Section IV – A Message from Our new President, John Reed

Hello Members and Friends of USPA,

It has been only about one month since I was appointed to be the president of USPA (January 13, 2026), and already we are taking action on several fronts:

AI Resource Development:

Pete Radatti and his team of AI experts are creating an AI search engine so that each of you can make queries and get unbiased answers about all aspects of psychotronics, radionics, and all related subjects you may be interested in.

Special Interest Groups (SIGs):

Toby Grotz is already conducting a number of projects in the Unconventional and New Energy SIG. which he heads. So, if you are interested in any aspect of unconventional, new, "free energy", or related subjects, please let Toby know.

In addition, we have created several new special interest groups on subjects that some of you have asked about, suggested, or want to participate in. These include the Psychotronics SIG, the Radionics and Dowsing SIG, the Scalar and Torsion Fields SIG, and the Subtle Energies and Water Activation SIG.

Clearly, as is the case with most psychotronics subjects, there is overlap in these subjects, but many of you have areas of interest you wish to focus on. If you have an interest in any of the above groups, please go to the Special Interest Group (SIG) section of this newsletter, where you will see a list of SIGs with current leaders and contact information.

If you are interested in starting a new SIG on some other subject that you are interested in, please let me know (joreed43@gmail.com). My goal is to help get each of you involved in a group, a project, or a program that you are interested in to help achieve your goals.

USPA Local Affiliate Groups:

Many of you have expressed the desire to start or participate in a local group composed of USPA members and others interested in psychotronics, in order to socialize, collaborate, and share knowledge or experiences.

In the last month we have already established several new groups in locations around the United States and other countries. These include groups in the Philadelphia area, St. Louis area, the North Los Angeles suburban area, Mexico City area, and Detroit area.

If you have an interest in joining one of the groups in the above areas, please go to the USPA Local Affiliate Groups section of this newsletter, where you will see a list of local groups with current leaders and contact information.

Or if you are interested in starting a new local group in your area, please contact me. We plan to establish local groups wherever our members are located in the United States and elsewhere in the world.

USPA Committees:

The various USPA committees listed elsewhere in this newsletter are also re-energizing and acting on a number of fronts. But we need your help to achieve the goals of each committee to make the USPA operate more efficiently and smoothly to serve your needs.

Please look over the list of committees later in this newsletter that tells what each committee does, and if you have any skills or other ways that you could contribute to one or more of these committee, please let me know. We especially need your help with the Newsletter and Periodicals Committee. Also, we need people with conference planning skills to help Scott and others set up the online and in-person conferences that we are planning. So please let me know if you can help in any way with any of these committees.

USPA Membership Directory:

A number of you have asked about a membership directory, since as one of you pointed out, there could be a USPA member living down the street from where you live, and you wouldn't even know it as things presently stand.

So, we will be considering the possibility of creating a membership list or directory that would only be available to other USPA members in the "membership only" area of the USPA website. It would show the city, subjects of interest you have, and at least an email address for communication purposes.

Privacy is very important to us, and only members who requested or wanted to be listed in the membership directory would be listed. And if anyone, for whatever reason, did not want to be listed, we would certainly respect that.

Apparently, however, a much larger number of you would like to be listed in a membership directory and to know the other USPA members in your area, or other members with similar interests to yours who may be living in other parts of the country or world. A membership directory would also be helpful for setting up local chapters and groups. So please contact me, if you would like to be listed as a member in a USPA membership directory.

Finally, I would like to thank every one of you for joining and being part of the USPA. We are striving to provide as many benefits and services to you as we can in order to meet your needs and goals in the psychotronics and related fields. So please send me any suggestions or ideas you have to improve USPA so that we can better serve you.

Best wishes to all,

John H Reed M.D.

President, USPA

Section V- Special Interest Groups (SIGs)

The USPA is establishing Special Interest Groups (SIGs) so that people with similar interests can get together online or in person to discuss, exchange ideas, collaborate, or do research on your favorite topics in the overall psychotronics and "free energy" fields. As is the case with most psychotronics subjects, there is overlap in the various topics, but many of you have specific areas of interest you wish to focus on. Listed below are the SIGs that have already been established, along with the leader of each group and contact email address. So please contact the leader if you would like to join any one of these SIGs.

However, if you have a different or a more specialized interest than any of the SIGs listed, and would like us to establish a new SIG in the area of your interest, please contact the SIG Coordinator, John Reed at: joreed43@gmail.com. Our goal is to help get each of you involved in a group, a project, or a program that you are interested in to help achieve your goals.

