exactly what those teachings are all about. They are about exploring a higher evolutionary impulse that is imprinted throughout our universe. From the lowliest life form to the greatest galaxy, in the words of the great poet Rilke, 'all of this was mission'. In other words, there is an unravelling thread built into life, the Gene Keys are an exploration into, and an adventure along that sacred thread.

The central premise of the Gene Keys is that we have inside us a hidden higher purpose. It's encoded in our DNA, in the substructure of our physical bodies. And I am talking about a higher purpose - not just the purpose of our lives as a vocation. You may have been born to be a doctor or a mother or a mountaineer, but what is underneath that? What's the quality you bring to what you do? Every human being is a mystery. We are a secret code. We are literally made up of code. And all code conceals a message. It's not a metaphor. It's literal. We each contain a secret message - an essence. The point of the Gene Keys is to unlock the code and release your message, your special essence, into the world.

THE ART OF CONTEMPLATION

I'd like to talk today about the Art of Contemplation and try to put it in a proper perspective. It's a subject that I find fascinating and very, very deep. The whole path of the Gene Keys as the teachings emerge in the world is deeply bound up with this path and with this word and what it really means. So there's no instant answer because it's something that has layers and levels to it.

In the Introduction to my book I've outlined my version of the three classic paths to truth which helps to clarify some of these terms.

They are Concentration, Meditation and Contemplation.

On the one hand, you have Meditation, a great Yin path - some traditions call it the left-hand path. It has to do with the right brain, which is holistic in nature. Meditation is very well exemplified in the Buddhist tradition by a word called 'Vipassana' whose central technique is taught through the word 'witnessing'. This yin path of meditation also correlates to Tantra, which is also about allowing and witnessing life as it is.

THE 64 TRANSFORMATIONAL PATHS

The 52nd Gene Key - Audio Transcription

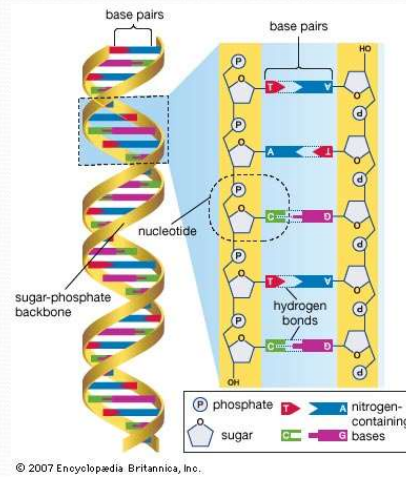

The Transformational Path of the 52nd Gene Key moves from Stress to Stillness, and it's the Path of Restraint.

The 52nd Shadow: Stress
The Dilemma: Anxiety

This is the dilemma of shallow breathing. Stress is a manifestation of shallow breathing. You can see through this 52nd Gene Key just how deeply these Shadows are collective terms. Stress is a frequency that you allow into your DNA. Most human beings forget how to breathe as they grow up. We are conditioned to forget. Because shallow breathing doesn't oxygenate your cells sufficiently, your whole rhythm moves out of kilter with the whole. You actually create interference with the whole. What a profound thing it is to move out of harmony with nature! The moment we do, we experience stress. The whole body responds by activating neurological pathways in the old part of our brain, and because of our advanced brain development, our thoughts become predominant. But we were never intended to run our lives from our heads, even though this is what happens when we activate the low frequencies of this 52nd Shadow.

DNA and the I Ching

- DNA – two strands of nucleotides, one strand reflecting of the other = binary system

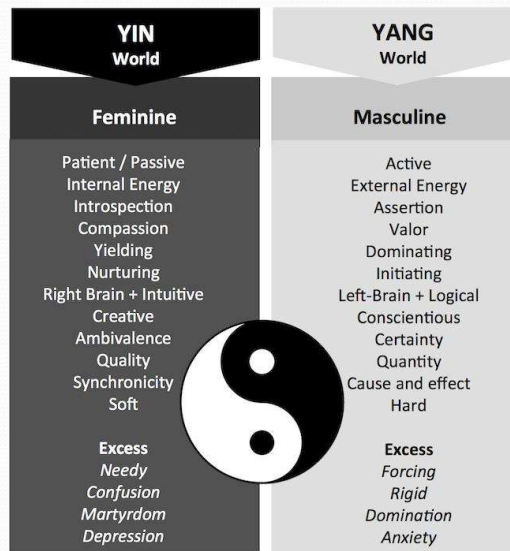

DNA and the I Ching

- I Ching – reflective binary pattern is also basis of the Yin and Yang of the I Ching

