Dr. Beverly Rubik Invited to Speak at Transformative Technology Conference

Dr. Beverly Rubik, president of the United States Psychotronics Association (USPA), has been invited to speak at the annual Transformative Technology Conference in Palo Alto, California, October 13-14, 2017. The honor of speaking before this conference is given to those who are among the most innovative in the nation, especially for innovations that are revolutionary or transformative in some way. Dr. Rubik certainly qualifies in that regard, since she was the head of the Center for Frontier Sciences at Temple University for seven years and has headed the Institute for Frontier Science in Oakland, California, for more than twenty years. In addition, she holds faculty positions at Saybrook Graduate School and Energy Medicine University.

Dr. Rubik's presentation is titled, Psychotronics: Intention Meets Technology, and the abstract of her presentation is below. Full details of the Transformative Technology Conference may be obtained from the following website:

Psychotronics: Intention Meets Technology

Beverly Rubik, Ph.D.

President, US Psychotronics Association

Presentation at Transformative Technology Conference, October, 2017, Palo Alto, CA

Psychotronics is a decades old field established around the science of mind-body-environment relationships. It is an interdisciplinary science concerned with the interactions of matter, energy, and consciousness. Psychotronics involves the study, research, and applications of the physics and technology of the mind, brain, spirit, consciousness, and the underlying forces of life and nature – hence the term “psychotronics”. We believe that a true understanding of the universe must include the spiritual, as well as, the technical. We stress research, with documentation of results, and practical applications, rather than personal experience and unsupported hypotheses. Join this session to learn more about the cutting edge of new and controversial bio-signals. Learn the history of psychotronics and the frontiers of biosignals.

Short News, Notes, and Queries

(If anyone would like to make a short news announcement, report something, has a question about anything related to psychotronics and related subjects, or has any information or comments about any of the following notes and queries, please write to the editor, John Reed at: joreed43@gmail.com)

1. Do any of you know anyone who has ever owned, used, or did research on the Dotto Ring? This was an electrotherapy treatment device developed by Gianni Dotto back in the 1970's and is said to have been used successfully to treat cancer and other diseases in humans and animals. In addition, the Dotto Ring was also said to be able to slow down the aging process and even rejuvenate individuals to some degree.

2. Does anyone know anything about a man named William Lehr (1933-1996), who lived in Scammon, Kansas, and who developed several energy and healing devices, and made a reproduction of the T. Henry Moray energy device?

In addition, Lehr is said to have created a high-powered spark-gap device for healing purposes that cured a man who had been sent home to die, as well as a huge bibliography of articles and books dealing with new energy sources and energy medicine and treatment.

3. Does anyone have video tapes of the presentations that Andrija Puharich made at the 1982 US Psychotronics Association Conference? The title of Dr. Puharich's first presentation was: "Chemical Compounds: Receptors of Artificial ELF", and was sold for a period of time on the USPA website with this title and catalog number F6.

The second presentation that Dr. Puharich made at the 1982 USPA Conference was the Keynote Address at the Awards banquet. The Title of this presentation was "Kindling + 1" and had catalog number F7. If anyone has either or both of these tapes, please contact the editor, John Reed at: joreed43@gmail.com.

Andrija Puharich, Chemical Compounds: Receptors of Artificial ELF (1982) F6

Andrija Puharich, Keynote Speaker:, Kindling +1; Awards Banquet (1982) F7

4. Art Tool and Die Company: Does anyone know anything about the Art Tool and Die Company that was located in Detroit, Michigan, in the 1930s and 1940s, and apparently manufactured radionics devices? It has been referred to in a number of publications on radionics, psychotronics, and related subjects, but it is not clear what devices they manufactured.

5. Mangrove College for Radionics: Does anyone know anything about the Mangrove College for Radionics, and if it ever published a periodical of any kind? Its address at one time was: 1313 N. Market St., Hercules Plaza Suite 3410, Wilmington, Delaware 19801, although this appears to be a mail box service location. It was once headed by a Dr. P. W. Meier.
6. Were you ever a member of the Electronic Medicine Association (EMA) or know anyone who was? According to online sources, this organization was co-founded by Peter Moscow (US), former president of the USPA, and John Morley-Kirk (UK) and was incorporated in the United Kingdom in 2001. (UK Company number 04223137). From 2001 through 2010, the EMA held numerous seminars, workshops, and conferences, and may have published a newsletter or journal, although this is uncertain.

Unfortunately both Peter Moscow and John Morley-Kirk died in 2011, and records show that the organization was officially dissolved in the United Kingdom in October of 2011. A number of people have indicated that they would like to revive this organization, and we are attempting to locate all former members. So if you have any interest in this, or by chance have an old membership list, please write to the editor, John H. Reed, M.D. (joreed43@gmail.com), so that I can contact the former members to see if they would be interested in resurrecting this organization, or starting a new one with a similar mission.

7. Do any of you happen to know anything about the Paraphysical Laboratory that was founded in the UK by Benson Herbert in 1966, or have any issues of the Journal of Paraphysics that he published for more than 20 years? Mr. Herbert's laboratory was located at Privett Farm, Downton, Wiltshire, England, between Salisbury and Southampton. His mission included an attempt to provide a workable theory and physical explanation for paranormal phenomena, including telepathy, remote viewing, dowsing, and other extraordinary abilities and phenomena. Unfortunately, Benson Herbert died in 1991, and no one seems to know what became of the papers and records of the laboratory, or if he even had any family, who might be able to shed light on this. So if you know anything about Benson Herbert or have any issues of his periodical, please contact the editor at: joreed43@gmail.com.

OFFSHORE MEDICAL TOURISM OPPORTUNITIES ON NEVIS ISLAND, CARIBBEAN

The Sacred Medical Order • Knights of Hope completed their 10th World Congress in June, 2017, and the outcomes were amazing.

1. SMOKH opened its Hospitaller/Crusader Museum/Chapel
(<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=V3jFK7WZio4>)
2. Two dignitaries of Caribbean States joined the Order
(<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yp99nPH9kKo>)
3. The Grand Master's Book on the Unique History of Nevis was debuted to the public
(<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=I9Y9MoJkW-s&t=428s>)
4. Many luminaries made medical presentations at the Congress on treatments of various illnesses
5. Plans were made with members for Opening of the Fountain of Hope medical park in 2018.

Presentation was made by former Prime Minister Joseph Parry that medical tourism will be a welcome movement in his new administration and that SMOKH members are welcomed on the island. Also, the Order's Grand Master will be nominated for post of Wellness Commissioner as advisor to government.

A Medical Park, Fountain of Hope, is now under development. Practitioners of the Order are now participating, some seeking licensure with intentions to move to Nevis, the ultimate Medical Tourism destination for the Caribbean. New members are welcomed from the US Psychotronic Association. Nevis represents the future safe haven for practice and research in psychotronics and formal members of SMOKH will assuredly become licensed to practice freely. It is urged interesterted parties contact the Grand Master for details for this unique window of opportunity as soon as possible. Elections are due soon.

‘Biocymatics’ Experiment May Hold the Key to Understanding the Origins of Life

In February 2107 the CymaScope team reported on the development of the Digital CymaScope, a new type of scientific instrument that makes sound visible. In the instrument, sound's vibrations are imprinted onto the surface and sub surface of water, creating vibrational patterns that are captured by a high specification 'Blackmagic' digital camera. The camera imagery can then be analysed by powerful software tools, generating valuable data. Since all the cells in our body generate oscillations and sounds, the implications for this new investigative tool in medical science are profound.

In August 2017, Dr Sungchul Ji from Rutgers University in Piscataway, N.J., visited the CymaScope laboratory to carry out a series of ground-breaking experiments in which yeast cells suspended in water were introduced into the CymaScope for the first time. Dr Ji, said, "Some years ago I developed an aquaresonance hypothesis (ARH), which has testable features in cell biology, neuroscience, and medicine. For example, ARH suggests what may be called the 'aquaresonance model of the origin of life', which embraces the genesis of self-replicating RNA's and DNA's and to the evolution of proto-living cells. Water plays a dual role in cell linguistic communication, both as the medium and the message, just as marble can serve as the medium of artistic expression as well as the product of such expression, that is, a sculpture conveying a message. I was interested to see if the CymaScope could test aspects of my hypothesis. The results of our yeast experiments were more than I had dared hope for. Our simple series of experiments could lead to the emergence of a new science that we might call 'biocymatics', the study of the biological properties of living cells by examining their effects on the sound-induced water-wave patterns."

John Stuart Reid, research director of the CymaScope laboratory, takes up the story. "When the 1% yeast-water mixture was injected into the instrument's quartz cell, along with an equal volume of 1% aqueous solution of glucose, the result was a frenzy of activity for a few seconds, as though the yeast was 'hungry' for the glucose and acted in a dynamic way, just as people sometimes do when given food after a prolonged fast. But after a few seconds this frenzy was replaced by a beautiful asymmetric pattern. In discussions with Dr Ji we concluded that the addition of glucose induces certain physical and chemical changes in the yeast cells which affect water molecule clustering. If this proves to be true it may mean that we have a new tool for investigating the properties of living cells by observing their effects on water. After the initial feeding frenzy the yeast cells appear to change their properties more slowly as a result of metabolism. These slower changes cause sudden transitions in the observed water-wave patterns over a period of several minutes. It was very exciting to see events occurring that have probably never been seen before and that hold potential for the advancement of biology and water science."

