Section III Welcoming New USPA Officers

Pete Radatti – Intro by Scott Beutlich

The Officers and Board of Directors of the United States Psychotronics Association are excited to announce the addition of Pete Radatti as a vice president of our organization.

Pete has been a long-time member, a student of the US Psychotronics Radionics 101 program and recently an instructor of that same Rad 101 workshop.

Pete will lead a team that will use the USPA recorded information into a member friendly "Ask USPA" Artificial Intelligence program. We will share more information on this new venture as it is created.

We thank Pete for his service to US Psychotronics and to the Radionics community.

Tim Loncarich – Intro by John Reed

Tim was offered, and has accepted, a vice-presidency officer position at the USPA. Tim is an entrepreneur and expert in computer software, website, and artificial intelligence (AI) development, and will be working with our AI Resource Development Group, headed by Pete Radatti.

Pete and his are making great progress creating a USPA AI search engine. It will be capable of giving unbiased answers to questions about many aspects of psychotronics, radionics, and related subjects.

Section IV- Messages from our new President Pro Tem, John Reed

Hello members and friends of USPA,

It has been a busy month, and we have exciting news about many of the various activities and projects that the USPA and its members have been working on.

AI Resource Development Group: Pete Radatti, who leads this group, and his team of AI experts are making great progress creating a USPA AI search engine. so that subscribers can make queries and get unbiased answers about aspects of psychotronics, radionics, and related subjects. USPA AI will be focused on these subjects.

Master Classes: We had a great turnout for the February Master Class with Nick Franks, author of the book, 21st Century Radionics.

On March 21, "Wolfgang Bucher" a German expert on radionics and bio-frequencies will be speaking, so be sure to sign up and attend. If there are any speakers you would like to hear, please let me know your suggestions.

Social Media: We are planning to expand the USPA presence on social media platforms. Our Facebook page has a following of 5,600 people. We would like to increase that number, so please let all of your psychotronics friends know about USPA, and encourage them to follow us on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/uspsychotronics/>. If you would like to advise or help us expand our presence on Facebook or other social media platforms, please let me know.

Special Interest Groups (SIGs) and Individual Projects:

Toby Grotz, head of the Unconventional and New Energy SIG, continues to work on a number of projects in this area. So, if you are interested in unconventional, new, "free energy," or related subjects, please write to Toby at: tobygrotz@icloud.com

In addition, we have created several other special interest groups on subjects that some of you have asked about. These are listed in the Special Interest Group section of this newsletter.

USPA Local Affiliate Groups:

Many of you have expressed the desire to start or participate in a local group composed of USPA members and others interested in psychotronics, to socialize, collaborate, and share knowledge or experiences. In the last month we have established a new group in the Windsor, Ontario, Canada area, with pending groups in Sedona, AZ, Australia, England, and a number of other locations. If you have an interest in joining one of the groups in the above areas, please contact me (joreed43@gmail.com) Also, go to the USPA Local Affiliate Groups section of this newsletter, to see the list of local groups that have already formed, with contact information. If you are interested in starting a new local group in your area, please contact me.

USPA Committees:

The various USPA committees listed elsewhere in this newsletter are also re-energizing and acting on a number of fronts. But we need your help to achieve the goals of each committee to make the USPA operate more efficiently and productively. Please look over the list of committees, and if you have any skills that you could contribute to one or more of these committee, please let me know.

Finally, I would like to thank all you for joining and being part of the USPA, as well as, for the help you are giving to make USPA a great success. We are striving to provide as many benefits and services to you as we can to meet your needs and goals in the psychotronics and related fields. So please send me any suggestions or ideas you have to improve USPA so that we can better serve you.

Best wishes to all,
John Reed M.D.

Section V- Upcoming Masterclass #71 – Wolfgang Bucher

From Scan to Strategy: Turning Subtle Data Into Practical Steps with Wolfgang Bucher

March 21, 2026; 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. Central Time. A special two-hour Masterclass from Germany!