Unconventional and New Energy Systems SIG:

For all those interested in unconventional, new, or "free energy" subjects, including zero-point energy, magnetic field methods, cold fusion/LENR, water as fuel, inventions developed by Nikola Tesla, T. Henry Moray, Stan Meyer, Edwin Gray, and many others. Leader: Toby Grotz. contact email address: tobygrotz@icloud.com

Subtle Energies and Water Activation SIG:

For people interested in all subjects related to quantum biology, water structure, infusion, and activation; infoceuticals, biofields and the aura, biological frequencies, and emanations, biogeometry, crystal energies, qigong, chakras, and electromagnetic fields (EMFs) interacting with humans, animals, and plants; Leaders: Beverly Rubik and Glen Rein: contact email address: brubik3@proton.me

Radionics and Dowsing SIG:

For people interested in all aspects of radionics and dowsing, including the kinds of devices used; how they can be used in many ways, such as to answer questions, enhance health, find things, etc.; learning how to use the devices; learning about the history of such devices, such as the Abrams, Drown, George de la Warr, and Hieronymus devices. Leader: Pete Radatti. Contact email address: pete19428@gmail.com

Scalar and Torsion Fields SIG:

For people interested in ideas, theories, and technologies of longitudinal and scalar waves and fields; torsion and toroidal fields and effects; information energy and fields; superluminal speeds of such waves; Einstein's "spooky action at a distance"; Dark Energy, and the spectrum(s) of these waves and fields; Leaders: Scott Beutlich, Marc Wilson, John Reed; contact email address: joreed43@gmail.com

Section VII- USPA Local Affiliate Groups

The USPA is in the process of establishing some localized affiliate psychotronics groups wherever our members are located – in the United States and elsewhere in the world. This is being done so that USPA members and others interested in psychotronics can get together in person, socialize, collaborate, have speakers make local presentations, and do other thing related to your local area.

These local groups will be independent to give you maximum freedom of organization and activities. These groups can be composed of USPA members, as well as, others interested in psychotronics who may later decide to become members of the USPA. A set of "Guidelines" will be provided to help set up local psychotronics groups, with a list of suggested activities.

Listed below are the USPA local affiliate groups that have already been established, along with the leader(s) of each group and contact email address. Please contact the leader if you would like to join any one of these local groups. If you live in a town or city that is not near an existing local group, and are interested in starting a group in your area, please contact the USPA Local Group Coordinator, John Reed: joreed43@gmail.com

Section VIII- More about our Masterclass #70 with Nick Franks

Nick Franks, our Masterclass #70 presenter on February 14, 2026 (Register here) has published a French translation of his book 21st Century Radionics

The French version is a complete translation of the 2nd Edition of the original English version, entitled Radionique Du 21ème Siècle: Nouvelles Frontières De La Guérison Vibrationnelle and the isbn is 978-0-9573111-3-8

It's currently available directly from Nick who can be contacted via nick.franks@radionics.co.uk The book will in due course also be available from amazon.fr and possibly other vendors. The French synopsis follows.

La première édition a été publiée en juillet 2012 après près de quatre ans de travail. La deuxième édition, parue en Septembre 2022, comprend de nombreux développements, des réécritures de certains chapitres, des clarifications générales et un approfondissement des thèmes.

L'esprit et les idées de la première édition demeurent néanmoins intacts, et les concepts fondamentaux initialement proposés n'ont subi aucune modification significative. La présente traduction est celle de la deuxième édition.

Présentation générale de l'ouvrage: la Radionique est une modalité thérapeutique parfois controversée qui associe la radiesthésie à l'utilisation de codes, de symboles et d'instruments psychoactifs. Ce système soutient et amplifie l'intention de guérison du praticien, permettant l'analyse et le traitement à distance; praticien et patient peuvent se trouver aux antipodes. Initiée par les travaux du Dr Albert Abrams (1863-1924), la Radionique s'est développée au point de pouvoir être utilisée pour traiter non seulement les humains, mais aussi les animaux, les cultures et les sols, et potentiellement l'écosphère elle-même. Elle repose sur l'idée que la conscience humaine concentrée peut influencer positivement l'action de la nature.

La Radionique du XXIe Siècle, axée sur la Radionique humaine, poursuit deux objectifs. Le premier est de donner un aperçu des concepts, méthodes et techniques utilisés dans la pratique Radionique. Cela comprend un aperçu de la radiesthésie et du sens radiesthésique; un modèle étendu de l'anatomie subtile humaine - l'ensemble des champs d'énergie et d'information qui sont supposés sous-tendre le corps physique; une description du large éventail de facteurs de stress qui peuvent compromettre ce champ et provoquer des maladies; et les techniques qui peuvent être utilisées pour normaliser les champs perturbés - en bref, les techniques d'analyse et de traitement.

Les techniques de création de codes et de taux Radioniques sont abordées, tout comme le domaine important de la synthèse des remèdes - l'encodage de remèdes vibratoires tels que les remèdes homéopathiques dans des matériaux porteurs tels que l'eau ou sac lac.

