About the Class:

It is well known that DNA absorbs and emits electromagnetic (EM) energy as can therefore be considered a transducer. Furthermore, DNA is a conductor of electrons and its electrical properties are now considered one of its functional properties.

The ability of DNA to transduce and conduct other forms of energy like subtle energies and NADI energy from healers will be presented in the form of original research using double-stranded human DNA in aqueous solutions. The interaction of these energies with DNA was assessed using impedance measures from which real and imaginary values can be obtained.

Section III CURRENT EVENTS

March 9, 2024, 1:00 pm central time, Glen Rein presented USPA Masterclass #52, “DNA as a Transducer of Subtle Energy”

About the Class

It is well known that DNA absorbs and emits electromagnetic (EM) energy as can therefore be considered a transducer. Furthermore, DNA is a conductor of electrons and its electrical properties are now considered one of its functional properties.

The ability of DNA to transduce and conduct other forms of energy like subtle energies and NADI energy from healers will be presented in the form of original research using double-stranded human DNA in aqueous solutions. The interaction of these energies with DNA was assessed using impedance measures from which real and imaginary values can be obtained.

The use of imaginary impedance measurements as a window to the quantum, virtual and etheric properties of DNA will be discussed. Since the author has previously demonstrated the ability of conscious intention to resonate with and change DNA, it is proposed that the mind-DNA connection is mediated by quantum fields.

About Dr. Glen Rein

Dr. Glen Rein earned a BSc degree in psychology from the University of Waterloo in Canada and later completed his PhD in biochemistry at the University of London.

Following the completion of his PhD, Dr. Rein co-ran a laboratory at St Bartholomew’s hospital (UK) continuing his in depth research interests in bioenergetics with the summation of these new findings being published in respected domains including the prestigious journal ‘Nature’

Returning to the US, Dr. Rein continued his study and research in biomedical sciences at highly regarded institutes including Harvard and Stanford Medical Schools.

Dr. Rein has extensive Fortune 100 corporate experience working on innovative product development and obtaining numerous patents. He is currently CEO of the Quantum-Biology Research Lab conducting further innovative and contract research.

Most recently, Dr. Rein has co-founded Glee Biologics with Dr. Lee Lorenzen.

Glee Biologics is developing Aquaceuticals with structured water, nanoparticles and frequencies of biomolecules and pharmaceuticals in accordance with the emerging field of Informational Pharmacology. Dr. Rein has authored and co-authored numerous scientific papers and published within prestigious journals.

He is on multiple Boards, has lectured in eight countries and has appeared in numerous radio, TV and documentary programs and series.

Whilst being fully professionally committed to rigorous scientific investigation, Dr. Rein is known for his ability to also present often complex scientific material in ways which give the wider public the opportunity to benefit from his lifetime of focused research.

February 10, 2024, Lutie Larsen presented USPA Masterclass #51, "Radionic Gardening and Home Care"

About the Class:

Lutie wrote, "In this Webinar I will be reviewing some of our projects, the protocols that gave the best results and some of the principles we have learned about effectively using subtle field frequencies to enhance the quality and production of both soil and producing crops in gardens and small farm systems. I will also host a question and answer period so listeners can participate. If your question is involved and you was a more detailed discussion on your subject you can email me ahead of time at lutielarsen@mac.com (please use USPA as the subject of your query) I am so looking forward to this great opportunity with the USPA."

About Lutie:

Lutie has been sharing her knowledge of Radionics with USPA members since 1982. In the ensuing years, she served as a valuable working volunteer and Board member for many years.

Lutie Larsen was one the most prolific speakers at the USPA conferences. She presented 22 solo talks, teamed up with another speaker 4 times, was a member of 4 panel discussions, and was a radionic workshop teacher in 1996! 12 of these recordings are in our shop; with more to come.

Lutie Larsen presented the first Masters class in the fall of 2019.

Her 1985 lecture was presented as the first USPA Masterclass in 2019. This and all of our Masterclasses are available in the member's area (free for members) and in our shop – that anyone can purchase.