These organizations and periodicals, some of which ceased operation many years ago, are listed below, with brief information. If you know anything about these organizations, please contact the editor. The periodicals have been added to the master list of psychotronics periodicals in the USPA Periodicals Library section of this journal. We are seeking copies of all issues of these periodicals, which we plan to digitize and make available to our members as a USPA membership benefit. So if you have any issues the periodicals listed below or any of the missing issues of the periodicals listed in the USPA Periodicals Library section of this Journal, please let the editor know by emailing him at: joreed43@gmail.com.

Organizations:

Biophysical Laboratory: This is an organization that was founded and headed by J. Cecil Maby in Frocester, Gloucestershire, England, probably in the 1940s, although the date is uncertain. This organization is no longer in existence, but it is unknown when it discontinued operations. J. Cecil Maby was a well known researcher, and authored the books: 1) The Physics of the Divining Rod (1939) and 2) Physical Principles of Radiesthesia (1966). It is not known if the Biophysical Laboratory ever published a periodical of any kind.

German School of Radionics (GSR): This organization was founded by Claudio Romanazzi in Germany in 1994. It has a website at <http://www.radionik.info/> , and operates a small publishing house specializing in radionics and health topics. It also publishes a periodical titled, Radionik Newsletter. In 2004 Romanazzi built the "Radionik Manager", a computer aided radionic device and in 2010, he was rebuilding George de la Warr's Radionic Camera. In 2011-2014 Romanazzi reinvented Basis 64 and Lux Radionica, Keith Mason's radionic systems.

Visible Spectrum Research Institute (VSRI): This was a research organization founded by Dinshah P. Ghadiali (1873-1966) in Malaga, New Jersey, in June, 1953. Its research focused on color and light therapy. In 1976, 10 years after Ghadiali had passed away, the Dinshah Health Society was incorporated by his son and replaced the VSRI. The VSRI published a periodical titled, The Visible Spectrum Researcher.

Periodicals: (all added to the master list of USPA psychotronic periodicals)

Radionik Newsletter: This periodical is published by the German School of Radionics (GSR), an organization founded by Claudio Romanazzi in Germany in 1994. It is a monthly, and began with issue No. 1 in 2006, and has been published continuously since then. The USPA Library needs all issues of this periodical.

Subtle Energies: (ISSN: 1084-2209) This was the original title of the periodical, Subtle Energies and Energy Medicine, when it began publishing in 1990. The title was changed to Subtle Energies and Energy Medicine in 1996.

Visible Spectrum Researcher: This was a periodical published by the Visible Spectrum Research Institute in Malaga, New Jersey, USA. It was edited by Dinshah P. Ghadiali and was published monthly, focusing on color and light therapy. It began with vol. 1, no. 1 (January, 1955), and published issues through at least vol. 3, no. 1 (January, 1957). It is not known if any issues were published beyond that date. The USPA Library needs all issues of this periodical.

2017 Radionics Symposium Taught By the Masters

Schedule

Day 1

October 26, 2017 - 8AM to 5PM

7:15AM - 8AM

Registration

8AM - 8:30AM - Dr. Ron Barone

Introduction

8:30AM - 9:30AM - Dr. Ron Barone

The story of miasms begins with Samuel Hahnemann himself. As his experience of homeopathy brought him to understand its usefulness not only in acute but also in chronic disease, Hahnemann found that chronic diseases arise from a deep inner susceptibility that he called miasm. External causes of disease, he observed, can bear fruit only in the fertile ground of a miasmatic foundation, which passes by various means from person to person and creates the predisposition to particular kinds of disease states. Hahnemann identified three miasms, each with its own characteristics and disease propensities. In recent developments, there are 4 primary miasms and 4 recessive. We will learn how to deal with these with radionics.

Dr Darius Dinshah developed a system of using light as a direct application to the body for many diseases. A Pdf of this book will be supplied on the notes disc. I will demonstrate how to apply light in radionics as an application to the input well as well as a basic rate sheet for broadcasting.

He is a skilled dowser in the natural and spiritual realm. A personal friend of Master Dowser and Shaman Raymon Grace. He is also skilled in helping the dying go through transition to the spirit world. He has considerable experience with discarnates and a wide realm of non-physical issues. Scott will be teaching about Magnetism and Polarity, which are the two most important things in life. He will be sharing Radionic and Dowsing technology which will lead to the understanding of how to analyze and correct imbalances in Magnetism. Scott has spent the last 20 years researching and developing tried and true strategies that remedy many types of issues for people, animals and properties.

9:15AM - 10:15AM - Marty Lucas

The raw energy of life can be called Chi. When there is ample Chi, the body is healthy, but not all Chi is the same. Its structure mirrors that of bio-photons. So there is some that helps the body to repair itself, there is some that supports replication and some that moves the body towards recycling. By managing the mixture of Chi in a subject we can support the repair and replication functions. Balancing Chi works at a more fundamental level than even Somatids! This work peels another layer from the 'onion'!

Marty Lucas, Every Advantage Ag, Urbandale, IA - Marty Lucas is a full-time Radionic Practitioner and teacher out of central Iowa. He is known for in-depth and far-reaching research into the fringes of radionic practice. Taught By the Masters

10:30AM - 11:30AM - Robin Hermanson

A high-stress lifestyle coupled with improper eating habits can wreak havoc on delicate hormonal balance. Symptoms of hormonal imbalance may include PMS, osteoporosis, weight gain, altered sex drive, allergies, fibroids, urinary track infections, fatigue, anxiety, water retention, hair loss, even depression. Keeping hormones in balance results in healthy weight and optimal energy levels. How to measure your hormone levels, what hyper tonicity or hypo tonicity of what organs, what deficiencies of vitamins, what parasites and toxins contribute to imbalances and how to balance your hormones naturally will be discussed.

Robin Hermanson, Garretson, SD - Robin is a Professional Mechanical Engineer, Green Building Engineer and Certified Energy Manager. He is also a Certified Organic Farmer and has 360 acres. For 14 years, Robin has researched health and longevity through the Reams Biological Theory of Ionization. Robin is a veteran radionics operator helping people solve a wide range of health problems with alternative methods and detoxification.

1PM - 2:30PM - Dr. Linda Lancaster

Radiesthesia is the ability to detect vibrations of force fields emanating from minerals, plants, animals and humans. Every living cell is like an electric battery broadcasting a pulsing rhythm, creating a field. The ability to contact these fields is called Radiesthesia. Medical Radiesthesia is a method of discovering information from energy fields around the human being, animals and plants. The Parcels System utilizes a pendulum and a Determination Board to measure these frequencies. While the applications of Medical Radiesthesia are vast, Dr. Linda will teach an effective approach to taking care of yourself and your family through this system of Radionics.

Dr. Linda Lancaster - Dr. Linda is a Board Certified Naturopathic Physician and Homeopath. She has been in practice since 1981 and founded Light Harmonics Institute, an Energy Medicine Clinic and Educational Center based in Santa Fe, New Mexico and maintains clinics in Santa Fe and New York City. Her training includes Classical Homeopathy, Radionics, Medical Radiesthesia, Subtle Energy Healing, Nutrition, Herbal Medicine, Ayurveda and Detoxification Methods. Her health and cleansing programs have been offered to her patients for more than 30 years.

2:45PM - 3:45PM - Ed Kelly

Ed Kelly will share the work of KRT veteran Cathie Jordan and his step-mom Marianne Keeler-Kelly, who collaborated for years on advanced potentizing projects. Emphasis will be placed on delivering ideas, techniques, and lessons learned that can be applied directly to the projects of new and intermediate users. We will also discuss ways to utilize potentized materials for maximum impact and effectiveness.

Ed Kelly, Kelly Research Technologies - KRT (www.kellyresearchtech.com) has been delivering radionic instruments, equipment, and information to the world for 37 years. Sister company BETAR USA (www.betar.com) produces focused vibroacoustic sound therapy systems that allow riders to literally feel their favorite music - every note and drum beat - as a sonic energy massage that melts away physical pain, emotional stress, and/or mental anxiety. Ed Kelly took the leadership position in these firms following the untimely passage of his father, founder Peter J. Kelly, in 2004. Ed has been involved in radionics and the esoteric arts for his entire life, literally growing up around such giants as T. Galen Hieronymus, Thomas Bearden, Bob Beck, Bob Beutlich, and countless other inventors and researchers. Ed has a BS in Geology from the University of Georgia, an MBA from Kennesaw State University, and served the nation in the U.S. Marines.

Among the Missing, (and Updates): A Column about Missing People, Organizations, Periodicals, Books, Artifacts, and Collections in the Psychotronics Field

by John H. Reed, M.D

This is a new “column” or section of the USPA Newsletter, and will be an ongoing part of every issue, with the purpose of helping the USPA, as well as, our members and research associates locate people, organizations, periodicals, books, artifacts, devices, collections, and other items that have seemingly disappeared, or have been extremely difficult to find. Updates will be added, and each missing item will be retained in future issues until it is found or otherwise resolved, since some readers may not have seen prior issues of the USPA Newsletter or the original notice of the missing item.

In addition, this will also serve as a “People Locator Service” to help find authors and researchers on psychotronics, radionics, subtle energies, energy medicine, and related subjects, who have “disappeared” or have died long ago, and whose relatives you may be trying to find in order to preserve the research papers and collection of that person.

In our research and reading, we all have encountered people, organizations, periodicals, books, articles, or other things that we have tried to find, and some people have searched for years to find something, but have not yet found it, despite the vast resources of the Internet. However, with our large USPA membership, we can all help one another find what we have been searching for. Some of you may have experience in genealogical research, or private investigation, law enforcement, or even intelligence work which you could utilize to help each other, or perhaps just make suggestions on how or where to search for something.