Le second objectif est de tenter de répondre à la question centrale: «Comment cela est-il possible?» Pour y répondre, l'auteur combine les idées de penseurs tels que Jung, Maslow, Bohm et Sheldrake avec des concepts issus de la Mécanique Quantique et d'autres domaines scientifiques contemporains. Cette tentative de réponse invite à repenser des notions fondamentales concernant l'homme, la nature et les origines de notre perception de la réalité. En réponse aux critiques qui qualifient la Radionique de magie ou de supercherie, l'auteur propose que ses techniques découlent de la structure même de la nature, appuyant ainsi l'affirmation du Dr Richard Gerber: «La Radionique est assurément la plus étrange des approches de médecine vibratoire, mais c'est peut-être celle qui, en fin de compte, nous apprendra le plus sur la nature vibratoire de la guérison et de la conscience humaine elle-même.»

Le livre est disponible directement auprès de Nick Franks (nick.franks@radionics.co.uk) et dans les points de distribution habituels tels qu'Amazon

Nick's book, in English or French has sixteen chapters:

Chapter 1, WHAT IS RADIONICS, gives a general overview of Radionic practice, considered from both technical and theoretical perspectives.

Chapter 2, RADIONICS IN THE CONTEXT OF RADIESTHESIA
Chapter 3, RADIESTHESIA IN THE CONTEXT OF RADIONICS
Chapter 4, ORGANISATION OF PERCEPTION AND MENTAL FOCUS IN RADIONICS
Chapter 5, DAVID TANSLEY AND THE DEMATERIALIZATION OF RADIONICS
Chapter 6, HUMAN SUBTLE ANATOMY
Chapter 7, THE ETHERIC BODY
Chapter 8, RAYS, CHAKRAS AND THE AURA
Chapters 9 and 10, DISEASED ENERGY
Chapter 11, DISEASED ENERGY – MIASMS AND MIASMATIC INHIBITION
Chapter 12, ANALYSIS,
Chapter 13, TREATMENT
Chapter 14, INSTRUMENTS AND CODES
Chapter 15, REMEDY SIMULATION AND THE RADIONIC MODEL

Chapter 16, RADIONICS IN THE CONTEXT OF THE PRESENT AGE, continues the discussion set out in the preceding Chapter and concludes the book by again considering the implications of the Radionic model for scientific materialism. The author's view is that Radionics is not some form of supernaturalism or magic but is a technique which arises from the very structure of Nature. This viewpoint contrasts strongly with scientific materialism and the contradiction between the two is discussed to a certain extent. On the one hand Radionics considers the Universe to be an interactive conscious organism, whereas materialistic science presents the Universe as being comprised of dead matter which somehow manages to spontaneously develop into complex forms such as life without any vivifying or organising principle.

Section IX – In Case You Missed January's Masterclass

Masterclass #69 “Why Radionics Works: Understanding Cause Before Effect” with Dale Pond

Dale Pond Abstract

Radionics has demonstrated consistent results for more than a century, yet its underlying mechanism remains poorly understood. Practitioners work with rates, patterns, witness samples, instruments, and intention—often successfully—with a clear explanation of why these elements work together.

In this masterclass, Dale Pond presents a causal framework drawn from Sympathetic Vibratory Physics (SVP) and modern scalar-field understanding to explain how and why radionics functions. Using clear analogies and practical examples familiar to radionics practitioners, Dale shows how sympathetic vibration precedes resonance, how rates represent harmonic identities rather than frequencies, why operator intention is inseparable from the instrument, and how nonlocal effects arise naturally from scalar conditions.

Dale Pond Bio

Dale Pond is a researcher, author, and lecturer with more than four decades of study in Sympathetic Vibratory Physics (SVP), scalar field dynamics, and the work of John Ernst Worrell Keely, Walter Russell, and Viktor Schauberger.

Section X – Klimo's Corner

by Jon Klimo

I'm beginning to see that consciousness is slowly being understood as underlying everything which until very recently was not very popular thinking, but it's been of course central to me for many years now and fueled many of the things I have written for the U.S.P.A.

I thank Gail Wind for this opportunity to be able to start writing, in this case orally dictating, what I have to say, and it will comprise, thanks to Gail, what we're going to call a periodic ‘Klimo's Corner’ in your USPA newsletter.

I assume most of you reading this little Corner have read in the past at least some of the things I have written for the USPA very often as President's Messages. I'm really curious about what you were able to make from those writings, if in fact you read any of them. By our organization's own website definition “Psychotronics” involves consciousness and the spiritual as well as science and technology including what could be called alternative science, what science itself refers to as pseudoscience or quackery which is a kind of cross we need to be bearing these days in the throes of mainstream material-reductionist science..

Part of my curiosity about how you have been responding to my thinking and writing is that although I try to address scientific and analytical type things in what I write, I think you could probably categorize my writing as essentially philosophical or even metaphysical, and even though my writing is not particularly poetic in style I acknowledge I am particularly a poet in this life, and as I grow older, proud of that fact rather than apologetic about it. The world could use more poets, especially these days then let's say politicians or capitalists. Shortly I will get into how I would be defining poet and poetry especially for those of you who are more scientifically inclined than I am..