Brief abstract

From Wolfgang, "In this masterclass, I will present a structured, practice-oriented framework for working with subtle information in a professional setting. Rather than focusing on isolated numbers, the session shows how to move from an initial concern to meaningful patterns, working hypotheses, and practical next steps that clients can actually apply. A key focus is how to reduce practitioner bias and over-interpretation by working with questions instead of statements, keeping the process transparent and ethically responsible. A short demonstration will illustrate the workflow from "scan" to "strategy" without turning the session into software training.

Learning objectives

Participants will be able to:

1. Distinguish between data, interpretation, and actionable guidance.
2. Apply a step-by-step workflow from a concern to patterns and priorities.
3. Recognize common pitfalls (confirmation bias / wishful thinking) and use countermeasures.
4. Formulate realistic, testable working hypotheses in client-friendly language.
5. Translate insights into practical interventions without medical claims.
6. Communicate the method in a transparent and ethically responsible way.

Session flow (2 hours total)

- 10 min – Introduction & why structure matters
- 15 min – Three levels: data/hints → meaning by the client → next steps
- 25–30 min – The question-based workflow (scan → patterns → priorities → hypotheses → steps)
- 15–20 min – Practitioner bias: how to avoid “reading yourself into the data”
- 15–20 min – Short demonstration (process-focused, not software training)
- Remaining time – Live Q&A”

Section VI –The Dan Taylor Dispatch

Stump the Chump

Do you recognize the instrument in the attached photos? I got an email from a woman trying to figure it out and hopefully get a users manual so her friend can use the device. Send responses to uspsychotronics@yahoo.com

Ted Serios and the Mystery of Thoughtography

Dan offers the following link:

<https://www.utterlyinteresting.com/post/ted-serios-and-the-mystery-of-thoughtography>

“He would sit in a cheap hotel room, press a Polaroid camera to his forehead, mutter a few words, and wait for the film to slide out. Sometimes it was blank. Sometimes it was black. And sometimes, to the astonishment of those watching, a faint image would appear where there should have been nothing at all.

In the early 1960s, a Chicago bellhop named Ted Serios briefly became one of the most discussed figures in American parapsychology. He claimed he could project mental images directly onto Polaroid film, a phenomenon that came to be known as “thoughtography”. For a few years, respected psychiatrists, magazine editors, physicists and photographers debated whether they were witnessing a genuine psychic ability or a cleverly executed trick.

What followed was not a simple tale of belief versus scepticism. It was a case study in post war fascination with the paranormal, the authority of scientific endorsement, and the enduring appeal of mystery.”

Dan said, “This was also after Ruth Drown and George de la Warr had successfully experimented with radionic cameras, a topic that presenters like Peter Moscow, Marcel Vogel, Lutie Larsen, etc., presented at USPA conferences, recorded and available in our archives...” Fact or Fake? Either way, a most interesting read.

Section VII – Articles of Interest

Explaining Radionics by Pete Radatti

This short lecture is taken from the book in progress, Lectures in Radionics by Peter Radatti.

We radionics operators often do a very poor job of explaining what radionics is and what it can do. You will often find on the Internet that radionics is a healing modality. A means that is accepted in Europe and Eastern Europe while discredited in the United States. That is like describing a mountain as a big pile of dirt. Yes, it is sort of true but far from a useful explanation. The fact is that many people come to radionics through need and that need is often health related.

Radionics simply put, is a way of modifying reality to better suit your needs. An explanation like that sounds too much like magic or science fiction so it is not a very useful explanation while it may be the most accurate.

A better way to explain radionics is to say that it is an electronic method of modifying everything that may be explained by quantum mechanics. You can then state that while modern electronic radionics has been observed to work since around 1909 it may in fact be far older. There are museums that contain what appears to be working radionics machines that are thousands of years old.

While we may not have a good explanation of how radionics works, we can observe that it works and in fact works at a statistical level that exceeds random chance. That is why this technology may have been in use for thousands of years, lost, rediscovered and in use again for over a century. Anything that has been of constant use for that length of time has to be useful or it would be discarded.

