WHAT IS PSYCHOTRONICS?

Beverly Rubik, Ph.D.
President, USPA

Psychotronics originally referred to the mind (psycho) operating devices (tron) with thought. This term came out of parapsychology in the 1960s in Czechoslovakia. The early psychotronics researchers conceived of and built psychotronic generators—sacred geometrical forms composed of pyramids and cones along with crystals, copper coils, and other materials. Unlike most machines, these devices were “operator dependent”—having various effects depending upon the operator and the directed intention—and demonstrated positive effects on people, animals, plants, and processes.

Today our interests are more broadly based. The US Psychotronics Association (USPA) investigates and applies science and technology to interactions of mind, matter, spirit, consciousness, and the underlying forces of life and nature. Psychotronics challenges the dominant scientific worldview because it deals with the power of consciousness to interact directly with the physical world, which is not considered in mainstream science. However, numerous lines of scientific and other evidence point to severe limitations of the dominant paradigm, which holds that consciousness is only a passive observer. We are among those mavericks shaping the new worldview in which consciousness plays an active role in generating physical reality.

Our membership is quite diverse and fascinating. Some USPA members are frontier scientists conducting research on the effects of intention and subtle energy healing on systems such as structured water and its memory, plant growth, and the integrity of DNA. We are also concerned about the impact of electromagnetic pollution from the proliferation of wireless devices in our environment and how to protect ourselves. Other members are practitioners and teachers of radionics, using directed intention to assess and improve the well-being of living systems through the use of radionics devices, pendulums, and dowsing rods. Still others practice energy therapies ranging from hands-on healing to use of sound and light therapies, homeopathy, Oriental medicine, and other complementary modalities. Some members are skilled intuitives who can assess the biofield and subtle energy directly, without any tools. Still others are exploring psychotronics for personal growth and evolution. Despite our differences, we have much in common as we are all open-minded persons focused on expanding our understanding of nature, consciousness, and the full human potential. We enjoy camaraderie and sharing our new learning with one another.

One main focus of the USPA is the existence of a cosmic energy or bioenergy, also called qi in Oriental medicine and prana in Ayurveda—associated with the biofield or life force. Energy may be mobilized with directed intention, which corresponds to the principle of ancient Eastern philosophy—“where mind goes, the qi flows.”

Psychotronics devices may serve as resonators or conduits of a cosmic energy affecting living systems at a physical level. The biofield, the energy field of each organism, is also fundamental.

Is this cosmic energy an aspect of science that has somehow been overlooked, or a new form of energy? We are taking a deeper look at the science of Nikola Tesla, among other pioneering scientists, who have been largely ignored. We are also revisiting the “aether” in physics that was displaced by a materialistic worldview, but may actually be the quintessence underlying physical reality, and the etheric body in radionics, to expand the scientific perspective.

She is president/founder of Institute for Frontier Science in Oakland, California; professor at Energy Medicine University; author of over 90 papers and 2 books; and president of the US Psychotronics Association. www.psychotronics.org

New Online Radionics School Opened by Don Paris

Dr. Don Paris, guru of the SE-5 radionics machine, has just announced that he has established an online radionics school, which will be available to anyone in the world. Called “Radionics School SE-5”, numerous courses are being made available, such as Beginning Training for the SE-5, intermediate and advanced courses on the SE-5, plus other courses on radionics and its use. The current list of courses, which Don plans to add to over time, is available here.

Don Paris, Ph.D. (h.c.) is a published author, speaker, video producer, and musician. His book, Regaining Wholeness Through the Subtle Dimensions has been published internationally in German, Spanish, Japanese, Portuguese, and English. He is known as the guru of the SE-5, the world’s most respected subtle energy instrument.

He is well loved for his style of bringing challenging concepts into an easy to understand language and has been a popular speaker at the Quantum Energy Medicine Conference, Global Sciences Congress, Congress of Spiritual Scientists and the United States Psychotronics Association.

He has created the most detailed explanation of the principles of Radionics and the most advanced training courses in the entire field. He began exploring the subtle dimensions in the early seventies, and has now trained people in over 30 countries around the world in the workings of Radionics and the subtle dimensional realities.