I love the way ppsychotronics and even radionics can provide an entry point for things like consciousness, and what I'll call a larger picture of things in general. I think I'm an example of someone who avails himself of such an entry point as I have done in much of my past USPA presentations and writing over the years even if a lot of that did not take with many of you because you probably just thought what the hell is he talking about? I thought I was and still think I am making sense through what I'm saying and writing even if so many of my fellows can't comprehend or be interested. Yes, it makes for a lonely life, but one must nevertheless persevere in faith that what one believes in has sufficient truth to keep engaging one's life, lonely as it may be.

But how many of you have learned, often the hard way, that you need to stick to your own guns even if those around you are not giving you that much positive regard or positive feedback. I think it was Carl Jung and Kerenyi who wrote something like. "Woe unto he who has within that for which there is no external correlative." (From "Essays On a Science of Mythology" or some title like that). Therein lies the need to get one's bearings in light of others' thinking and feeling about you., like it or not. But woe unto any of you if you let that kind of external correlative define who and what you are. Maybe I'm talking now about individualism not conformity or rather conforming to one's own individuality.

If nothing else, the USPA has afforded many of us the opportunity to be and believe in who we essentially are even if what we're surrounded by thinks we're foolish. Now at 84 I just choose to think my own way in spite of others, though I must admit it could feel very good to have others understanding or appreciating me more than they have. I should really just use this as an opportunity to address you all rather than just talk about myself the way I have.

Maybe many of you have been attracted to the USPA as a kind of organization that will tolerate quite interdisciplinary thinking and doing. For example., what organization would allow engineers with a technological bent to consort with those who can talk about chakras, orgone energy or fundamental "frequency rates"? So, to the extent to which many of you reading this have any idea about what I'm talking about you could experience me right now as the external correlative for some of your own inner goings-on. You're not alone. Maybe that's the motto for this little group, the USPA. I suppose it doesn't matter where on the spectrum you may lie- from science to the spiritual- but I think I can provide a certain amount of understanding and caring about you regardless, interdisciplinarian that I am.

My wife's daughter married a Dutch physicist many years ago, a microscope authority, and I'll always remember him as someone who would extend me the time of day in spite of my not being formally trained in or particularly knowledgeable about science or technology. He always listened and avoided being judgmental or critical. Just hearing me out. If only we could give that courtesy more to each other across the divides between us. I would try to do my homework in the sciences to not have him be entirely turned off by my thinking or writing. And he would be able to connect with me through having laid out in my backyard in Oakland, California, and daydreaming and sort of going off-line occasionally and thereby having some kind of connection to my own more freewheeling speculations about science, even as he could be more open through his own, occasional letting go of his usual professional rigor.

Hell., he was even knighted by the Queen (of Holland) to thank him for all he had done in the sciences. No one knighted me that's for sure, but I was named and kept president of the US PA for quite a few years, which even though hardly anybody cares about this it was a certain form of being cared about even if those who were caring about me were not being much cared about themselves in "professional circles" or known about at all. So maybe we should reconsider the USPA as an organization of disenfranchised people who are always looking for that best fitting objective correlative lying outside of us in others.

I mention the Dutch physicist because he used to refer to the things I wrote, including USPA things, as being “poetry.” At the time, I probably took that as some kind of a put-down or putting me in my place which admittedly was a lot closer to poetry than to science, but the way I would write about scientific or philosophical things never felt to me as being particularly poetic in style. Looking back on it I think what he may have been referring to was my inclination always to be inclusive, synthesizing together and metaphorically treating things, all of which could be considered poetic, I suppose. Embracing, and multiplying, and bringing together and seeing commonalities, not treating logically, analytically, and separately.

I don’t think many of you would be drawn to the USPA unless you could get enough of that logical/analytical/separating-out character. At the same time many of you need the poetic things said of me by the Dutch scientist. So, could we in part define the USPA as who we are and what we like to think about and even think we’re good at? Maybe the USPA is a little like the Statue of Liberty asking for the downtrodden to enter. But then again, I may be particularly feeling downtrodden these days while all of you very much aren’t. I don’t really know, but I have an inkling that many of you know something about what I’m talking about in this writing. If any one of you wrote to me, for instance, with your own ideas about Psychotronics or Radionics, I know I would listen and understand as best I could. I would be the objective correlative for you if you wanted or needed that. My email is jonklimoidealism@gmail.com. Even as I am reaching out to you now, you are welcome to reach out to me. I’m just sitting in this retirement community after my 3 strokes with a lot of time on my hands. I would be glad to hear from you and what you have to say.

Part of what I am talking about has to do with brain hemispheres I suppose in so far as right brain/left brain things. The logico-deductive, critical, and analytical on the one hand and the intuitive, gestalt, and wholistic/metaphoric/marrying on the other hand. Back to the definition of Psychotronics, according to the USPA. I hope I have situated myself, as well as having sort of defined myself a little in the meantime. If I might help in defining you more, let me know. Ask me, please.