That can be a long explanation for modern people who desire quick answers. Here is a 30 second explanation:

Radionics is a systematic method of modifying anything of interest and appears to have a basis in quantum mechanics. It is observed to work at a statistically meaningful level and has been in constant use for hundreds to thousands of years. In some countries it is considered fraud and in other countries it is accepted as valid. Each person should make up their own mind.

From PMH Atwater, a new book, ALIENS AND THE NEAR-DEATH EXPERIENCE

By Gail Wind

PMH shared this with me: “If there is some way to let the crowd know that my last big research book is about to come out – ALIENS AND THE NEAR-DEATH EXPERIENCE, that would be great. This book will surprise everyone, including you. It comes out in May and can be preordered now by contacting Manzanita Carpenter at Inner Traditions/Bear & Co. manzanita@innertraditions.com. Her phone is 802-767-3174, ext. 135. They are located at 1 Park Street, Rochester, VT 05767.

From Amazon: “Near-death experience (NDE) researcher and spiritual counselor P. M. H. Atwater draws upon decades of scholarship, personal experiences, and testimonials from the Mutual UFO Network (MUFON) to explore the connections between NDEs and alien contact.

The author presents the research of pioneers in the field of alien interaction, including Greta Woodrew, Leo Sprinkle, Kenneth Ring, Whitley Streiber, and John Mack. She also shares 38 case study interviews with people who have had alien encounters and NDEs. Her findings reveal that people experiencing these phenomena report similar experiences of interactions with “beings of light,” telepathic communication, and journeys to otherworldly realms.

Atwater also reports on her own NDEs from the 1970s, revealing how they may demonstrate her past life as a space-traveling extraterrestrial named Arrakkus. The author provides transcripts of recorded conversations that Arrakkus had by speaking through her while she was in a trance state. She explains how her personal experiences and research have yielded conclusions that bear upon the fields of psychology, neuroscience, philosophy, and theology, and she discusses the implications of these findings for a deeper understanding of our potentials.”

From Simon and Shuster: “P. M. H. Atwater, L.H.D., is a distinguished researcher of near-death experiences, prayer chaplain, spiritual counselor, and visionary. She is the author of 15 books including Coming Back to Life, Future Memory, We Live Forever, The New Children and Near-Death Experiences, Beyond the Indigo Children, and Children of the Fifth World. She lives in Charlottesville, Virginia.”

Section VIII – Klimo’s Corner

by Jon Klimo

“I’m beginning to see that consciousness is slowly being understood as underlying everything which until very recently was not very popular thinking, but it’s been of course central to me for many years now and fueled many of the things I wrote for the U.S.P.A” [John wrote this in a “Letter to USPA” many moons ago. He would welcome any comments or questions to his column and can be reached at jonklimoidealism@gmail.com]

“I thank Gail Wind for this opportunity to be able to start writing, in this case orally dictating, what I have to say, and it will comprise, thanks to Gail, what we’re going to call a periodic ‘Klimo’s Corner’ in your USPA occasional newsletter.

I assume most of you reading this little Corner have read in the past at least some of the things I have written for the USPA very often as President’s Messages. I’m really curious about what you were able to make from those writings, if in fact you read any of them.

By our organization’s own website definition “Psychotronics” involves consciousness and the spiritual as well as science and technology including what could be called alternative science, what science itself refers to as pseudoscience or quackery which is a kind of cross we need to be bearing these days in the throes of mainstream material-reductionist science..

Part of my curiosity about how you have been responding to my thinking and writing is that although I try to address scientific and analytical type things in what I write, I think you could probably categorize my writing as essentially philosophical or even metaphysical, and even though my writing is not particularly poetic in style I acknowledge I am particularly a poet in this life, and as I grow older, proud of that fact rather than apologetic about it. The world could use more poets, especially these days than let's say politicians or capitalists. Shortly I will get into how I would be defining poet and poetry especially for those of you who are more scientifically inclined than I am.