So if there is anything you have been searching for and need help to find, please write to me, John H. Reed, M.D. at: joreed43@gmail.com, and I will include your search help request in the next and subsequent issues of the USPA Newsletter. And if you have any information about an item that is listed in “Among the Missing”, please write to the same email address and share what you know or your suggestions. If there is something that is confidential, your confidentiality request will be honored and protected.

Missing Person and Periodical: William Reid, Editor of the Journal of Scientific Controversy

We are trying to find William Reid, or his surviving family, who lived in the Boulder, Colorado, area in the 1960s and edited a periodical called “Journal of Scientific Controversy.”

Mr. Reid had placed an advertisement in a 1963 issue of Analog Science Fiction and Fact (ASFF) stating that the first issue of the Journal of Scientific Controversy would be published in the second quarter of 1963. The advertisement showed William Reid as the editor, with the address: P.O. Box 855, Boulder, Colorado. (There was no zip code at that time.)

However, it is uncertain how many issues, if any, were ever published of this periodical. It is not found in any public, government, or university library in the world, including the Library of Congress or British Library. But many periodicals on controversial subjects are not held by such libraries, so this is not entirely surprising.

If any of you know, or once knew, a person by the name of William Reid, who lived in the Boulder, Colorado, area in the 1960s, please write to the editor at: joreed43@gmail.com. Many of you are family tree and genealogy researchers, so even if you have never heard of this man, perhaps you would be kind enough to check your genealogy resources to help locate him or his family.

Missing Device: Marcel Vogel's Omega- 1 Radionics Instrument

In a 1987 meeting presentation, YouTube Video, available here, beginning about 4:20, Marcel Vogel states that he had been trying to find a way by which he could measure the subtle energies and fields in the crystals he was working with, and that he prayed to God to give him an instrument to make such measurements. Marcel says that about two months later, a man named Daniel Perkins, apparently guided by higher forces to build such an instrument, came to Marcel's door and said, "Here is your instrument, the Omega-1. You will know how to use it," and walked away. But where is that particular Omega-1, and were any other Omega-1 instruments built? It is known that other Omega models of radionics instruments were produced, especially Omega-5 instruments, but it is not known if the company that built them still exists. In addition, does anyone know who Daniel Perkins is, and where he is located? I read in another source that the delivering man's name was Lou Perkins, but is doubtful that Marcel would have not remembered the correct name. Perhaps Lou may have been a relative of Daniel Perkins, or may have been involved in some other way. Anyone who can shed light on this mystery, please write to the editor at: joreed43@gmail.com.

Missing and Mysterious Stone: The "Swedish Stone" of T. Henry Moray's "Free Energy" Device:

Has anyone done any research on what the substance called "Swedish Stone" is that T. Henry Moray used in the 1920s to extract energy from cosmic rays and produce electricity? According to Moray's original diaries, he discovered the stone somewhere near the city of Abisko, Sweden, in 1913 when he was there doing his overseas Mormon missionary service. He brought the stone back to the US and subsequently created a device using the stone to produce electricity in much the same way that silicon is used to produce electricity when struck by light. However, the Swedish stone used in Moray's device apparently had the particular molecular and/or crystalline structure such that it would produce electricity when struck with cosmic rays, which constantly strike the earth. And since cosmic rays are an electromagnetic wave with much higher energy than light, which is also an electromagnetic wave, Moray's device produced a great deal more electricity than any current silicon based devices of similar size.

Since cosmic rays flood the universe, clearly such a device could provide essentially free electrical power anywhere on earth or anywhere else in the universe. Some have hypothesized that the Swedish stone was a radioactive substance, whose radioactivity was used to produce the electricity. However, others believe that the Swedish stone was not radioactive, but just happened to have the particular structure necessary to convert cosmic rays to electricity. Theoretically there are substances like silicon, only of a different structure, that will convert each of the electromagnetic wave frequencies to electricity, and perhaps Moray just accidentally discovered the substance that would do this with cosmic waves. Please contact the editor if you have any information about this "Swedish Stone" substance: joreed43@gmail.com

Andrija Puharich's Lost Manuscript and other Puharich Mysteries by Greg Mallozzi

During the late 60s and into the 70s, Puharich owned and worked out of a large house in rural Ossining, New York. A home laboratory known as Lab 9. Lab 9 produced the most mysterious and far out work that Puharich was involved in when he began to delve deeper and deeper into parapsychological, experimental research: like alleged communication with extraterrestrial beings VIA trance mediumship and ELF (extremely low frequency) waves and their effect on the brain.

At Lab 9, Puharich worked with a faraday cage, a large cage that blocks electrostatic and electromagnetic influences. Puharich found that when a subject was placed inside the faraday cage and a certain level of specially controlled electromagnetic waves were sent through the cage, the subjects ESP abilities were heightened significantly. He conducted what some have called inhumane, psychological experiments on human subjects. Lab 9, like The Round Table Foundation, began to attract people from all walks of life.

Shrouded in controversy, the new film on the life of Dr. Andrija Puharich that we are producing will show what Lab 9 was really like, using never before seen photos, videos and transcripts. In 1978, a mysterious attempt to burn down Lab 9 was made. The town of Ossining ruled it arson. Puharich's publisher, Doubleday, was also broken into at this time and the manuscript he was working on was destroyed. Was someone out to get Puharich, to discredit and sabotage his work? If so, who? People who were present at Lab 9 at the time of the infamous fire will weigh in on what really happened, which to this day is unsolved.

If anyone has any knowledge about the missing manuscript or other mysteries surrounding the life of Dr. Andrija Puharich or has any video tapes, audio tapes, or correspondence of Puharich, please contact:

Greg Mallozzi at: gregorymallozzi@gmail.com or the editor John Reed at: joreed43@gmail.com

Combo Mystery: Missing Person, Organization, and Book, All Related

Person: Dr. Floyd S. Graham, Sr. Organizations: Radionic Laboratories and Radiant Associates, Inc. founded by Floyd S. Graham, Sr. Book: The Radiant Era, by Floyd S. Graham, Sr.

This is our first “Combo Mystery” of a missing person, the organization(s) he founded, and the book that he wrote. The organization “Radionic Laboratories” was referred to in the American Society of Dowser's Quarterly Digest, Vol. 4, No. 2 (May, 1964), page 22, in a letter to the editor, by Dr. Floyd S. Graham, Jr. It indicated that Dr. Graham was the president of the “International Headquarters Unit” of “Radionic Laboratories”, located in the small town of Tumtum, Washington, which is located northwest of Spokane, WA. The letter was signed “Radiant Associates, Inc.”.

These names suggest that there may have been two different organizations, or that the “Radionic Laboratories” was part of the corporation, “Radiant Associates, Inc. However, I checked my database of incorporated organizations, which covers both profit and non-profit corporations, operating or defunct, that have been formed in the United States and worldwide since the early 1900's, and neither name was shown as ever having existed in the State of Washington. But since the letter was written and published in 1964, there is little doubt that Dr. Graham and the organization entities he mentioned did exist at that time in Tumtum, WA.

A further mystery related to Dr. Graham is the booklet he wrote titled, “The Radiant Era”, date and place of publication unknown. It is being offered for sale online, with a photo, as shown at left. It is said to be published by the Journal of Natural Living, and is 22 pages long, stapled, and sized 6.75 by 7.75 inches.

However, a check of the WorldCat database, which lists the holdings of every library in the United States, Canada, and the UK, including the Library of Congress and the famous British Library (AKA British Museum Library), shows that this booklet by Dr. Graham is not located in any known library.

So if you know anything about Dr. Floyd S. Graham, Sr., the Radionic Laboratories, or Radiant Associates, Inc., in Tumtum, Washington, or anything about his booklet, The Radiant Era, please contact the editor, John H. Reed, at: joreed43@gmail.com. If you happen to have a copy of the booklet in your personal collection, the USPA Library would greatly appreciate it if you would make a xerox copy of it for the library, which you can scan and email as a PDF, or send the physical copy to: USPA Library and Archives, 4401 Roland Avenue, Unit 405, Baltimore, MD 21210.

Missing Devices:

1. The AGRAD Machine: In the 1970's Mankind Research Unlimited, Inc.(MRU), headed by Dr. Carl Schleicher, was offering for sale a device called the AGRAD Machine. It was intended to be used in the electromagnetic treatment of crops and the control of insect populations, and sold for $390.00. MRU claimed that AGRAD machines had been used for several years by MRU researchers to conduct experimental applications of the type described in The Secret Life of Plants by Christopher Bird and Peter Tompkins, and Report on Radionics by Edward W. Russell. Theoretically, the AGRAD machine was intended to produce effects through electromagnetic wavefronts that would interact with and control insects by disturbing the insect sensor mechanisms. A photo of the device and additional information appeared in one of MRU's publications which you can access here.