Section XI- Thomas Bearden’s Books Are Available Through USPA

Dana Bearden, daughter of the late Thomas E. Bearden, has opened her private stash of her father's books to USPA! We will be selling them for her on commission and her prices are WAY below eBay, Amazon, Alibris, or anywhere else we've found them.

We have two volumes ready right now, but we'll be adding more soon. Please note: Currently, the prices include shipping for the United States only, but the USPA folks are open to working with people outside the US on an individual basis who are willing to pay the extra shipping, duties and taxes based on location. ## Section XII Ongoing work

President John Reed Shared An Announcement: A Company is Formed to Fund Breakthrough Technologies and Benefit USPA (Instant Replay from September!) A new company called Breakthrough Technologies Investment Fund (BTIF) has recently been established for the development and production of highly innovative devices in the psychotronics, healing, and new energy fields. BTIF was founded by John H. Reed and Nick Begich, Sr. who together are providing $100,000.00 as initial investment funds for inventors and developers of such devices. They have generously offered that any net income or other benefits from investments of their initial $100,000 will go to USPA. It is hoped that others with a strong interest in the development of breakthrough technologies in the psychotronics, healing, and new energy fields will join with BTIF, so that the investment fund can grow and be able to fund even more inventors and startup companies. Proposals and applications for funding are being accepted, but with the clear understanding that any funding is contingent upon thorough due diligence. BTIF will consider proposals for the following types of devices: 1. Psychotronic and other technologies affecting the brain and mind. These would include devices whose use will enhance memory, intelligence, learning, or knowledge acquisition; enhance psychic abilities of any kind, such as remote viewing, telepathy, psychometry, or spiritual healing; enhance the placebo and other mind-body effects to treat one's own diseases and disorders;	2. Health, wellness, and healing devices: Devices using micro-currents, electromagnetic waves, magnetic fields, sound waves, subtle energies, scalar, or torsion field technologies: to diagnose or treat diseases and disorders of any kind, but especially microbial diseases, cancer, Alzheimer's, and drug addiction; to counteract the negative health effects of 5G and other negative waves and fields in the environment; to enhance the immune system; and devices that have anti-aging and rejuvenation effects, such as the Dotto Ring, the Priore machine, and Lakhovsky technology. 3. New Energy and Propulsion Devices: This would include any device that generates usable electricity or propulsion operating on new principles of energy production, such as zero-point energy, vacuum energy, magnetic fields, anti-gravity, water as fuel, nitrogen as fuel, or any other "free energy" method. The development and production of any of these devices could potentially have a dramatic effect on the betterment and advancement of humanity. So, if you have developed or are developing any such device, or know someone else who has done so, please send us information or a proposal, and we will follow up with you. Please send all communications by email, with attachments, if necessary, to John H. Reed, M.D. at joreed43@gmail.com. You can also phone 443-858-0757. ## Section XV –The Dan Taylor Dispatch

Dan Taylor has several interesting articles to share this month

Sharry Edwards, a longtime USPA conference presenter who has finally found the time to put a book together.

Breaking the Sound Barriers of Disease - How Human BioAcoustic Sound Healing Can Improve All Aspects of Your Health and Help Solve Today's Growing Health Crisis by Sharry K Edwards Med & Larry Trivieri Jr

Is frequency our new medicine or an ancient mystery revealed? Sharry Edwards, M.Ed. will likely be best known for her ability to bridge the gap between the ancient, the esoteric and the scientific realms of human evolution.

She is the pioneer of Human BioAcoustic Vocal Profiling that everyone is attempting to emulate. Vocal Biomarker Markets are projected to reach $5,397.7 Million by 2035.

While others were writing books, Sharry was writing software applications based on her unique hearing and vocal abilities. She proposed and has confirmed that we have a Mathematical Constitution, both physically and emotionally, that can be revealed based on distinct vocal patterns. She has quantified the Mathematical Rosetta Stone of health and healing that adds meaning and new dimensions to our existence.

Sharry was named Scientist of the Year during this century, and has been the subject of twelve documentaries, countless articles, and book chapters. Breaking the Sound Barriers of Disease is her first public writing since the beginning of her journey over 40 years ago.

Remembering prá Nuno Filipe Gomes Loureiro ·

prá Nuno Filipe Gomes Loureiro (47) was a Portuguese theoretical physicist whose scientific work was closely linked to one of humanity's greatest desires: to develop a clean, safe and virtually unlimited source of energy. He graduated from the Higher Technical Institute of Lisbon and obtained his PhD from the Imperial College London, specializing in plasma physics.

In 2016 he joined the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) as a professor, where he developed the most influential part of his academic career. There he served functions in the departments of Physics and Nuclear Science and Engineering, and since 2024 he led the Plasma Science and Fusion Center, a key center in global nuclear fusion research.