"New Thinking Allowed host, Jeffrey Mishlove, PhD, is author of The Roots of Consciousness, Psi Development Systems, and The PK Man.

Between 1986 and 2002 he hosted and co-produced the original Thinking Allowed public television series.

He is the recipient of the only doctoral diploma in "parapsychology" ever awarded by an accredited university (University of California, Berkeley, 1980).

He is also the Grand Prize winner of the 2021 Bigelow Institute essay competition regarding the best evidence for survival of human consciousness after permanent bodily death.

Heidi Jurka is author of The Making of a Psychic. During the period from 1976 to 1979 she worked closely with parapsychologist Andrija Puharich on his "space kids" project.

She was living in Puharich's house in August 1978 when the place was set on fire by an arsonist. Here she provides many details concerning her work with Puharich, the "space kids" and "mindlink" projects, and the arson fire that put an end to this chapter in her life.

Dan Taylor Offered this to our Members: A Metaphysical Theory

A Metaphysical Theory Connecting Mind, Matter, and Meaning: A review of Dual-Aspect Monism and the Deep Structure of Meaning | Journal of Anomalous Experience and Cognition.

This is from Dean Radin - Dean Radin, Institute of Noetic Sciences; Dean Radin BSEE MS PhD Chief Scientist, Institute of Noetic Sciences (noetic.org) Associated Distinguished Professor, California Institute of Integral Studies (ciis.edu) Editor, Explore (www.sciencedirect.com/journal/explore)

Abstract

Dual-aspect monism proposes that reality consists of a single, undifferentiated, holistic “substance” (monism) that splits into mind and matter (dual aspects). In this view, mind and matter are linked, or intimately correlated, by meaning. These tight correlations do not imply that mind causally affects matter, or vice versa, but rather they point to an acausal relation. Atmanspacher and Rickles propose that this metaphysical theory, based on deep philosophical roots and refined based on ideas from quantum mechanics, provides a satisfying model of reality that does justice to both the mental and physical domains. They describe a line of qualitative research that appears to support their theory, but they inexplicably dismiss a much larger body of quantitative studies that provide far greater support.

Obituary: [Robin Foy] Man behind Norfolk's life-after-death experiment dies aged 78 [4-10-2024]

From the Eastern Daily Press, a regional newspaper covering Norfolk, northern parts of Suffolk and eastern Cambridgeshire, and is published daily in Norwich, UK.

26th April 2022, by Reporter & Obituary Writer

He was once part of a unique attempt to try to prove the existence of life after death and held regular séances at which he said Winston Churchill was a frequent visitor.

Now, tributes have been paid to Robin Foy - co-founder of the Scole Experiment group, a project named after the Norfolk village where he lived - following his death at the age of 78.

The group's research centered on the cellar of Mr. Foy's farmhouse in the village, which its members said was a venue for extensive paranormal activity.

The SEG received a great deal of international attention in the 1990s and in recent years a screenplay based on its work has been produced, with attempts under way to have it turned into a film.

For Mr. Foy, interest in the paranormal had started in childhood before being further fueled by an incident which occurred during his first career, in the RAF. Experiment

He was born in Blackpool in 1943. His family moved to Lincolnshire, and he was educated at Grimsby grammar school.

On leaving school, he thought about becoming a vicar but joined the air force instead and trained as a pilot. Pilot Officer Foy was commissioned in 1962 and was stationed at RAF Hornchurch.

When not airborne, Robin and his fellow pilots “had a jolly time” visiting the local pubs.

However, one Sunday afternoon, after lunch in the officers' mess, Mr. Foy had a strange experience for which he insists he was “completely sober.”

Resting on his bed, he recalled hearing a woman’s voice speaking to him from mid-air 3ft away which told him: “You can heal with your hands.”

Although surprised, Mr. Foy raced out of his room and started putting his hands on any of his fellow airmen who would let him, in order to test the theory.