Missing Organizations:

1. American Electronic Research Association (AERA): Albert Abrams established the American Electronic Research Association in the early 1920s and it continued to operate until at least 1935, when John F. Spaunhurst was the president of AERA, according to the 1935 Edition of Who's Who Among Association Executives. The AERA published the monthly Journal of the American Electronic Research Association from 1924 through some point in 1936, when it ceased publication, according to Harvard University records.. Only two libraries in the world are known to have issues of this periodical. There are only two issues in the Harvard University Medical School Library, and the Kirkwood School of Osteopathic Medicine has one issue. If you know anything about this organization, or happen to have any issues of its journal, please contact the USPA Journal and Newsletter editor, John Reed at: joreed43@gmail.com.
2. International Association for Psychotronic Research (IAPR): Does anyone know what became of the International Association for Psychotronic Research? And do any of you have copies of its meeting proceedings or newsletter, if such a newsletter were published? It was founded in 1973, even before the United States Psychotronic Association (USPA), which was founded in 1975. However, the current location or activities of the IAPR are unknown.

The IAPR held numerous international conferences around the world, beginning with its first in 1974 in Prague, then Czechoslovakia. At this conference, Dr. Zdenek Rejdak was elected president for the Eastern Division of the IAPR, and Dr. Stanley Krippner was elected president for the West. The 8th International Conference on Psychotronic Research was held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, 1993, as a joint conference with the United States Psychotronics Association (USPA), but it is unknown if any subsequent conferences of the IAPR were held.

Proceedings of each of these conferences were published. If copies of these proceedings can be obtained, or any newsletters that it may have published, we will add them to the USPA Library and make them available to USPA members. If you have any knowledge about this organization, please write to the editor at: joreed43@gmail.com

3. International Radionics Association (IRA): Does anyone know anything about the International Radionics Association (IRA), which was located in Springfield, Missouri in the late 1940s. This is known, because a book called The Truth about Radionics was published in 1947 by this organization, and although the author's name is anonymous, it is highly probable that the author was T. Galen Hieronymus, who passed away many years ago.

I checked several newspaper databases, and references to this organization were found in the press as far back as the early 1930s, and as late as the early 1960s, but nothing more recent than that. If you have any knowledge about this organization, please write to the editor at: joreed43@gmail.com

Missing People, and Updates:

Missing USPA Related People:

We are trying to track down some of the original directors and officers of the United States Psychotronics Association (USPA), when it was organized in 1975, with the word "Radionics" in the organization title. Does anyone have any information on the current whereabouts of the following people, or family members, if the person is known to have passed away, or where they passed away?? Please check Ancestry.com, social media websites, newspaper archives, and any other databases you have to help find these people.

1. Paul Sauvin, USPA 2nd Vice Pres., 1976 and 1st Vice Pres., 1977. Paul Sauvin, whose full name is Pierre Paul Sauvin, is an electrical engineer and inventor who, according to one source, worked in the aerospace industry and later with the National Institute for Rehabilitation Engineering at St. Joseph's Hospital in Paterson, NJ. He also worked with Dr. Carl Schleicher, head of Mankind

Research Unlimited, and helped develop a device called the "AGRAD Machine". This device was designed to control crop insects, and was introduced on an experimental basis, although it is not known if it ever reached commercial production. Paul Sauvin's mother was Edith Sauvin, who lived in White Plains, NY, and died August 25th, 1987. Edith's only child was Pierre Paul Sauvin, who himself had 2 sons, Alan Paul Sauvin and Steven Eric Sauvin. He also had one daughter, Jane Elizabeth Sauvin. Any help in locating the children of Paul Sauvin would be greatly appreciated, and please write to joreed43@gmail.com.

2. Dr. Marcel Vogel and his Research Papers: Does anyone know what became of the papers and files of Dr. Marcel Vogel, who died in 1991? Dr. Vogel did extensive research on crystals and crystal healing, pyramid power, the "Backster Effect" involving plants and their bioenergetic fields, and a number of other psychotronics related subjects. He also spoke numerous times at USPA conferences. Marcel Vogel worked at IBM for 27 years and had 32 patents. If you have any knowledge about Marcel Vogel and what became of his papers and files after he died, please write to your editor at: joreed43@gmail.com. The USPA would like to make sure that all of his papers are preserved.

Missing Periodicals:

- 1. British Journal of Radiesthesia and Radionics: Does anyone have any issues of The British Journal of Radiesthesia and Radionics. It was published in London, England, by the British Radiesthesia Association, 1953-1963. The original title was British Journal of Radiesthesia, published from 1953-1957. No libraries in the United States, public or university, have this journal in their collection., and only five libraries elsewhere in the world are known to have any issues at all: The British Museum Library (AKA The British Library), Oxford, Cambridge, the National Library of Scotland, and Trinity College Library, in Dublin Ireland. If you have any issues of this periodical, will you please let me know? And for our members and associates in The UK and Ireland, if you can access these periodicals at any of the above libraries, you would do a huge service for all of us if you would Xerox what issues are available and send them to me. A generous donor has offered to pay whatever expenses are involved for doing this service. We will add them to the USPA Library and make them available to researchers. Please contact the editor at: joreed43@gmail.com

Missing Books:

Rhea White and Larissa Vilenskaya wrote a book titled Parapsychology in the Soviet Union, Eastern Europe, and China: A Compendium of Information. It was supposedly published by Scarecrow Press of Metuchen, NJ, a well know publisher of reference books. This book was listed as reference work #680 on page 213 of Rhea White's book, Parapsychology: New Sources of Information, 1973-1989 , also published by Scarecrow Press. I called the publisher, and they said they have never published this book, and know nothing about it. As you can see from entry #680, Rhea White noted that this book was “in press”, so it may have been in a preparation stage, but the manuscript may never have been sent to Scarecrow Press.

Again, I have searched the WorldCat, which shows books and monograph holdings of virtually every public and university library in the United States and Canada, and many of the large libraries in the UK and elsewhere in the world. But this book title does not exist in the WorldCat database, which indicates that this book is not held in any library, even special collections, which are also included in WorldCat. Unfortunately, I was unable to ask either of the authors about this, since both have passed away.

Rhea White was a well known parapsychology researcher, so some of you may have known her or heard her speak of the missing book manuscript that she was working on. Larissa Vilenskaya was from Russia, but lived and worked in the San Francisco area, and she was a prolific researcher on Russian and Eastern European psychotronics research. Please write to your editor at: joreed43@gmail.com if you have any information about this at all.

The Holographic Brain - Part 2

David Bohm, Implicate Order and Holomovement

David Joseph Bohm (December 20, 1917 – October 27, 1992) was an American scientist who has been described as one of the most significant theoretical physicists of the 20th century and who contributed innovative and unorthodox ideas to quantum theory, neuropsychology and the philosophy of mind.

Space is not empty. It is full, a plenum as opposed to a vacuum, and is the ground for the existence of everything, including ourselves. The universe is not separate from this cosmic sea of energy.

David Bohm.

David Bohm was surprised to find that once electrons were in plasma, they stopped behaving like individuals and started behaving as if they were part of a larger and interconnected whole. He later remarked that he frequently had the impression that the sea of electrons was in some sense alive.

The holomovement is a key concept in David Bohm's interpretation of quantum mechanics and for his overall worldview. It brings together the holistic principle of "undivided wholeness" with the idea that everything is in a state of process or becoming (or what he calls the "universal flux")

For Bohm, wholeness is not a static oneness, but a dynamic wholeness-in-motion in which everything moves together in an interconnected process. The concept is presented most fully in Wholeness and the implicate order published in 1980.

Referring to quantum theory, Bohm's basic assumption is that "elementary particles are actually systems of extremely complicated internal structure, acting essentially as amplifiers of information contained in a quantum wave." As a consequence, he has evolved a new and controversial theory of the universe. Bohm calls this the "Implicate Order."

The Implicate Order

The theory of the Implicate Order contains an ultra-holistic cosmic view; it connects everything with everything else. In principle, any individual element could reveal "detailed information about every other element in the universe." The central underlying theme of Bohm's theory is the “unbroken wholeness of the totality of existence as an undivided flowing movement without borders.”

During the early 1980s Bohm developed his theory of the Implicate Order in order to explain the bizarre behavior of subatomic particles, a behavior that quantum physicists have not been able to explain. Basically, two subatomic particles that have once interacted can instantaneously “respond to each other’s motions thousands of years later when they are light-years apart.”

This sort of particle interconnectedness requires superluminal signaling, which is faster than the speed of light. This odd phenomenon is called the EPR effect, named after the Einstein, Podolsky, and Rosen thought experiment. This has since become known as the Bose-Einstein Condensate, and was later a Nobel Prize in Physics (2001).

Bohm believes that this “hiddenness” may be reflective of a deeper dimension of reality. He maintains that space and time might actually be derived from an even deeper level of objective reality. This reality he calls the Implicate Order. Within the Implicate Order everything is connected; and, in theory, any individual element could reveal information about every other element in the universe.

Borrowing ideas from holographic photography, the hologram is Bohm's favorite metaphor for conveying the structure of the Implicate Order. Holography relies upon wave interference. If two wavelengths of light are of differing frequencies, they will interfere with each other and create a pattern.

Because a hologram is recording detail down to the wavelength of light itself, it is also a dense information storage. The hologram clearly reveals how a total content - in principle extending over the whole of space and time - is enfolded in the movement of waves (electromagnetic and other kinds) in any given region.

David Bohm

The hologram illustrates how “information about the entire holographed scene is enfolded into every part of the film.” It resembles the Implicate Order in the sense that every point on the film is “completely determined by the overall configuration of the interference patterns.” Even a tiny chunk of the holographic film will reveal the unfolded form of an entire three-dimensional object.

Proceeding from his holographic analogy, Bohm proposes a new order - the Implicate Order where “everything is enfolded into everything.” This is in contrast to the explicate order where things are unfolded.