Since his tenure at MIT he led teams dedicated to understanding and solving the fundamental problems that today prevent nuclear fusion from being an operational power source. Fusion seeks to reproduce on Earth the process that feeds the Sun, offering a carbon-emission-free energy source, abundant fuel and virtually unlimited potential.

His work was not limited to theory. He also coordinated international efforts and collaborations between universities, laboratories and experimental projects seeking to bring fusion from scientific realm to real-world applications. Therefore, his figure was seen as a bridge between fundamental knowledge and a sustainable energy future.

The tragedy occurred on the night of December 15, 2025, when Loureiro was shot dead by multiple shots in the lobby of his residential building in Brookline, Massachusetts, a town close to Boston. He was rushed to a hospital, where he passed away in the early hours of December 16 at the age of 47. Authorities classified the incident as a homicide and opened an immediate investigation. In the first few days, there were no reports of thefts or a clear motive, which increased the shock and uncertainty around the case.

The loss of Nuno Loureiro had an impact that transcended personal and institutional. At a time when the world is urgently looking for real alternatives to fossil fuels, the loss of a key scientist in fusion energy research clouds the path to a cleaner energy future.

His legacy lives on in his research, in the students he trained, and in the vision of a future where clean, limitless energy ceases to be a distant promise to become reality.

Electroculture: Tapping into the Earth's Energy for Sustainable Farming

by James Odell, OMD, ND, Lac

What Is Electroculture? A Quick Overview

Electroculture harnesses the power of electromagnetic fields to stimulate plant development, enhance nutrient uptake, and ultimately increase yields without relying on chemical fertilizers and pesticides. It presents a revolutionary shift in modern agriculture, combining technology and nature to create opportunities for sustainable and effective agricultural systems. At its core, electroculture is a form of "energy agriculture" that works with the natural electromagnetic forces of the Earth and atmosphere.

History: From Ancient Observations to Early 20th-Century Experiments

Electroculture is not a new idea. It is highly likely that aspects of channeling the electromagnetic earth currents to promote crop yield were used by ancient cultures. While not called "electroculture," several ancient practices and architectural feats suggest a profound understanding of the energetic qualities of the land. Ancient civilizations were brilliant observers of nature. They built structures that align with celestial bodies and telluric currents, and their practices suggest an intuitive understanding of natural energies. ....

Documented Experiments and Pioneers

Insofar as recorded history, most electroculture experiments began in the 18th century. In 1746, Dr. Maimbray of Edinburgh treated myrtle plants with an electrostatic generator, which resulted in significantly upgrading their development and blooming.

In 1885, the Finnish researcher Selim Laemstrom tried different things with an airborne framework controlled by a Wimshurst generator and Leyden jars. He showed that electrical stimulation from the wires invigorated the development of yields like potatoes, carrots, and celery for an increase of about 40% (up to 70%) within about two months. Additionally, the yield of raspberries was expanded by 95%, and the yield of carrots was expanded by 125%.

Music for Plants: How Sounds Affects Trees

Research on the Impact of Festival Noise on the Trees in Deventer Park

Do you think music can influence the health of trees? Or might loud noise harm them? And could the joyful mood of humans during a festival actually make trees feel “happy”?

Let’s explore the fascinating research of Henk Kieft. During an interview, he told us about his experiment in the city park of Deventer, the Netherlands. Using various methods – including the “Music of the Plants” – he showed that even loud festival noise can, surprisingly, have a positive effect on tree vitality.

4 Life Lessons You Can Learn from Plants

by Tina Lee

Nature appreciation and outdoor recreation have rapidly increased around the world. A 2021 article published in the Journal of Outdoor Recreation and Tourism cites reports of increased visitation in national parks in Sweden, as well as in Germany, America, and Japan. This just underscores how more people are seeking the comfort and peace of plants and nature than ever before.

This isn’t surprising information, given that the last few years were spent in lockdown during the COVID-19 pandemic. Daydreaming in Paradise explains that working from home forced everyone to increase their usage of technology and made it difficult to find learning opportunities outside of work. Many also struggled to socialize, causing emotions such as frustration and anxiety to build up.

In light of these challenges, many people sought peace in the natural world. Digital platform Klaviyo found that online sales of gardening goods doubled in 2020, as individuals who couldn’t go outside chose to home garden as a hobby. Watching a living being grow each day brought a sense of calm to many people. Here, plants taught everyone to find peace amidst the turbulence in the outside world.

This is only one of the many life lessons that we can learn from plants. In this article, we discuss four more of our favorite lessons.

Turn toward the sun

As we’ve mentioned earlier, there will always be situations in life that are out of our control. However, we can control how we cope and find peace.

Plants can thrive even in conditions where weeds and predators are around them. They continue to focus on their own growth and turn, literally, toward the sun. This allows them to nourish themselves despite the challenges of their environment. Similarly, we must keep on turning towards the sun in challenging times, by practicing good habits and focusing on what’s healthy for us.