Don was awarded an honorary doctorate degree in Human Sciences from the International University of Vitalological Sciences in Stockholm Sweden in 2000 for his work with the SE-5 and subtle energies.

He and his wife, Ilona Selke, who work as a team, have contributed to radio and TV shows, and have been quoted in numerous publications around the world. They teach seminars in Quantum Psychology in the US, Europe and Asia. When not traveling to teach, they divide their time between their homes in the Pacific Northwest and Bali.

In his work he had dedicated himself to bridging the barrier of the physical boundaries to the subtle dimensional realities.

8AM - 8:30AM - Dr. Ron Barone

Introduction

8:30AM - 9:30AM - Dr. Ron Barone

Source Energy Medicine. Source energy medicine was developed by Stephen Pollitt from Colorado. A student last year exposed me to the concept and I purchased the book and read it. I also downloaded all the basic materials he used and then adapted the numeric logarithms for a simplistic layered method of radionics and consumption application. I will explain the protocol and provide a sample reagent for your use and as a frequency master to add to your water for consumption, Watch prior to the class this youtube to get an overview. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6JBLm3HQ0vI&t=1291s>. At the end of my session I will open up for questions about any aspect of radionics I am familiar with.

Dr. Ronald Barone: Body, Mind & Spirit - Ron is a consultant on personal well-being; from Blackhawk, SD. Ron brings over 50 years of experience in the health care field. He is a Chiropractic Doctor certified in Orthopedics, with training in advanced Radiology, Nutrition, and Kinesiology and with a focus on environment, organic foods, nutrition, herbs, homeopathics, exercise and correct thinking. He has been doing radionics and energy medicine as his ministry since 1995. Working on people with health issues and longevity is his primary ministry. He is a skilled dowser in the natural and spiritual realm. A personal friend of Master Dowser and Shaman Raymon Grace. He is also skilled in helping the dying go through transition to the spirit world. He has considerable experience with discarnates and a wide realm of non-physical issues. Ron has worked on many issues in the natural and spiritual realm. Ron teaches people take control of their own well-being, physically and spiritually.

11AM - 11:30AM - Cory Stover

A description and display of new radionic instruments. Radionics recognizes indwelling cosmic energies which we discover within the patterns of nature. These etheric forces are traced in the geometry of space and resonate in the rhythms of nature. They are the authentic templates for life. The aim of radionics is to bring ourselves into balance and alignment within these true energies. My aim in building radionic instruments is to model my own understanding of these same principles. I recently came across a second-hand quote from a friend of mine and it fits well here. It said that: "at some point in the future all of [these] devices would cease to be necessary and that within the space of a single day they would all be discarded, for we would have evolved." It hurts a little to say, but I'd like to think that I'm working towards that day. I'll be presenting working prototypes of new devices... while they're still relevant.

Cory Stover - Cory Stover is an inventor, intuitive and expert dowser. He is the maker of the Cory Coil, Colossus energizer and Avalon Well among other radionics tools in development.

1PM - 2:30PM; 2:45PM - 3:45PM - Tim Lippert

Alternative and Energetic Approaches to Support People With Cancer. Nearly every family in America is or will be affected by cancer. Mainstream medical treatments all too often do more harm than good. Doctors' recommendations must follow the "standard of care" or they can lose their license; thus the present, mainstream, medical model not only fails miserably...but borders on being criminal. This presentation will educate every attendee about a wide array of options for testing, analyzing, balancing, & supporting those concerned with cancer. There are many natural, wholesome, therapeutic alternatives to radiation and chemotherapy. It's time you learned about them. Attending this talk will likely save your life or someone you care about.

Tim Lippert; President, Livestock Innovations, Inc. - Tim has done Radionic, Naturopathic, and Alternative Medical work for clients in over 25 states, Belize, Mexico, Canada, Australia, Great Britain, and the Philippines. He owns and operates one of the most elaborate Radionics labs in North America. His specialties include agricultural and environmental consulting, geo-biology, water treatment, mold & myco-toxins, Lyme Disease, sleep apnea, and spiritual issues.