The actual order (the Implicate Order) itself has been recorded in the complex movement of electromagnetic fields, in the form of light waves. Such movement of light waves is present everywhere and in principle enfolds the entire universe of space and time in each region.

This enfoldment and unfoldment takes place not only in the movement of the electromagnetic field but also in that of other fields (electronic, protonic, etc.). These fields obey quantum-mechanical laws, implying the properties of discontinuity and non-locality. The totality of the movement of enfoldment and unfoldment may go immensely beyond what has revealed itself to our observations. We call this totality by the name holomovement.

David Bohm

Bohm believes that the Implicate Order has to be extended into a multidimensional reality; in other words, the holomovement endlessly enfolds and unfolds into infinite dimensionality. Within this milieu there are independent sub-totalities (such as physical elements and human entities) with relative autonomy.

The layers of the Implicate Order can go deeper and deeper to the ultimately unknown. It is this “unknown and indescribable totality” that Bohm calls the holomovement. The holomovement is the “fundamental ground of all matter.”

This non-locality of information storage within the hologram is crucial, because even if most parts are damaged, the entirety will be contained within even a single remaining part of sufficient size.

Pribram (others) noted the similarities between an optical hologram and memory storage in the human brain. According to the holonomic brain theory, memories are stored within certain general regions, but stored non-locally within those regions. This allows the brain to maintain function and memory even when it is damaged.

It is only when there exist no parts big enough to contain the whole that the memory is lost. This can also explain why some children retain normal intelligence when large portions of their brain in some cases, half are removed. It can also explain why memory is not lost when the brain is sliced in different cross-sections.

A single hologram can store 3D information in a 2D way. Such properties may explain some of the brain’s abilities, including the ability to recognize objects at different angles and sizes than in the original stored memory.

Carl Pribram – Carl Pribram proposed that neural holograms were formed by the diffraction patterns of oscillating electric waves within the cortex. It is important to note the difference between the idea of a holonomic brain and a holographic one.

Pribram does not suggest that the brain functions as a single hologram. Rather, the waves within smaller neural networks create localized holograms within the larger workings of the brain. This patch holography is called holonomy, or windowed Fourier transformations.

If you have enough information to ask a coherent question, you have enough information to answer it. The answer is always within the structure of the question

Solar Eclipse Research Studies: Preliminary Report

Beverly Rubik, Ph.D., Biophysicist

President, US Psychotronics Association September 18, 2017

We set up the Solar Eclipse Research Initiative to facilitate exploratory research on the recent solar eclipse that swept across the United States on August 21, 2017. We are especially interested in eclipse studies related to subtle energies, radionics, health and wellness effects, gravitational effects, and any other anomalies observed. A Google Group was set up for this purpose. The website is: <https://groups.google.com/d/forum/eclipse-studies>

Some informal reports are already posted on the Google Group website. One investigator discusses eclipse effects on the assessment of human subjects using radionics. Another shows anomalous weight changes of an object. We look forward to receiving reports from other investigators, too, on the Google Group website.

Scientists from my laboratory, Institute for Frontier Science, traveled to a region of eclipse totality in Monmouth, Oregon, USA, and performed the following three experiments:

- (1) Measurement of weight of barium titanate capacitor (approximately 259 g) over time using an electronic balance with accuracy of $\pm 0.001\text{g}$. (See Figure 1.)

- (2) Assessing the effects of the solar eclipse on environmental energy, using the Bio-Well Sputnik, an instrument invented by Dr. Konstantin Korotkov in Russia for recording and analyzing subtle energy changes by means of a high voltage-induced corona discharge effect. This instrument is commercially available. (www.bio-well.com) (See Figure 2.)

- (3) Recording the movement of a Foucault pendulum to observe any changes from normally expected behavior during the eclipse. This experiment aims to replicate the Allais Effect, an anomalous precession of the plane of oscillation of a Foucault pendulum first reported by Maurice Allais during a solar eclipse in 1954. (See Figure 3.)

Figure 3. Custom designed Foucault pendulum composed of a steel ball attached to a steel wire suspended from a tripod. A laser was attached to the bottom of the steel ball to enable us to track its trajectory over time with a webcam placed below the semi-transparent circular screen attached to a computer for data acquisition. The taller tripod in the foreground to which a video camera is attached is monitoring the pendulum movement from above.

Preliminary results from the capacitor weight experiment (experiment #1) have been submitted to the US Psychotronics Journal and also posted on the Google Groups website. Data from the other two experiments are still being analyzed and will be reported soon.

Please use the Google Group <https://groups.google.com/d/forum/eclipse-studies> to post your eclipse findings, discussion, correspondence with other eclipse investigators, and for raising questions for further research. We look forward to hearing from you.

Synopsis

Ettore Majorana.

The greatest scientist of all times.

After his mysterious disappearance on 25 March 1938, the world slowly began to forget him.

Then, in 2016, a dramatic turn of events.

That “coincidence”, which we do not believe in, had us meet Rolando Pelizza, a determined man with a mathematical mind of incredible applicative capacity.

This marked the reopening of the “Majorana case” for us.

From the meetings with Rolando we obtained such information as to reward all our curiosity and desire for knowledge.

But there is much more ...

Survival of the human race on Earth is at stake.

We believe it is our task to spread in its the information we have received.

With this in mind we wrote the book that you are about to read.

The Machine. The bridge between science and the Beyond

The history of humanity is studded with mysteries, facts or natural phenomena for which no-one has ever been able to give an explanation.

The disappearance of Ettore Majorana was one of these.

For those who have lived in Italy or who have studied history or science, and who have fortuitously stumbled over a book or an article on the topic, the case will be well-known.

For all the others it is about to become so.

Ettore Majorana was a brilliant theoretical physicist, an incomparable mind of his era: Enrico Fermi, Italian physicist, Nobel Prize winner for physics in 1938 said of him: “he had gifts that he alone in the world possessed.”

A tenure in the faculty of theoretical physics was instituted ad hoc at the University of Naples and assigned to him without competition “for high fame and unique expertise”. The same method used to assign a chair to Guglielmo Marconi.

Then the “tragedy”.

On 25 March 1938 Ettore boarded a ferry from Naples to Palermo and from there all trace of him was lost. The searches that his family and the authorities conducted in every corner of the nation were all in vain.

We will relate what happened after that in a succession of events that lead right up to the present day.

First and foremost the motivation.

It was on the eve of World War II. In that situation disappearing had become an absolute necessity for Ettore. He had discovered something that would have endangered not only his own life but also that of the whole human race.

The torment of a brilliant scientist who had seen too many things in advance, compelled him to that far-sighted decision.

Knowledge is neither good nor bad, as you know, it depends what use it is put to. Atomic physics, for example, besides useful results, also produced the atom bomb.

Ettore had gone well beyond the limits of the then known, right up to comprehension of the foundations of the Universe, which he translated into a completely new mathematics and physics, that is “of the Third Millennium”. With these tools he was able to construct a theoretical outline of the ways in which Matter operated, which were so precise and reliable that they could be transformed into a “machine”.

Just as an electron disappears from one orbit to reappear in another, so Ettore reappeared twenty years after his disappearance, on 1 May 1958, in an Italian monastery. Destiny had a meeting in store for him. Like it has for you now.

That day Rolando Pelizza went to the monastery for a consignment. Born in Chiari, near Brescia, in 1938, the same year that Ettore disappeared, he had from an early age shown an innate aptitude for numbers, an untiring determination and an enormous capacity for practical solutions.

Ettore was a “theoretical” physicist but his brilliance would have remained unknown to all but himself, had he not met Rolando, his “double” in the field of experimentation, one who was able to put into practice the incredible theoretical hypotheses of his “master”.

By means of periodic meetings and letters, delivered in great secret by the monks and people they trusted, Ettore taught Rolando the basics of his mathematics and physics, and he directed him to construct a machine that would allow humanity to take a gigantic step forward.

Rolando dedicated his whole life to this project, gradually and with great resoluteness, going through the phases indicated by Ettore, and achieving them all.

In 1976 the first phase was completed: annihilation of matter. Imagine being able to make all the mountains of refuse in the world disappear in an instant. With this machine it is possible.

A few years later the second phase was ready to be put into action: production of an unlimited quantity of energy at a cost of next to nothing. The machine, in fact, is activated by a small 40 watt motor and does not require thousands of billions of elettronvolts as in the LHC, Geneva CERN particle accelerator.

In 1992 the third phase was up and running: transmutation of matter, the dream of all the alchemists.

In 2006 the fourth was ready: passage to other dimensions. A phase that opens the field to absolutely incredible applications, such as travelling to any moment in the past, rejuvenation of the physical body, teletransportation , ...

Many were the difficulties that Rolando had to face to keep faith with his commitment because, among other things, from 1976 onwards the secret services of the whole world – first and foremost the Americans – came to know about the machine, and each, in its own way, dreamt of the possible uses it could be put to – far from Ettore and Rolando's wish of using it for the good of humanity.

For them the machine was, above all, an unequalled instrument of power: on the one hand as a weapon and on the other as an unlimited source of metals and precious materials.

It seems that confronted with the evident risk of extinction of the human race, the governments should finally decide to disregard their own lust for power and do the one essential thing necessary at the moment: guarantee survival of the human being on Earth.

In 1979 Ettore had already predicted that the Planet would enter a phase of abnormal and excessive warming, which would start between 2022 and 2024. At that moment, in only a few years time, survival of the human race would be in grave danger. Today climate experts have reached the same conclusions but for a later date. They talk about the worst being from 2030 to 2040, in other words, we are deluding ourselves that we still have all the time in the world.