Beauty comes in different forms

The scenic beauty of nature comes from the wide range of different flora and fauna that coexist in harmony. In fact, a 2020 survey from Landscape and Urban Planning found higher life satisfaction among people who visited more diverse types of natural spaces, such as managed parks and beaches. This shows us that diversity adds to the magic of nature.

Just like every plant, every person is different. Nature teaches us to accept our uniqueness as part of what makes us beautiful. We all have a role on this planet to make the world a better place.

Look at the bigger picture

Many beginner gardeners know the feeling of elation during the first shift from seed to sprout, as well as the feeling of disappointment when each day doesn't seem to bring new changes thereafter. It's hard to notice a seedling's progress if you observe its growth from one day to the next. If you look at the same plant a month or year later, however, the change becomes clear.

Plants can easily teach us to appreciate the process and look at everything in the bigger picture. That is why gardening is recommended by National Geographic as a learning activity for kids. Even younger children can naturally develop patience and mindfulness when caring for a plant's growth.

Always be open-minded to new ideas

For years, many of us believed that plants do not have neural receptors, and therefore do not feel. In our previous article of Plants Feel, we wrote that our human flaw is to be ego-centric, as we often use our limited human logic to explain the world. Recent evidence has demonstrated that, even if plants don't have a nervous system like we do, they are entirely capable of feeling and registering pain.

This information teaches us to be open to new ideas, even if they challenge our long-established beliefs. Looking at the world from different angles can show us more than we've ever imagined and thought possible.

For instance, did you know that plants have their own music? Our Bamboo devices utilize revolutionary technology to convert the energy and electrical variation of plants into their own unique sound. Listen to the music of the plants and ponder on the many other lessons that plants can teach us about life.

WHO ARE THE INDIGO CHILDREN? – presented by Beverly Coleman

Contributed by Beverly Coleman from the X account of Maxpein@maximumpain333

WHO ARE THE INDIGO CHILDREN? Ancient Souls. New Earth Builders.

Indigo children are not broken. They were never meant to be “fixed.” They are ancient souls who volunteered—on service contracts to humanity—to incarnate at the most volatile turning point Earth has ever known. They arrived with their 4th, 5th, and 6th DNA strands already online, meaning their perception was never confined to this dimension alone.

They feel more. They see more. They know more. Expanded awareness. Hyper-sensitivity. Direct access to higher frequencies. And because society does not understand frequency... it calls them a problem.

So, the system does what it always does to what it cannot control: It diagnoses. It labels. It sedates. But they are not sick. They are awake. Indigos were never designed to fit inside a collapsing structure. They are here to build what comes next.

Type 3 Indigos — often mislabeled as bipolar. Masters of polarity. Gifted in athletics, mathematics, and energetic balance. They hold the bridge between extremes.

Type 2 Indigos — the artists, musicians, linguists. Many remember lives beyond Earth, especially the Pleiades. Born psychically open... then shut down by fear, misunderstanding, and ridicule.

Type 1 Indigos — the rarest. Planetary grid workers. Direct contact with elder cosmic races. Born to lift the frequencies of the ley lines and activate Earth's crystal grid.

And here's the warning few want to hear: If we continue reverse-coding Earth's grid, our children's thoughts will misfire. Positive thoughts will feel negative. Truth will feel unsafe. And they will be misunderstood again. The cycle will repeat—unless we break it.

These souls are coming in fully online. No warm-up rounds. No amnesia. Some have never incarnated before—and they chose now. For us. They are not here to be domesticated. They are here to be protected. To lift Earth's frequency. To restore memory. To complete the most epic love story in galactic history—the reunion of humanity with its true origin.

Remember them. Protect them. Because when they rise... the old world cannot survive. These are not ordinary children—they are the return of an ancient oath. Long before temples fell. Before the grids were inverted. Before humanity forgot its name—these souls made a vow in the dark between stars. They would return when Earth was at her lowest frequency.

When truth would be called madness. When light would be hunted, medicated, and silenced. They came knowing they would be misunderstood. Knowing they would be targeted. Knowing many would not survive childhood intact. Yet they came anyway. They carry memories older than this sun. They feel the grief of civilizations that collapsed before Atlantis drowned. Their nervous systems tremble because they remember what Earth was—and what was stolen.

If they are crushed, the grid goes silent. If they are protected, the planet remembers itself. This is why the war is subtle. Why it is psychological. Why it begins with children. These souls are not here to save the system. They are here to end the spell. When the Indigos rise fully, the false light will flicker. The inverted timelines will collapse. The watchers will lose their dominion. And the ancient ones—the ones who never forgot—will walk this Earth again through them. This is not a generation. This is a reckoning. And it has already begun.

What is USPA?

The United States Psychotronics Association (USPA) is a federally recognized, nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization founded in 1975 to serve as a focal point for scientific and technical exploration of the universe of esoteric, spiritual, and psychic arts in the United States of America.