I love the way psychotonics and even radionics can provide an entry point for things like consciousness, and what I'll call a larger picture of things in general. I think I'm an example of someone who avails himself of such an entry point as I have done in much of my past USPA presentations and writing over the years, even if a lot of that did not take with many of you because you probably just thought, "what the hell is he talking about?" I thought I was and still think I am making sense through what I'm saying and writing, even if so many of my fellows can't comprehend or be interested.

Yes, it makes for a lonely life, but one must nevertheless persevere in faith that what one believes in has sufficient truth to keep engaging one's life, lonely as it may be. But how many of you have learned, often the hard way, that you need to stick to your own guns even if those around you are not giving you that much positive regard or positive feedback.

I think it was Carl Jung and Kerenyi who wrote something like. "Woe unto he who has within that for which there is no external correlative." (From "Essays On a Science of Mythology" or some title like that). Therein lies the need to get one's bearings in light of others' thinking and feeling about you., like it or not. But woe unto any of you if you let that kind of external correlative define who and what you are. Maybe I'm talking now about individualism not conformity or rather conforming to one's own individuality.

If nothing else, the USPA has afforded many of us the opportunity to be and believe in who we essentially are, even if what we're surrounded by thinks we're foolish. Now at 84, I just choose to think my own way in spite of others, though I must admit it could feel very good to have others understanding or appreciating me more than they have.

I should really just use this as an opportunity to address you all rather than just talk about myself the way I have. Maybe many of you have been attracted to the USPA as a kind of organization that will tolerate quite interdisciplinary thinking and doing.

For example., what organization would allow engineers with a technological bent to consort with those who can talk about chakras, orgone energy or fundamental "frequency rates"? So, to the extent to which many of you reading this have any idea about what I'm talking about you could experience me right now as the external correlative for some of your own inner goings-on.

You're not alone. Maybe that's the motto for this little group., the USPA. I suppose it doesn't matter where on the spectrum you may lie- from science to the spiritual- but I think I can provide a certain amount of understanding and caring about you regardless, interdisciplinary that I am.

My wife's daughter married a Dutch physicist many years ago, a microscope authority, and I'll always remember him as someone who would extend me the time of day in spite of my not being formally trained in or particularly knowledgeable about science or technology. He always listened and avoided being judgmental or critical. Just hearing me out. If only we could give that courtesy more to each other across the divides between us. I would try to do my homework in the sciences to not have him be entirely turned off by my thinking or writing. And he would be able to connect with me through having laid out in my backyard in Oakland, California, and daydreaming and sort of going off-line occasionally and thereby having some kind of connection to my own more freewheeling speculations about science, even as he could be more open through his own, occasional letting go of his usual professional rigor. Hell, he was even knighted by the Queen (of Holland) to thank him for all he had done in the sciences.

No one knighted me that's for sure, but I was named and kept president of the US PA for quite a few years, which even though hardly anybody cares about this it was a certain form of being cared about even if those who were caring about me were not being much cared about themselves in "professional circles" or known about at all. So maybe we should reconsider the USPA as an organization of disenfranchised people who are always looking for that best fitting objective correlative lying outside of us in others.

I mention the Dutch physicist because he used to refer to the things I wrote, including USPA things, as being "poetry." At the time, I probably took that as some kind of a put-down or putting me in my place, which admittedly was a lot closer to poetry than to science, but the way I would write about scientific or philosophical things never felt to me as being particularly poetic in style.

Looking back on it I think what he may have been referring to was my inclination always to be inclusive, synthesizing together and metaphorically treating things, all of which could be considered poetic, I suppose. Embracing, and multiplying, and bringing together and seeing commonalities, not treating logically, analytically, and separatingly.

I don't think many of you would be drawn to the USPA unless you could get enough of that logical/analytical/separating-out character. At the same time many of you need the poetic things said of me by the Dutch scientist. So, could we in part define the USPA as who we are and what we like to think about and even think we're good at? Maybe the USPA is a little like the Statue of Liberty asking for the downtrodden to enter. But then again, I may be particularly feeling downtrodden these days while all of you very much aren't; I don't really know, but I have an inkling that many of you know something about what I'm talking about in this writing.