But that is not the case.

Earth is about to become a place where only some animals can survive, such as cockroaches endowed with an exoskeleton which protects them from ultraviolet radiation.

Traditional science can do nothing! The only ones who can possibly save us from this situation are Ettore's physics and mathematics, Rolando and the machine.

It is paramount that resolution of the problem be given absolute priority.

We believe our task is to spread this news.

Mysteries, like sleight of hand, lose their fascination when they are revealed.

You will notice that this case does not confirm the rule.

Third Millennium Physics

Ettore is the father of a new mathematics and a new physics, far beyond those of today. Hundreds of years will probably have to pass before we are able to understand that which we have defined Third Millennium Physics, a physics “yet to come from beyond”, but which has already demonstrated in practice its capacity to penetrate the secrets of Matter as has never before been possible in a “scientific” manner.

Rolando once told us that “learning Ettore’s physics was simpler than learning multiplication tables” but at the same time – we add – it is completely out of reach if one does not understand the logic behind it.

One of the fundamental points of this logic is described in the “General Theory of Exponents”.

In it Ettore emphasises that what we consider “reality” consists of eleven dimensions. Even if we only usually perceive four of them – three spatial and one temporal – it does not mean that the others do not exist. Ignoring the seven hidden dimensions means not understanding how the four that are visible to us operate since they are profoundly conditioned by the invisible ones. In other words, the true “organisation and decision-making centre” of life in Matter, is to be found in a place which has very little to do with the ‘physical’, and which remains hidden from our purely rational sight and from the eyes of traditional science.

In fact it does not even consider the other seven dimensions – it does not even know them. That means it will always have only a partial view of reality and that its capacity to intervene will be extremely limited.

Actually, from this limited and limiting perspective, a substantial operating difference arises.

“Today we are spending vast amounts of money on particle accelerators and nuclear fusion research. All are attempts to rape the atom in an effort to extract the great energy enclosed within it in an extremely violent manner.

Ettore’s physics, on the other hand, follows another path – that of comprehension and non-violence”.

Instead of using methods which reflect the natural flow of things, modern science is violating the atom, just as modern medicine at times violates the human body. Take the words used to describe current treatments for cancer; they are generally explained in war-like terminology ‘fight cancer’, ‘battle with cancer’, ‘bombard tumour cells’.

It is clear though, that to respect the laws of nature, one must first know them.

Ettore attained a “magnificent and at the same time infinitely simple knowledge”, in other words, that everything in nature is “double”, every single thing present in these four dimensions is based on its corresponding partner found in the other seven dimensions.

“The true secret of nature is the existence of antiparticles”, Rolando told us and then he added: “As long as science does not take this into account, it is impossible for it to make any real progress”.

Nature is simple: she has some very precise rules, but not too many as our probability approach would have us believe.

She has extremely strong attraction mechanisms which develop starting with same type of matter – matter in its widest sense – which make things approach each other if they feel they belong to the same group. It is a kind of ‘Love’, a natural impulse to approach and bond with that for which we feel an affinity.

Therefore, that which holds Creation together, is a loving thought of the Creator.

Three fundamental things are expressed with this affirmation: the central role of thought – also human thought – in the process of Creation, ‘Love’ as the power that unites, and the existence of a Creator.

The “General Theory of Exponents” is, in fact, the first scientific theory which presupposes the existence of God.

Ettore understood that the way things move is basically very simple. He succeeded in becoming ‘intimate’ with Matter, and, in that intimacy, she revealed all her simplicity and willingness to be gently guided.

From this a non-violent physics was created; a physics which “makes peace” between Science and Spirituality, succeeding in bridging the enormous gap that modern man has opened between the two main ways of perceiving reality.

*With Ettore, we can return to linking reasoning with intuition,
Matter with Beyond Matter, science with the Spirit and humanity with God!*

Introduction

Gravitational anomalies have been observed during past solar eclipses by other investigators (Van Flandern, 2003; Amador, 2008). In order to test for possible gravitational anomalies during this solar eclipse, one experiment that we set up was to record the weight of an object over time, ranging from the pre-eclipse, initial partial eclipse, full eclipse, final partial eclipse, and post-eclipse time periods. Following the experiment, we plotted a graph of weight vs. time to look for any anomalies in the weight values during the eclipse that may be due to gravitational anomalies.

Experimental Venue

The experiment was performed in the basement of a farmhouse in Monmouth, Oregon, USA, a region of solar eclipse totality on August 21, 2017. On that morning the sky was clear, and there was no noticeable wind. The curtains were drawn and windows closed. Low level incandescent light was used to illuminate the room. No sunlight entered the room. The two researchers were the only persons present in the room during the experiment. Thus, the room was relatively isolated and approximately constant in temperature for the duration of the experiment.

Materials and Methods

The balance used was a new, previously unused electronic scale manufactured by LEADZM, model B3003T, with 300g capacity and 0.001g resolution. It was left powered-on overnight to assure thermal equilibrium of the internal components. It was calibrated with a 200g standard weight immediately before the experiment. A plastic enclosure covered the weighing dish on the sides and top to prevent artifacts from ambient drafts.

For the object to be measured, we chose a large barium titanate (BaTiO_3) "door knob" capacitor rated at 2nF/40kV. Its nominal weight was 258g, with most of its mass comprised of the BaTiO_3 dielectric material. Crystalline barium titanate is a unique material with perovskite cell structure and intriguing material properties. It has a dielectric constant of over 6,000 and exhibits colossal magnetoresistance, ferroelectricity, piezoelectricity, superconductivity, charge ordering and spin-dependent transport among other properties.

Its piezoelectric properties tie electric fields to mechanical crystal deformations, which are mathematically described by a stress tensor. These deformations resemble torsion stress in a solid, which purportedly give rise to so-called "torsion fields". T. Townsend Brown reportedly used this material in some of his propulsion devices. He is known for many unique experiments that seem to indicate a connection between strong electric fields and gravity. We chose this curious material for our experiment, hoping that due to its special properties, one or more of its parameters might interact with certain aspects of the solar radiation. If so, the temporary blocking of same might manifest in a measurable weight change.

Weight measurements were recorded approximately every five minutes by the two researchers independent of each other, written down or digitally photographed alongside with a calibrated wristwatch. Measurements were made from approximately 1 hour pre-eclipse to over an hour post-eclipse. Figure 1 shows the experimental setup.

Results

Figure 2 shows the graph of weight vs. time. Measurement started at 8:00 am. The partial eclipse began at 9:05 am. The percentages of solar obscuration were calculated for pre- and post-totality, with values of 25%, 50% and 75% shown. The duration of eclipse totality was 2 minutes, from 10:17 to 10:19 am. The last partial eclipse finished at 11:32 am.

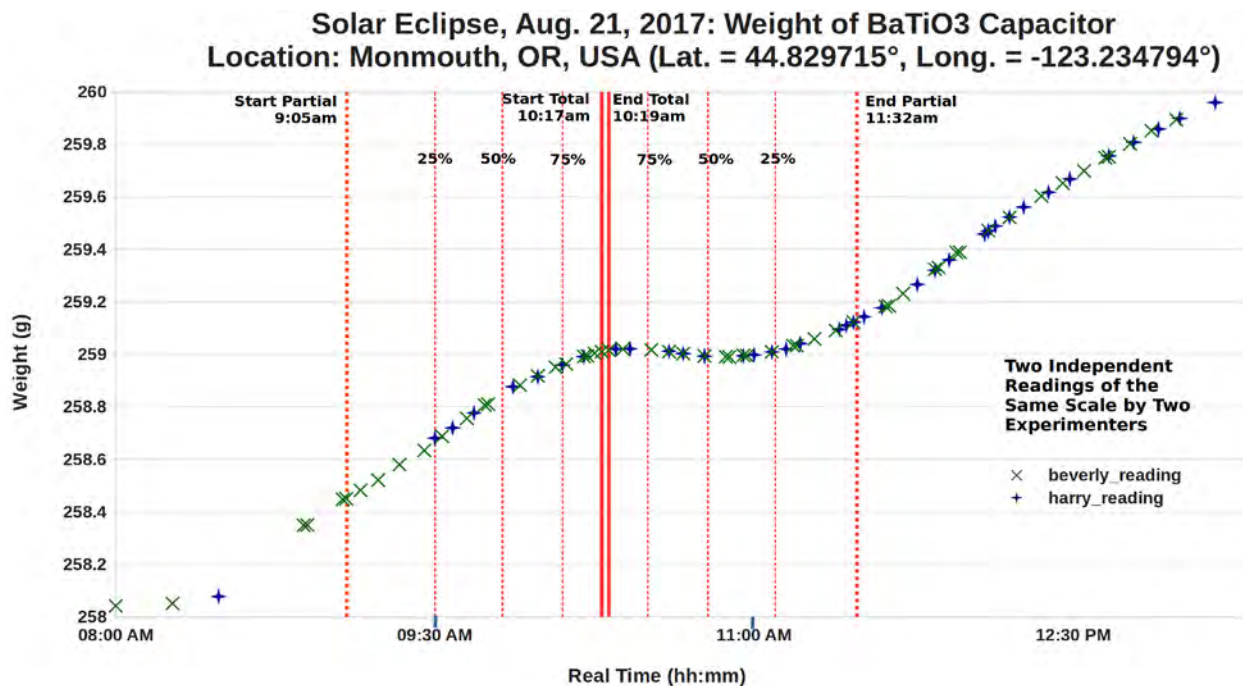

Figure 2. Graph of weight of the barium titanate capacitor in grams vs. time before, during, and after the solar eclipse. 25%, 50%, and 75% refer to the percentage solar obscuration by the moon. Starting and ending times of the partial eclipse are shown with dotted lines. The totality period is indicated by bold red lines. The weight measurements made by each researcher are demarcated in the right-hand legend.