4PM - 5PM - Ed Kelly

Advanced Multi-Bank Testing and Balancing. Basic two-dial radionic rates successfully resonate the biggest pillars of the plants and animals we wish to analyze and balance. However, even the most simple objects are a veritable symphony of energy and information! One way to dramatically increase the impact of our efforts is to add as many additional voices as possible to each broadcast using additional tuning banks set to complementary and supporting rates. In this presentation, Ed will share practical tips and techniques for using and creating multi-bank rates with any instrument and with auxiliary Tuning Stations.

Ed Kelly, Kelly Research Technologies - KRT (www.kellyresearchtech.com) has been delivering radionic instruments, equipment, and information to the world for 37 years. Sister company BETAR USA (www.betar.com) produces focused vibroacoustic sound therapy systems that allow riders to literally feel their favorite music - every note and drum beat - as a sonic energy massage that melts away physical pain, emotional stress, and/or mental anxiety. Ed Kelly took the leadership position in these firms following the untimely passage of his father, founder Peter J. Kelly, in 2004. Ed has been involved in radionics and the esoteric arts for his entire life, literally growing up around such giants as T. Galen Hieronymus, Thomas Bearden, Bob Beck, Bob Beutlich, and countless other inventors and researchers. Ed has a BS in Geology from the University of Georgia, an MBA from Kennesaw State University, and served the nation in the U.S. Marines.

Day 2

October 26, 2018 - 8AM to 5PM

8AM - 9:30AM - Marty Lucas

Programing DNA. We know that DNA carries our biological program. We also know that changes in environment can affect genetic expression. Likewise we have seen how traumas can be passed from generation to generation. These traumas have reprogrammed the 'firmware' of the DNA that allows vital survival experiences to be passed to the next generation. We have reached a point with Radionics where we can begin to consciously and deliberately program this portion of the genetic code and create self-replicating reagents. All evidence seems to indicate that this is not a new discovery, but simply a rediscovery of ancient knowledge.

Marty Lucas, Every Advantage Ag, Urbandale, IA - Marty Lucas is a full-time Radionic Practitioner and teacher out of central Iowa. He is known for in-depth and far-reaching research into the fringes of radionic practice. He is able to present complex scientific and esoteric subjects into easy to understand protocols and procedures.

9:45AM - 11:30AM - Hugh Lovel

Biodynamic Farming and Radionics. At Quantum Agriculture we have designed, and KRT builds, a new Malcolm Rae type instrument appropriate to agriculture. What can be done with this equipment in agriculture is the real news. In agriculture the greatest confusion reigns in regard to nitrogen. While nitrogen is nearly four fifths of the atmosphere, it commonly behaves as an inert gas. Yet, where life is involved, nitrogen carries the patterns of both the mineral releasing, nitrogen fixing, digestive and nutrient uptake activities in the soil along with photosynthetic, blossoming, fruiting and ripening activities above the soil. The atmospheric warmth and light and the soil's chemistry and life are all moderated by nitrogen in its various relationships with hydrogen, oxygen, carbon and sulfur. In regard to animals and their inward sense and desire nature, nitrogen's activities involve the uptake of proteins, their digestion, and reorganization according to each organism's DNA patterns, circulation, metabolism, conscious determination and excretion. Daily morning and evening radionic integration, balancing and enhancement of farm activities can profoundly affect the resilience and productivity of any farm as a whole, thus averting the adverse effects of weather, pests, diseases and general imbalances that otherwise might lead to losses in production, fertility, animal health and overall profitability. A common result is when we get nitrogen right, everything else seems to fall into place.

Hugh Lovel - Hugh Lovel is a farmer and an international consultant to dairy farms, graziers, broadacre grain growers and fruit and vegetable producers. As a multidisciplinary scientist, Hugh has introduced comprehensive soil testing using both the Albrecht approach and a total acid digest test that more clearly reveals what is actually present in soils. Above all he has been a leading pioneer of the new science of Quantum Agriculture. Hugh Lovel is the author of A Biodynamic Farm for Growing Wholesome Food and Quantum Agriculture: Biodynamics and Beyond. He is the original designer of the Field Broadcaster quantum technology and the Quantum Radionic Analyser. His articles appear in "Acres USA", related organic farming periodicals such as "Acres Australia" and biodynamic journals around the world. Initially Hugh gained 30 years of broad experience in biodynamic farming while operating a market garden farm and the first CSA in Georgia. His farm was home to the annual South-East Biodynamic Conferences for 12 years. Hugh migrated to Australia in 2005 to teach, consult and write. Hugh served for 6 years on the national board of Biodynamic Agriculture Australia. He and his wife Shabari Bird are the founders of Quantum Agriculture Consultancy and live in Australia and the US.