Despite plenty of ribbing, he persevered. But before too long, he had to stop, as it was impossible to gauge if his hands were having any effect, since those he laid them on were young, fit men.

After leaving the RAF, Mr. Foy worked for a short while at a country club restaurant close to Grimsby.

He then settled on a career in commerce and spent his working life as a sales executive in the paper manufacturing trade.

He and his wife, Sandra, lived in Essex but often took weekend breaks at the Scole Inn, the renowned coaching inn on the Norfolk-Suffolk border.

From the hotel they could see the village's 17th century Street Farmhouse, and both agreed they would love to live somewhere like that. Eventually, they did.

When the farmhouse came on the market, the family snapped it up and moved in.

It was here that Mr. Foy's interest in the paranormal further intensified.

He had been an avid reader of ghost stories as a boy and, from the age of 30, had investigated communications with the spirit world through mediums and séances.

He said he had been visited by his late father and proving the existence of life and death became a consuming passion.

He also started to use his hands to heal people - as the voice had told him, when he was a young airman - and became a well-known expert in the field of psychical research.

Street Farmhouse was, he said, haunted, and with Sandra and another couple - Diana and Allen Bennett - he set up the Scole Experiment team in the 1990s to find out more.

The group held a five-year experiment in the building's cellar in an effort to prove life after death.

The four members said they experienced amazing phenomena in the room including unexplained lights, voices coming from mid-air, photographs appearing on film that had not been in a camera, videos of mysterious alien worlds, and objects teleporting.

Mr. Foy reported that Winston Churchill – known to him as Winnie – was a regular visitor at the séances and would talk to him. Mr. Foy described this as a source of “constant inspiration” and it encouraged him to carry on with his research when he felt like giving up.

He became frustrated with sceptics who would criticize his methods and call him a cheat.

He was “delighted” when a book about the group, The Scole Experiment, was published. It covered the five years of sessions held in the cellar.

Before his death, he was also encouraged to learn that efforts were under way to make a film of the research, called The Scole Experiment.

Mr. Foy also published two of his own books about his psychical research and experiences: In Pursuit of Physical Mediumship and a detailed diary of the Scole Experiment entitled Witnessing the Impossible.

Following his death, his friends and family have paid tribute to him.

They said: “There is a carved motto over the old fireplace in the sitting room at Street Farmhouse that reads, Welcome Ever Smiles. Although the motto was probably carved hundreds of years ago, it was so true of Robin.

“His greeting was ever accompanied by a beaming smile which lit up his whole face. Robin was a kind, sincere, generous, and loving man. Robin gave his time freely to others. Many who knew him said that, if you ever needed help or advice, he was always there, just a phone call away. He will be greatly missed.”

Mr. Foy died in his sleep on April 10 in Spain, where he had lived since 2006. He leaves behind his wife Sandra, a son and daughter, and two stepdaughters.

Dan recommends this YouTube video: Time & Mind: Was Einstein Wrong?

The role of time in mainstream physics—as it arises in Newtonian theory, relativity theory, quantum theory, and the 2nd law of thermodynamics—is relatively well understood. However, there is a profound mystery concerning the passage of time associated with consciousness. Many physicists maintain that this passage is purely a feature of mind, going beyond physics itself, while others argue that it points to some new physical paradigm, perhaps associated with the marriage of relativity theory and quantum theory. Certainly, the status of time in any final theory of physics remains unclear.

The possibility that physics may eventually accommodate and elucidate the nature of consciousness and associated experience suggests the need to address issues that are currently viewed as being on the borders of physics and philosophy. It also impinges on developments in neurophysics, cognitive science and psychology. So this is an interdisciplinary problem and this conference brings together experts in all the relevant fields. There are contributions from the physicists Bernard Carr, Paul Davies, George Ellis and Lee Smolin, the neurophysicist Alex Gomez-Marin, the cognitive neuroscientist Julia Mossbridge, and the psychologists Jonathan Schooler and Marc Wittmann.