There was a steady weight increase from the initial measurement at 8:00 am to the time just after the total eclipse, followed by a small weight decrease during the time from ~75% to ~40% solar obscuration, with a relative minimum of 258.99g at 10:53am, which is 34 minutes after the total eclipse. This was followed by a further increase in weight until 1:00 pm when the experiment was terminated.

Conclusions

We suspect that the increase in weight over hours is due to drift in the balance's electronics, despite the fact that the balance was left on all night to warm up before the morning when the experiment began. The leveling off and decrease in weight that follows the eclipse totality is an anomaly that we cannot readily explain. It could possibly be due to a drop in temperature that may have followed the total eclipse. However, we estimate that the temperature of the room, which was located in a farmhouse basement mostly underground, did not change more than 2°C for the duration of the experiment. Nonetheless, we cannot conclude that the weight changes observed are due to gravitation anomalies during the solar eclipse until we have fully characterized the balance. This is currently underway.

To further explore the role of temperature, we plan to measure the weight of the capacitor over time using computer data acquisition software in tandem with precise measurements of ambient temperature to determine if there is a possible relationship between weight and temperature. If it is found that increases in temperature lead to apparent increases in weight, and decreases in temperature lead to apparent decreases in weight, then we may surmise that temperature changes alone might explain our observations during the eclipse.

We also plan to measure the weight of the capacitor during different phases of the moon to look for any anomalies. It would also be interesting to investigate weight changes during lunar eclipses, which are, in fact, similar planetary alignments of moon, earth, and sun, in which the moon is eclipsed by the earth.

Pitkanen, Matti. “On Magnetic Body, Bio-harmonies, Morphogenesis & Epigenetics”. DNA Decipher Journal. vol. 6, no.1 (March, 2016), pp. 72-80

Abstract:

In TGD, magnetic body is an intentional agent using biological body as a sensory receptor and motor instrument. TGD also provides various mechanism used by magnetic body for control and communication purposes, and the notion of bio-harmony suggests itself as a correlate for quantum coherence at the level of basic bio-molecules. How magnetic body and bio-harmony could help to understand biology? Can one identify biological phenomena making these notions compelling?

In this article some candidates for phenomena of this kind are briefly discussed. The finding that behavioral patterns of planaria can be remembered also by the piece of split planaria without brains is consistent with the idea that replication of magnetic body coding for behaviors is behind biochemical replication. That alleles of the same gene have different expression could be understood if the bio-harmony assignable to gene carries additional information besides the biochemical information. These notions might help to understand the mechanisms epigenetic. Histone modification and DNA methylation are believed to involve geometric locking preventing transcription. They could also affect the frequency assignable to DNA codon or some key unit so that the resonance condition making possible reconnection of U-shaped flux tubes allowing biomolecules to get in contact and for transcription to proceed fails to be satisfied. Epigenetic inheritance could reduce to inheritance of bio-harmony: the magnetic bodies of cells of offspring get in tune with those of parent.

De Ninno A., Pregnotato M. “Electromagnetic Homeostasis and the Role of Low-Amplitude Electromagnetic Fields on Life Organization”. Electromagnetic Biology and Medicine. vol. 36, no.2 (2017), pp.115-122.

Abstract:

The appearance of endogenous electromagnetic fields in biological systems is a widely debated issue in modern science. The electrophysiological fields have very tiny intensities and it can be inferred that they are rapidly decreasing with the distance from the generating structure, vanishing at very short distances. This makes very hard their detection using standard experimental methods. However, the existence of fast-moving charged particles in the macromolecules inside both intracellular and extracellular fluids may envisage the generation of localized electric currents as well as the presence of closed loops, which implies the existence of magnetic fields.

Moreover, the whole set of oscillatory frequencies of various substances, enzymes, cell membranes, nucleic acids, bioelectrical phenomena generated by the electrical rhythm of coherent groups of cells, cell-to-cell communication among population of host bacteria, forms the increasingly complex hierarchies of electromagnetic signals of different frequencies which cover the living being and represent a fundamental information network controlling the cell metabolism. From this approach emerges the concept of electromagnetic homeostasis: that is, the capability of the human body to maintain the balance of highly complex electromagnetic interactions within, in spite of the external electromagnetic noisy environment. This concept may have an important impact on the actual definitions of heal and disease. © 2017 Taylor & Francis.

Abstract:

Laboratory measurements of electric fields have been carried out around examples of smart meter devices used in Great Britain. The aim was to quantify exposure of people to radiofrequency signals emitted from smart meter devices operating at 2.4 GHz, and then to compare this with international (ICNIRP) health-related guidelines and with exposures from other telecommunication sources such as mobile phones and Wi-Fi devices. The angular distribution of the electric fields from a sample of 39 smart meter devices was measured in a controlled laboratory environment. The angular direction where the power density was greatest was identified and the equivalent isotropically radiated power was determined in the same direction. Finally, measurements were carried out as a function of distance at the angles where maximum field strengths were recorded around each device.

The maximum equivalent power density measured during transmission around smart meter devices at 0.5 m and beyond was 15 mWm^{-2} , with an estimation of maximum duty factor of only 1%. One outlier device had a maximum power density of 91 mWm^{-2} . All power density measurements reported in this study were well below the 10 W m^{-2} ICNIRP reference level for the general public. Bioelectromagnetics. 2017;38:280–294. © 2017 Crown copyright. USPA Periodicals Library Update

In order to do good psychotronics research of any kind, whether it involves radionics, radiesthesia, psionic medicine, dowsing, subtle energies, biophotons, or any other subject covered by psychotronics, one needs access to as much of the periodical literature as possible on these subjects.

To address this issue, the United States Psychotronics Association has resolved to identify and acquire every psychotronics related periodical that has ever been published anywhere in the world, and to retain copies in the USPA Library.

As a first step, we have developed the following list of periodicals that focused on or frequently had articles on psychotronics related subjects. But this is only a preliminary list, and we know that there are probably more psychotronics periodicals that have been published, but that we do not yet know about.

So please look over the following list and check your own personal physical libraries and your computers to see if you have any issues of the periodicals on this list. Even if you just have one issue, please let us know, because that may be the one we need to complete all the issues of a particular periodical. Please write to me (John) at: joreed43@gmail.com, since I am the USPA librarian and archivist coordinating this effort, and tell me what periodicals you have.

As a whole, the members of USPA have a huge “library” of periodicals, but it just happens to be “distributed” among its members at this point in time. However, we can work together, and if you would be willing to loan, donate, xerox, or as a last resort, sell copies of your periodicals for the USPA Library, then we will be able to build a large centralized library of all psychotronics periodicals. And all USPA members will then be able to use these periodicals in their research or for their reading enjoyment.

American Journal of Electromedicine: Daniel Kirsch Ph.D., developer of Alpha-Stim Craniotherapy Electrical Stimulation (CES) was the first editor; The USPA Library needs all issues.

American Radio Therapy Society Journal: This was a periodical published in Hollywood, California, by the American Radio Therapy Society, which had been founded by Dr. Ruth Drown in 1949. This periodical began with vol. 1, no. 1 in June, 1949, and continued to be published for a period of time. However, it is not known when it ceased publication or how many issues were published, but presumably it ceased sometime before Dr. Drown's death in 1963. This journal focused on radionics psychotronics subjects, and had no interest in ionizing radiation therapies, such as x-ray therapy, which were also known as "radio therapy" at that time. The only library in the world that has copies of this periodical is the National Library of Medicine in Bethesda, Maryland. The USPA Library needs all issues of this periodical.

BEMI Currents: BEMI Currents was a quarterly journal published by the Bio-Electro-Magnetics Institute in Reno, Nevada, from 1989-1993. The editor was Dr. John Zimmerman. This journal began with vol. 1, no. 1 (Spring, 1989) and continued through Vol. 3, no. 4 (March, 1993), after which it ceased publication. A total of 12 issues were published, and the USPA Library has all 12 issues in its collection.

USPA Local Groups and Affiliates Update

As mentioned in the May, 2016, USPA Newsletter, one of our goals is to reactivate all of the former 24 USPA Chapters that once existed across the US and Mexico. In addition, we plan to establish new local groups of people interested in psychotronics and related subjects in other major cities in the US and other countries as well. All such local groups and affiliates will be independent, but will work together with the USPA in a mutually beneficial relationship to achieve our goals of advancing research and applications in psychotronics, radionics, subtle energy, and related fields.

So I would like to invite all of former USPA Chapters leaders and members to contact me (John Reed) at: joreed43@gmail.com and let me know if you would like to help reactivate your local chapter. In addition, if you are a leader or member of a psychotronics or related organization which was never a chapter of USPA, and we would welcome you as a USPA affiliated organization as well.

We will be establishing a USPA affiliated groups as traditional organizations and also via the Meetup.com online group platform. This will enable current and former members to more easily have local get-togethers, meetings, and other activities, and those activities, times, and other details can be posted online. So please let me know if you would like to be the leader of a group in your area.

If you do decide to use Meetup.com to establish your local group, you could do it quickly and easily by going to www.meetup.com , and clicking on the big red word “Start” in the upper left, and then just following the step-by-step procedures.