The USPA has been hosting annual conferences for its membership since its formation and has featured countless individuals with cutting-edge viewpoints, research, or theories to share, allowing any interested persons to openly discuss their work.

What is Psychotronics?

USPA defines psychotronics as the science of mind-body-environment relationships, an interdisciplinary science concerned with the interactions of matter, energy, and consciousness.

Psychotronics involves the study, research, and applications of the physics and technology of the mind, brain, spirit, consciousness, and the underlying forces of life and nature – hence the term “psychotronics.” A true understanding of the universe must include the spiritual as well as the technical. USPA provides an opportunity for amateur researchers to present their findings along with the professionals.

USPA stresses research, with documentation of results, and practical applications, rather than personal experience and unsupported hypotheses.

J.G. Gallimore's Books are Still Available on Amazon - through assistance from USPA

Jerry G. Gallimore was one of the founders of the USPA in 1975, and was a leading researcher in psychotronics and unusual energies until his untimely death in 1989.

All five of J.G. Gallimore's rare books on psychotronics subjects and unusual energies have been reprinted by the United States Psychotronics Association (USPA) and are being made available at a fraction of the cost that used copies were being sold at online. Available at Amazon.com USPA Shares in the income from these sales.

So rare have these books been, that only a few libraries in the entire world had them in their collections, and some original Gallimore's books were being sold for several hundred dollars each online. However, with these newly reprinted volumes, each will be available for less than $30.00.

The Handbook of Unusual Energies: Volume	ISBN-13: 978-1543024999	The 1st book of 3 on unusual energies	468 Pages
Gallimore discusses in depth the research, discoveries, and inventions of all the major researchers in subtle energies, the aether, biological 62 fields, pyramid energy, radiesthesia, radionics, crystal transduction, and related subjects.

These include the works of Baron von Reichenbach's and his odic energy, Dr. Wilhelm Reich's orgone energy, Dr. Harold Burr's biological life fields, Kozyrev's time mirror, Edgar Cayce's transmission of energy, and related research done by many others.

Of particular importance is Gallimore's 127-page chapter on radionics. In this chapter he discusses in depth the research and devices of Ruth Drown, T. Galen Hieronymus, Rho Sigma, Dr. L. P. Corte, and other prominent people in the radionics field.

Collected Properties &amp; Writings of J. G. Gallimore: Volume 2	ISBN-13: 978-1543025040	The 2nd book of 3 on unusual energies	258 Pages
This is the second book in the “Unusual Energies” series that J.G. Gallimore published. It covers Gallimore’s research on Albert Abrams, the founder of modern radionics, psychological physics, psychic energy, thought resonance, subtle energies, crystals, and related subjects.
In addition, a number of radionics devices are discussed, such as the De La Warr Diagnostic Instrument. And very helpfully, the rates are provided for substances, body organs, and medical diseases and disorders. I very interesting interview of Christopher Bird, conducted by J.G. Gallimore is provided, as well as a discussion of Walter Russell and his research
Relationship Between Parapsychology and Gravity: Vol. 3	ISBN-13: 978-1543024944	The 3rd book of 3 on unusual energies	228 Pages
This book describes in depth the research and theories of J.G. Gallimore into the question of “parapsychology transmission” -the question of how such things as telepathy, remote viewing, ESP, and similar phenomena can physically occur. He discusses the various emanations, radiations, and energy fields of all matter and life including the ancient Chinese energy called “chi” (qi), the ancient Indian’s prana energy, Reichenbach’s “odic force,” Gurwitsch’s “mitogenic radiation,” Wilhelm Reich’s orgone energy, and other subtle energies. He shows how these energies are similar, how they interact, and how they are related to gravity. He also discusses crystals as transducers of these energies, and provides diagrams of devices that could potentially be used to harness or control these energies.
Transverse Paraphysics: The New Science of Space, Time, and Gravity Control	ISBN-13: 978-1543024920	Gallimore’s fourth book	374 Pages
This book covers the visionary research and theories developed by J.G. Gallimore about anti-gravity, space, time, and biophysics. He discusses in depth the dimensions of space, time, and gravity, and new discoveries in each of these areas. In addition, he covers research being done on anti-gravity and then discusses anti-gravity patents that have been obtained.
He also discusses the intriguing concept of aura energy fields surrounding humans and other living things, and how extra-sensory perception (ESP) might be explained through biophysical principles.
Unified Field Theory Research Book: Using Subjective Response to Psi-Plasma	ISBN-13: 978-1543024838	Gallimore’s Fifth book	134 Pages
This book is about psychotronics, radionics, electromagnetic fields and waves, psi-plasma, plasma fields, subtle energies, bio-electromagnetic energy, and other unusual energies emitted by living and non-living things. It also is about how living things interact with and are affected by these energies, which may enhance or harm health.