Although the conference is organized by Essentia Foundation—which is associated with the philosophical tradition of Idealism—it covered a wide range of approaches. Our vision is to cover topics that are relevant to Idealism, but not to exclude alternative views from the conference.

Have you been to the USPA Library lately? Have you wandered into the new rooms?

We have several recently added “Rooms.”

- The Media Room Visit our Media Room to learn about our Audio and Video recordings and to download the Catalogues of USPA Audio and Video Recordings 1978 to 2019. There is also a link for the full tables of contents of all of our Conference Proceedings.
- The Toby Grotz Room Toby Grotz is an electrical engineer with a background in power systems design. He has designed electrical systems for coal, natural gas and nuclear power plants. Mr. Grotz has been effectively managing projects in the energy and utility industry and researching alternative energy systems for 40 years. He is a founding board member of the Vernon County Energy District, a nonprofit founded to replace the utility scale fossil fuel supply and wealth extraction model of energy use and generation. Toby has presented at our conferences and on a USPA Zoom Masterclass.

- The Masterclass Chat Room The documents in the Masterclass Chat Room are supplemental to the recorded Masterclass Videos, which are now freely available only to paid USPA Members via our MEMBERS tab. (You can also purchase them in our shop). Since mid-2019, USPA has been presenting special monthly Masterclasses. These are live, online presentations, Free via Zoom on the day they are presented. We continued to offer these through the pandemic and the series is ongoing as of this writing (October 2023). ALL of the Masterclasses can be seen free by Members! At this point there are 54 of these available!
- The John Reed Room: As we have shared in previous newsletters, John has been collecting, hoarding, and preserving everything he can get his hands on relating to USPA, psychotronics and radionics since – well, since I don't know when. As the collection grows, so does John's frustration at not being able to "complete sets." He is creating a digital library by scanning every out of print book, series of newsletters and magazine articles that he can lay his hands on relevant to psychotronics, radionics and sister fields. As his database grows, he will share updates via this newsletter and our website. SPECIAL: In the John Reed Room, you will find the first twenty Original USPA Newsletters. Please visit The John Reed Room on line and see if you can help fill a void in John's collections. If you contribute an item to the USPA Library, you may choose a free video of your choice from our shop.

What is USPA?

The United States Psychotronics Association (USPA) is a federally recognized, nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization founded in 1975 to serve as a focal point for scientific and technical exploration of the universe of esoteric, spiritual, and psychic arts in the United States of America.

The USPA has been hosting annual conferences for its membership since its formation and has featured countless individuals with cutting-edge viewpoints, research, or theories to share, allowing any interested persons to openly discuss their work.

What is Psychotronics?

USPA defines psychotronics as the science of mind-body-environment relationships, an interdisciplinary science concerned with the interactions of matter, energy, and consciousness.

Psychotronics involves the study, research, and applications of the physics and technology of the mind, brain, spirit, consciousness, and the underlying forces of life and nature – hence the term “psychotronics.” A true understanding of the universe must include the spiritual as well as the technical. USPA provides an opportunity for amateur researchers to present their findings along with the professionals. USPA stresses research, with documentation of results, and practical applications, rather than personal experience and unsupported hypotheses

Section X - USPA Donors Recognition Page

The USPA would like to give special recognition on a continuing basis to people who have made generous donations to the United States Psychotronics Association in past years.

This special "USPA Generous Donors Recognition Page" will be carried in each issue of the USPA Journal & Newsletter, and new names will be added as donations are received.

Polarity is movement back and forth that is caused by opposite charges— i.e. positive, negative, and neutral poles — causing attraction and repulsion. Understanding this energy flow between the body's negative and positive poles is the key to unlocking energy blockages in the body and encouraging health. A harmonious balance and flow of energy is the goal of Polarity Therapy.

Morris will teach you how to contact certain areas of the body to stimulate or inhibit energy flow, to bring it into a state of balance. Problems on physical, mental, and emotional levels have an opportunity to resolve themselves as the life force is liberated and re-balanced. This then tends to have the person receiving experience a sense of well-being, and deeper connection to their inherent health. Lunch will be provided. As well as Coffee and water.