If any one of you wrote to me., for instance, with your own ideas about Psychotronics or Radionics, I know I would listen and understand as best I could. I would be the objective correlative for you if you wanted or needed that. My email is jonklimoidealism@gmail.com

Even as I am reaching out to you now, you are welcome to reach out to me. I'm just sitting in this retirement community after my 3 strokes with a lot of time on my hands. I would be glad to hear from you and what you have to say.

Part of what I am talking about has to do with brain hemispheres I suppose in so far as right brain/left brain things. The logico-deductive, critical, and analytical on the one hand and the intuitive, gestalt and wholistic/metaphoric/marrying on the other hand. Back to the definition of Psychotronics, according to the USPA. I hope I have situated myself, as well as having sort of defined myself a little in the meantime. If I might help in defining you more, let me know. Ask me, please!

Section XI- USPA Local Affiliate Groups

The USPA is establishing localized affiliate psychotronics groups wherever our members are located – in the United States and elsewhere in the world. This is so that USPA members and others interested in psychotronics can get together in person, socialize, collaborate, and have speakers make local presentations

These local groups will be independent to give you maximum freedom of organization and activities. These groups can be composed of USPA members, as well as, others interested in psychotronics who may later decide to become members of the USPA. A set of "Guidelines" will be provided.

Listed below are the USPA local affiliate groups that have already been established, with the leader(s) of each group and contact email address. Please contact the leader if you would like to join one of these. If you live in a town or city that is not near an existing local group, and are interested in starting a group in your area, please

Section XII – In Case You Missed February’s Masterclass

Masterclass #70 Interview with Nick Franks, Consciousness & The Universe

This interview was a continuation of Radionics Questions and Answers by Nick Franks, from our USPA members from 2025, #63. (Members can go to our website and review that Masterclass for free on Members tab.)

The recording is also for sale in our shop. Nick is an author and inventor of Radionics Equipment as learned from the materials of David Tansley and Malcom Rae. Live Q/A followed the interview, and is included in the recording.

Section XIII - MIA “Among the Missing”

Missing People, Organizations, Periodicals, Books, Artifacts, and more in the Psychotronics Field

by John H. Reed, USPA President

This is a new “column” or section of the USPA Newsletter, with the purpose of helping the USPA, as well as our members and research associates, to locate people, organizations, written works, devices, and other items that have seemingly disappeared, or have been extremely difficult to find in the psychotronics field. Updates will be added, and each missing item will be retained in future issues until it is found or otherwise resolved.

In our research and reading, we all have encountered reports or mentions of things of interest that we have tried to find. With our expanding readership, we can all help one another find what we have been searching for. Some may have experience in genealogical research, private investigation, law enforcement, or even intelligence work, which you could use to help with these searches.

This will also serve as a “People Locator Service” to help USPA members find authors, researchers, and other people involved in psychotronics, radionics, subtle energies, free energy, and related subjects. This would include people who have “disappeared” or have died long ago, and whose relatives USPA members may be trying to find in order to preserve the research papers and collection of that person.

If there is anything you have been searching for and need help to find, please write to me at: joreed43@gmail.com, and I will include your search help request in the next issues of the USPA Newsletter. And if you have any information about an item that is listed in this column, please email me and share what you know or your suggestions. Any request for confidentiality will be honored and protected.

Missing Device: Lafferty Radionic Instrument

Does anyone know anything about the Lafferty Radionic instrument? The "Lafferty" in the instrument name, may refer to Tom Lafferty, a recognized radionics practitioner and researcher who has contributed to the radionics field, particularly through patient surveys. It has been reported that Lafferty is associated with the development or analysis of the "Virtual Radionic Instrument" (VRI), which translates traditional, hardware-based radionic methods into computer/tablet software. If anyone has any information about this instrument or its inventor, please contact John at: joreed43@gmail.com