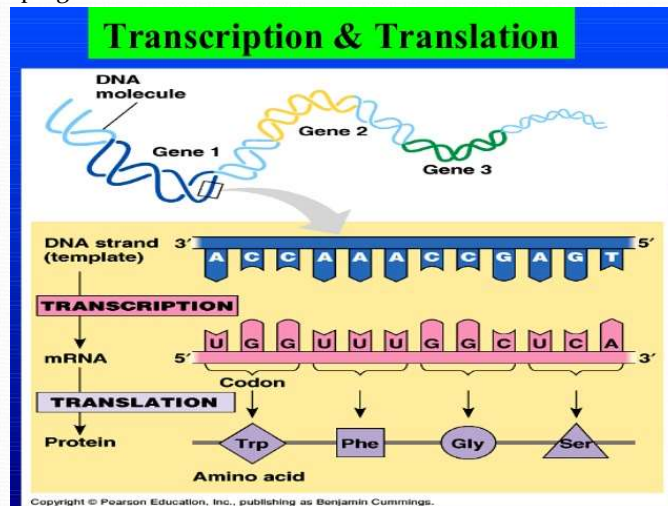

DNA and the I Ching

- Yin Yang Polarities

DNA and the I Ching

- DNA – made up of four bases (A,T,C,G), arranged in groupings of three
- Each grouping forms a codon and codes for an amino acid

64 I Ching Hexagrams

- Four basic permutations of yin and yang, digrams

64 I Ching Hexagrams

- Arranged in groups of three, known as trigrams

Earth - The Receptive

Thunder - The Arousing

Mountain - Keeping Still

Fire - The Clinging

Water - The Abysmal

Lake - The Joyous

Wind - The Gentle

Heaven - The Creative

64 I Ching Hexagrams

- Just as two strands of DNA reflect each other, each trigram has a partner, forming a hexagram
- Just as there are 64 codons in DNA, so there are 64 hexagrams in the I Ching

DNA as an Antenna for Holographic Information

- Luc Montagnier – DNA Information transfer via electromagnetic radiation

See "Transduction of DNA Information" in files

DNA as an Antenna for Holographic Information

- Can DNA can receive scalar information from our work in radionics?
- Can DNA receive the holographic Gene Keys information?
- Can we work with this radionically for health issues?

Starting Assumptions

- Just as the entire genetic code should be active within an individual, the Gene Keys should all be available as well
- Some Gene Keys may be prominent, as revealed in our hologenetic profile, but all must be functional, for proper health
- Is there some way to measure our individual “correct” or functional level for each Gene Key???

Basic Method

- 1) Determine the Gene Key most deviated from General Vitality (GV) at this time.
- 2) Thoroughly read and contemplate that Gene Key, as it relates to your case, in the Gene Keys book.
 - Pay close attention to Repressive or Reactive Natures of Shadow expression
- 3) Study the Programming Partner for that Gene Key in a similar way.
- 4) Using Reference Sheets in files, connect dots, as related to your case, for other areas of analysis

See “Gene Keys Reference Sheet” in files

Balancing

- In many ways, the interpretation and discussion which follows IS the balancing. . .