The Next Step in Human Evolution

Audio Files - Video Files - Guidebook

What is ascension? Who are we? Where do we come from? What is our purpose? These are the primary questions the human race asks. Some people say that ascension is going to a place like heaven. Others say it is the evolution of the human brain.

The Ancients believed the universe consists of multi-dimensions. Quantum physics today is showing serious consideration of this theory. It is believed that there are ascending levels of consciousness associated with multi-dimensionality. Advancing to a higher level of consciousness / higher dimension may be considered ascending.

Understanding the world around us expands as consciousness evolves, and higher awareness activates knowledge, inherent in ancient wisdom traditions. Brainicity™ Brain Synchronization and Resonance can be the shortcut to the path of awakening consciousness through self-discovery and the use of advanced technology in the acceleration of human consciousness. In this program, various aspects of knowledge are presented and Brainicity™ Brain Synchronization and Resonance audio and video selections are suggested.

With Help from USPA, J.G. Gallimore's Books are Still Available on Amazon

Jerry G. Gallimore was one of the founders of the USPA in 1975, and was a leading researcher in psychotronics and unusual energies until his untimely death in 1989.

All five of J.G. Gallimore's rare books on psychotronics subjects and unusual energies have been reprinted by the United States Psychotronics Association (USPA) and are being made available at a fraction of the cost that used copies were being sold at online.

So rare have these books been, that only a few libraries in the entire world had them in their collections, and some original Gallimore's books were being sold for several hundred dollars each online. However, with these newly reprinted volumes, each will be available for less than $30.00. All are: Available at Amazon.com

This is the second book in the "Unusual Energies" series that J.G. Gallimore published. It covers Gallimore's research on Albert Abrams, the founder of modern radionics, psychological physics, psychic energy, thought resonance, subtle energies, crystals, and related subjects.

In addition, a number of radionics devices are discussed, such as the De La Warr Diagnostic Instrument. And very helpfully, the rates are provided for substances, body organs, and medical diseases and disorders. I very interesting interview of Christopher Bird, conducted by J.G. Gallimore is provided, as well as a discussion of Walter Russell and his research

This book describes in depth the research and theories of J.G. Gallimore into the question of "parapsychology transmission" -the question of how such things as telepathy, remote viewing, ESP, and similar phenomena can physically occur. He discusses the various emanations, radiations, and energy fields of all matter and life including the ancient Chinese energy called "chi" (qi), the ancient Indian's prana energy, Reichenbach's "odic force," Gurwitsch's "mitogenic radiation," Wilhelm Reich's orgone energy, and other subtle energies. He shows how all of these energies are similar, how they interact, and how they are related to gravity. He also discusses crystals as transducers of these energies, and provides diagrams of devices that could potentially be used to harness or control these energies.

This book covers the visionary research and theories developed by J.G. Gallimore about anti-gravity, space, time, and biophysics. He discusses in depth the dimensions of space, time, and gravity, and new discoveries in each of these areas. In addition, he covers research being done on anti-gravity and then discusses anti-gravity patents that have been obtained.

He also discusses the intriguing concept of aura energy fields surrounding humans and other living things, and how extra-sensory perception (ESP) might be explained through biophysical principles.

This book is about psychotronics, radionics, electromagnetic fields and waves, psi-plasma, plasma fields, subtle energies, bio-electromagnetic energy, and other unusual energies emitted by living and non-living things. It also is about how living things interact with and are affected by these energies, which may enhance health or harm health. The book covers the research of Wilhelm Reich on Orgone energy, of Baron Reichenback on the odic forces, as well as research done by Cazzamalli on brain radiations and Lakhovsky on using high frequency radiations to successfully treat cancer in humans. In addition, Lakhovsky used similar methods to enhance the growth of plants. Gallimore shows how these energies, forces, and fields are all inter-related and provides hypotheses and ideas on their possible unification.