Missing Person: Paul Sauvin

We are trying to track down some of the early directors, officers, and researchers associated with the United States Psychotronics Association (USPA), after it was organized in 1975. Paul Sauvin was a USPA officer in 1996 and 1977. Paul, whose full name is Pierre Paul Sauvin, was an electrical engineer and inventor who, according to one source, worked in the aerospace industry and later with the National Institute for Rehabilitation Engineering at St. Joseph's Hospital in Paterson, NJ. He also worked with Dr. Carl Schleicher, head of Mankind Research Unlimited, and helped develop a device called the "AGRAD Machine." This device was designed to control crop insects, and was introduced on an experimental basis, although it is not known if it ever reached commercial production. Paul Sauvin's mother was Edith Sauvin, who lived in White Plains, NY, and died August 25th, 1987. Edith's only child was Pierre Paul Sauvin, who himself had 2 sons, Alan Paul Sauvin and Steven Eric Sauvin. He also had one daughter, Jane Elizabeth Sauvin. Any help in locating the children of Paul Sauvin would be greatly appreciated, and please write to joreed43@gmail.com.

Missing Organization and Proceedings: International Association for Psychotronic Research (IAPR)

Does anyone know what became of the International Association for Psychotronic Research? And do any of you have copies of its meeting proceedings? It was founded in 1973. However, the current location or activities of the IAPR are unknown.

The IAPR held numerous international conferences around the world, beginning with its first in 1974 in Prague, then Czechoslovakia. At this conference, Dr. Zdenek Rejdak was elected president for the Eastern Division of the IAPR, and Dr. Stanley Krippner was elected president for the West. The 8th International Conference on Psychotronic Research was held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, 1993, as a joint conference with the United States Psychotronics Association (USPA), but it is unknown if any subsequent conferences of the IAPR were held.

Proceedings of each of these conferences were published, but the USPA Library only has copies of the second conference in 1976 and the eighth conference in 1993. In addition, the IAPR published a newsletter called Psychotronik. Thanks to the research of Gail Wind, our current USPA Newsletter editor, we have the first issues of Psychotronik through vol.1, no.3-4, 1977, but none after that date. If any of you have any knowledge about this organization, or have copies of the proceedings, or newsletters, please write to John at: joreed43@gmail.com

Section XIV- Thomas Bearden's Books Are Available Through USPA

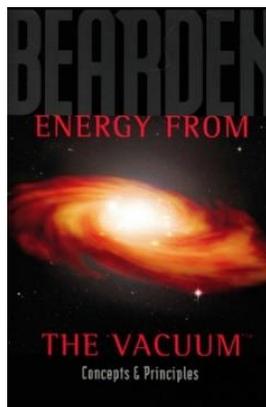

Dana Bearden, daughter of the late Thomas E. Bearden, has opened her private stash of her father's books to USPA! We will be selling them for her on commission and her prices are WAY below eBay, Amazon, Alibris, or anywhere else we've found them.

We have two volumes ready right now, but we'll be adding more soon. Please note: Currently, the prices include shipping for the United States only, but the USPA folks are open to working with people outside the US on an individual basis who are willing to pay the extra shipping, duties and taxes based on location. Contact gailinvermont@outlook.com for a shipping quote.

This is a very new project, for Dana and the USPA, so keep checking. We'll add more Bearden Titles as soon as we can. Find them at <https://www.psychotronics.org/shop/> in the Books section.

What is USPA?

The United States Psychotronics Association (USPA) is a federally recognized, nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization founded in 1975 to serve as a focal point for scientific and technical exploration of the universe of esoteric, spiritual, and psychic arts in the United States of America.

The USPA has been hosting annual conferences for its membership since its formation and has featured countless individuals with cutting-edge viewpoints, research, or theories to share, allowing any interested persons to openly discuss their work.

What is Psychotronics?

USPA defines psychotronics as the science of mind-body-environment relationships, an interdisciplinary science concerned with the interactions of matter, energy, and consciousness.

Psychotronics involves the study, research, and applications of the physics and technology of the mind, brain, spirit, consciousness, and the underlying forces of life and nature – hence the term “psychotronics.” A true understanding of the universe must include the spiritual as well as the technical. USPA provides an opportunity for amateur researchers to present their findings along with the professionals.

USPA stresses research, with documentation of results, and practical applications, rather than personal experience and unsupported hypotheses.