You can give your local group any name you want, but it should probably have a name that relates to psychotronics in some way. And if you need any help, please let me know, and I will help you in any way I can. Perhaps the most important thing is enthusiasm and determination, so write to me, even if you don’t know any other USPA members in your area, and I will help you set up a local group: joreed43@gmail.com

Exchange Corner and Advertisements

The "Exchange Corner", is a place where people can advertise to buy, exchange, or sell items of interest, or request information or other help in relation to something wanted. So if there is anything you want to buy, sell or trade that has to do with psychotronics, radionics, subtle energy, or related subjects, please contacted the Classified Ads manager at: joreed43@gmail.com. Advertisements are free of charge to USPA member within certain limits, but non-members will be charged for any classified or display ads. So please send your ads and wanted requests to: joreed43@gmail.com.

Wanted: Any articles, periodicals, books, devices, or other materials on psychotronic related subjects that you can donate or lend to the USPA for its library, archives, and museum. The USPA is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3), tax exempt organization, and as such, you are able to make tax deductible donations to the USPA. Please email the USPA at: joreed43@gmail.com to make shipping arrangements. Thank you for your generosity.

I am a current USPA member and have a Bruce Copen MARS III for sale. The system is about 7 or 8 years old and in original, excellent condition. Sale includes original SCOPE analysis, database and broadcast software, HP laptop, comprehensive training manual and program disc, interconnects and boxes. I have always run it on XP with no issues; everything original as supplied by Copen.

All operations can be automated and multiple broadcasts can be run simultaneously, although Copen saw to develop this device so it could be used in many radionic styles and without computer control. The price is $8500 USD roughly half the original cost. I prefer to not ship to a destination outside the USA. A limited amount of training by me, as I understand it, is available to a confirmed purchaser, as time and distance reasonably permit. WHAT IS PSYCHOTRONICS?

The United States Psychotronics Association defines psychotronics as the science of mind-body-environment relationships, an interdisciplinary science concerned with the interactions of matter, energy, and consciousness. Psychotronics involves the study, research, and applications of the physics and technology of the mind, brain, spirit, consciousness, and the underlying forces of life and nature – hence the term “psychotronics”.

We believe that a true understanding of the universe must include the spiritual, as well as, the technical, and provide an opportunity for amateur researchers to present their findings along with the professionals. We stress research, with documentation of results, and practical applications, rather than personal experience and unsupported hypotheses.

Some Prominent People in the history of psychotronics research and application: Albert Abrams, Thomas Bearden, Robert C. Beck, Robert O. Becker, Jacques Benveniste, David Bohm, Harold Saxon Burr, George W. Crile, Ruth Drown, T. Galen Hieronymus, Vlail P. Kaznacheyev, Georges Lakhovsky, Wilhelm Reich, Royal R. Rife, Rupert Sheldrake, Nikola Tesla, Marcel Vogel, and others.

Some of the forces, fields, waves, and energies studied and researched in psychotronics include: bioelectromagnetism, biophotons, biopotentials, electromagnetic wave pollution and harmful effects; coherent emanations of DNA, emanations of matter, “free energy”, morphogenetic fields, non-hertzian waves, orgone energy, pyramid energy and power, qi (chi), quantum fields, scalar waves, subtle energies, ultra-weak radiation of living matter, zero-point energy, and others.

Some of the phenomena believed to be produced or involved with the above fields and energies: action-at-a-distance, the aura of the body and other living things, bioinformation, bioluminescence, chakras, consciousness, distant intercellular interactions, meridians of the body, mind-body interactions, non-locality, the placebo effect, quantum consciousness, spontaneous remission of cancer and other diseases, water memory, water structure, and others.

Related fields of study and research covering the above forces, energies, and phenomena of psychotronics: bioelectromagnetics, bioenergetics, biophotonics, biophysics, psionics, psychoenergetics, psychoneuroimmunology, quantum biology, radionics, scalar electromagnetics, and others.

Some practices, techniques, and applications related to psychotronics include: acupuncture, biogeometry, brain entrainment, clairvoyance, dowsing, energy healing and medicine, extrasensory perception, feng shui, homeopathy, kirlian photography, magnetic therapy, pendulum use and methods, prayer effects, psionic medicine, psychic healing, psychometry, qigong, radiesthesia, radionics, remote viewing, shamanism, sound and sonic healing, telekinesis, telepathy, and others.

If you have an interest in the paranormal, the life of plants or zero-point energy, there are speakers here who are experts in the fields. How about dark-field microscopy, scalars, magnetic fields, or the Philadelphia Experiment? Yes, they are in here in this catalog too. Homeopathy, color-healing, use of crystals, structuring water, water memory, and Tesla's work are some of the other topics covered in this catalog.

As of this date, (April 15, 2017) they are available only by direct contact with USPA, but soon, they will be available online. The USPA home page is at <http://www.psychotronics.org> and we will have a linked site where purchase will lead to immediate download of the MP3, and payment can be made through Pay Pal.

Please note that in the Catalog \(click here\), most of the lectures are standard MP3s, are 30-45 minutes long, and priced at a very reasonable $5.00 each. These have no marking in the right-hand column of the catalog listing. Other MP3s are one hour or slightly longer, and are marked "Prime" in the right-hand column, with a price of $8.00 each. And a few of the MP3s are 90 minutes or longer, and are marked "Double", with a price of $10.00 each. USPA members get 40% off.

J.G. Gallimore's Five Rare Books Now Available for Sale

All five of J.G. Gallimore's rare books on psychotronics subjects and unusual energies have been reprinted by the United States Psychotronics Association (USPA) and are being made available at a fraction of the cost that used copies were being sold at online. So rare have these books been, that only a few libraries in the entire world had them in their collections, and some of Gallimore's books were being sold for several hundred dollars each online. However, with these newly reprinted volumes, each will be available for less than $30.00. Each of Gallimore's books is described below with links to Amazon.com.

Jerry G. Gallimore was one of the founders of the USPA in 1975, and was a leading researcher in psychotronics and unusual energies until his untimely death in 1989.

The Handbook of Unusual Energies: Volume 1

This is J.G. Gallimore's first book of three volumes on unusual energies, and at 468 pages, it is a magnificent work. In this book, Gallimore discusses in depth the research, discoveries, and inventions of all the major researchers in subtle energies, the aether, biological fields, pyramid energy, radiesthesia, radionics, crystal transduction, and related subjects. These include the works of Baron Von Reichenbach's and his odic energy, Dr. Wilhelm Reich's orgone energy, Dr. Harold Burr's biological life fields, Kozyrev's time mirror, Edgar Cayce's transmission of energy, and related research done by many others. Of particular importance is Gallimore's 127 page chapter on radionics. In this chapter he discusses in depth the research and devices of Ruth Drown, T. Galen Hieronymus, Rho Sigma, Dr. L. P. Corte and other prominent people in the radionics field. But in addition, Gallimore provided diagrams showing how such devices are made and how they actually work.

This is the second book in the "Unusual Energies" series that J.G

Callimore published. It covers Gallimore's research on Albert Abrams, the founder of modern radionics, psychological physics, psychic energy, thought resonance, subtle energies, crystals, and related subjects. In addition, a number of radionics devices are discussed, such as the De La Warr Diagnostic Instrument. And very helpfully, the rates are provided for substances, body organs, and medical diseases and disorders. A very interesting interview of Christopher Bird, conducted by J.G. Gallimore is provided, as well as a discussion of Walter Russell and his research.

The Relationship Between Parapsychology and Gravity is Volume 3 of J.G. Gallimore's series of three handbooks of unusual energies. This book describes in depth the research and theories of J.G. Gallimore into the question of "parapsychology transmission" --the question of how such things as telepathy, remote viewing, ESP, and similar phenomena can physically occur. Gallimore discusses various explanation on how they occur, including the possibility that gravity waves may play a role. He also discusses the various emanations, radiations, and energy fields of all matter and life. This includes the ancient Chinese energy called "chi" (qi), the ancient Indian's prana energy, Reichenback's "odhic force", Gurwitsch's "mitogenic radiation", Wilhelm Reich's orgone energy, and other subtle energies of life and matter. Gallimore shows how all of these energies are the same or similar, how they interact, and how they are related to gravity. He also discusses crystals as transducers of these energies, and provides diagrams of devices that could potentially be used to harness or control these energies.

Transverse Paraphysics: The New Science of Space, Time, and Gravity Control

This book covers the visionary research and theories developed by J.G. Gallimore about anti-gravity, space, time, and biophysics. He discusses in depth the dimensions of space, time, and gravity, and new discoveries in each of these areas. In addition, he covers research being done on anti-gravity and then discusses anti-gravity patents that have been obtained. Unified Field Theory Research Book: Using Subjective Response to Psi-Plasma for Analysis of Properties Neutral Charge Plasma Fields

This book is about psychotronics, radionics, electromagnetic fields and waves, psi-plasma, plasma fields, subtle energies, bioelectromagnetic energy, and other unusual energies emitted by living and non-living things. It also is about how living things interact with and are affected by these energies, which may enhance health or harm health. The book covers the research of Wilhem Reich on orgone energy, of Baron Reichenback on the odic forces, as well as research done by Cazzamalli on brain radiations and Lakhovsky on using high frequency radiations to successfully treat cancer in humans. In addition, Lakhovsky used similar methods to enhance the growth of plants. Gallimore shows how these energies, forces, and fields are all inter-related and provides hypotheses and ideas on their possible unification.