Balancing

- Reference sheets may lead to areas of physiology and amino acids to investigate, supplement, and/or balance
- Contemplation of Repressive or Reactive characteristics for your case may suggest a Bach, Bailey, or other Flower Remedy
- Gene Key symbols may be useful reagents for other broadcasts
- If broadcasting on Gene Key rates, the reagents found to be required, will lead to other solutions to the puzzle

See “Bach Flower Remedies” and “Bailey Flower Remedies” in files
See additional reference sheets in files
See symbols in files

52nd Gene Key Example

- 52nd Shadow deeply connected with function of adrenal glands and classic “flight-or-fight” response
 - From this, we know to analyze the Adrenals
 - And from this, we know to analyze the Base Chakra
 - We know to analyze for crystalized Fear Toxins
 - Also know to study the 58th Gene Key as well (coding partner)
- Repressive Nature can lead to being “stuck” (while Reactive nature can be “restless”)
 - Might suggest the Nasturtium Bailey Flower
 - Might suggest the Wild Rose Bach Flower
- At the Siddhi level, a rarefied hormone is secreted which induces bliss and stillness for the 52nd Gene Key
- “Light Bodies” / “Rainbow Bodies” Phenomena???

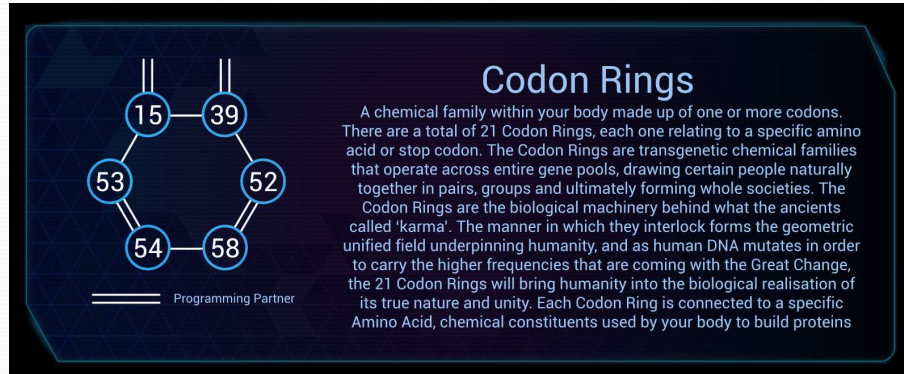

See “Bach Flower Remedies” in files

See “Bailey Flower Remedies” in files

Radionics Commands

- Gene Keys may also lend themselves to Radionics Commands, covered in a previous year. Some generic possibilities might look like:
 - Halt, reverse, repair, and/or correct all non-beneficial effects of the 52nd Gene Key at the Shadow level of expression, in Jane Marie Doe, as efficiently and painlessly as possible, without ill effect.
 - Return Jane Marie Doe's 52nd Gene Key to its most beneficial, healthy, and optimal expression at the Gift or Siddhi level, as efficiently and painlessly as possible, without ill effect.
 - Provide and allow for Jane Marie Doe's Physical and Subtle Anatomy to positively adapt to, respond to, conform with, and/or facilitate the expression of the 52nd Gene Key at the Gift or Siddhi level, as efficiently and painlessly as possible, without ill effect.

Codon Rings

52nd Gene Key Example

- Member of Codon Ring called Ring of Seeking
 - Along with Gene Keys 15, 39, 52, 53, 54, & 58
- All are concerned with “pressure” in some way
- It is this internal pressure that drives evolution, hence Ring of Seeking
- Vast amount of life force wanting to burst forth from within this aspect of our DNA
- Consider the Gifts in this Codon Ring:
 - Magnetism (15), Dynamism (39), Restraint (52), Expansion (53), Aspiration (54), and Vitality (58)

See “Gene Keys Reference Sheet” in files

Advanced Method

- 1) Determine the Gene Key most deviated from General Vitality (GV) at this time
- 2) Thoroughly read and contemplate that Gene Key, as it relates to your case, in the Gene Keys book
 - Pay close attention to Repressive or Reactive Natures of Shadow expression
- 3) Study the Programming Partner for that Gene Key in a similar way
- 4) Study that Gene Key's Codon Ring in a similar way
- 5) Using Reference Sheets in files, connect dots, as related to your case, for other areas of analysis
- 6) Determine balancing as indicated
- 7) Proceed to the Gene Key that is now most deviated from GV, and repeat as necessary