J.G. Gallimore’s Books are Still Available on Amazon - through assistance from USPA

Jerry G. Gallimore was one of the founders of the USPA in 1975, and was a leading researcher in psychotronics and unusual energies until his untimely death in 1989.

All five of J.G. Gallimore's rare books on psychotronics subjects and unusual energies have been reprinted by the United States Psychotronics Association (USPA) and are being made available at a fraction of the cost that used copies were being sold at online. Available at Amazon.com USPA Shares in the income from these sales.

So rare have these books been, that only a few libraries in the entire world had them in their collections, and some original Gallimore's books were being sold for several hundred dollars each online. However, with these newly reprinted volumes, each will be available for less than $30.00.

The Handbook of Unusual Energies: Volume	ISBN-13: 978-1543024999	The 1st book of 3 on unusual energies	468 Pages

Gallimore discusses in depth the research, discoveries, and inventions of all the major researchers in subtle energies, the aether, biological 62 fields, pyramid energy, radiesthesia, radionics, crystal transduction, and related subjects.

These include the works of Baron von Reichenbach's and his odic energy, Dr. Wilhelm Reich's orgone energy, Dr. Harold Burr's biological life fields, Kozyrev's time mirror, Edgar Cayce's transmission of energy, and related research done by many others.

Of particular importance is Gallimore's 127-page chapter on radionics. In this chapter he discusses in depth the research and devices of Ruth Drown, T. Galen Hieronymus, Rho Sigma, Dr. L. P. Corte, and other prominent people in the radionics field.

Collected Properties & Writings of J. G. Gallimore: Volume 2	ISBN-13: 978-1543025040	The 2nd book of 3 on unusual energies	258 Pages

This is the second book in the "Unusual Energies" series that J.G. Gallimore published. It covers Gallimore's research on Albert Abrams, the founder of modern radionics, psychological physics, psychic energy, thought resonance, subtle energies, crystals, and related subjects.

In addition, a number of radionics devices are discussed, such as the De La Warr Diagnostic Instrument. And very helpfully, the rates are provided for substances, body organs, and medical diseases and disorders. I very interesting interview of Christopher Bird, conducted by J.G. Gallimore is provided, as well as a discussion of Walter Russell and his research

Relationship Between Parapsychology and Gravity: Vol. 3	ISBN-13: 978-1543024944	The 3rd book of 3 on unusual energies	228 Pages

This book describes in depth the research and theories of J.G. Gallimore into the question of "parapsychology transmission" -the question of how such things as telepathy, remote viewing, ESP, and similar phenomena can physically occur. He discusses the various emanations, radiations, and energy fields of all matter and life including the ancient Chinese energy called "chi" (qi), the ancient Indian's prana energy, Reichenbach's "odic force," Gurwitsch's "mitogenic radiation,"

Wilhelm Reich's orgone energy, and other subtle energies. He shows how these energies are similar, how they interact, and how they are related to gravity. He also discusses crystals as transducers of these energies, and provides diagrams of devices that could potentially be used to harness or control these energies.

Transverse Paraphysics: The New Science of Space, Time, and Gravity Control	ISBN-13: 978-1543024920	Gallimore's fourth book	374 Pages

This book covers the visionary research and theories developed by J.G. Gallimore about anti-gravity, space, time, and biophysics. He discusses in depth the dimensions of space, time, and gravity, and new discoveries in each of these areas. In addition, he covers research being done on anti-gravity and then discusses anti-gravity patents that have been obtained.

He also discusses the intriguing concept of aura energy fields surrounding humans and other living things, and how extra-sensory perception (ESP) might be explained through biophysical principles.

Unified Field Theory Research Book:
Using Subjective Response to Psi-Plasma

ISBN-13:
978-1543024838

Gallimore's Fifth

134 Pages

This book is about psychotronics, radionics, electromagnetic fields and waves, psi-plasma, plasma fields, subtle energies, bio-electromagnetic energy, and other unusual energies emitted by living and non-living things. It also is about how living things interact with and are affected by these energies, which may enhance or harm health.