October 26, 2018 - 8AM to 5PM

1PM - 2PM, 2:15PM—3:15PM - Scott Ertl and Tim Lippert

The Body Electric. Tim and Scott will introduce you to one of the most significant discoveries in the past 18 years of energetic work. This addresses one of the key factors in why remote, energetic work will sometimes fall short. You will learn how to test for reverse polarity, the octaves of polarity, body voltage, body amperage, and oscillations. You will also learn tips and techniques to remediate each of these problems and the equipment and reagents used to quickly achieve success.

Scott Ertl is a Master Dowser, Weird Energy Expert/Energy Mechanic, Stray Voltage Specialist. He is the Inventor of the Patented Stray Voltage Device called the “Ertlizer”. Through his work with Stray Voltage, he also solves Geopathic and Spiritual issues around the world. In his spare time he operates an Organic Dairy Farm in Marshfield, WI. Scott has spent the last 20 years researching and developing tried and true strategies that remedy many types of issues for people, animals and properties.

3:30PM - 5PM - Dr. Linda Lancaster

Evaluating shock and giving treatment through various methods of Radionics - “for our difficult times” .

Dr. Linda Lancaster has been practicing Radionics for the last 35+ years within her practice as a Naturopathic Physician and Homeopath. She will talk about the importance of analyzing and treating shock in the Physical/Etheric, Astral and Mental bodies. Dr. Linda will demonstrate how to clear shock through Radionics, by utilizing the Kelly instrument, Parcells’ Thea Light Color Broadcast, MGA Geometric patterns, Drown and DeLaWar Base 10 Rates, Homeopathy and Intention. She will explain why it is important to trace the shock back to where it has been lodged, which very often can reveal other information. Shock is our body’s way to protect us from deeper scars. The body says it is enough and goes into shock. In Dr. Lancaster’s practice, she has found 4 out of 6 people are burdened with shock in their subtle bodies, which can create a block in the flow of the energy in the person or animal in their healing process. If energy is allowed to flow by releasing shock, very often this can be the missing link in healing.

Dr. Linda Lancaster - Dr. Linda is a Board Certified Naturopathic Physician and Homeopath. She has been in practice since 1981 and founded Light Harmonics Institute, an Energy Medicine Clinic and Educational Center based in Santa Fe, New Mexico and maintains clinics in Santa Fe and New York City. Her training includes Classical Homeopathy, Radionics, Medical Radiesthesia, Subtle Energy Healing, Nutrition, Herbal Medicine, Ayurveda and Detoxification Methods. Her health and cleansing programs have been offered to her patients for more than 30 years.

7PM - 8:30PM - Social and Q & A

Get to know other participants. Ask teachers your questions. Share your knowledge. This will be informal.

Day 3

October 27, 2018 - 8AM to 5PM

8AM - 9AM, 9:15AM—10:15AM, 10:30AM—11:30AM - Robin Hermanson

Radionics and Farming. Robin will be teaching what he has learned from Jerry Freidenstien, Peter Kelley, Steve Weston and Dale Grondahl. What has worked from seed time to harvest on the farm.

Robin Hermanson, Garretson, SD - Robin is a professional Mechanical Engineer, Green Building Engineer and Certified Energy Manager. He is also a Certified Organic Farmer and has 360 acres. For 14 years, Robin has researched health and longevity through the Reams Biological Theory of Ionization. Robin is a veteran radionics operator helping people solve a wide range of health problems with alternative methods and detoxification.

1PM - 1:45PM - Brian Besco

Tensor Fields and Radionics. Using Tensor tools with your instruments for harmonizing, space clearing, self clearing, broadcast filtration and amplification. We will have an in depth discussion on how these tools affect the field, as well as the ways in which the tools can be incorporated into, and simplify, working with Radionic instruments.

Brian Besco - Brian Besco is the leader in research and development of Tensor Technologies. He considers the Tensor tools to be a combination of the physical sciences and spiritual technologies. He is a published author and manufacturer of the Tensor tools, and spoke at the 2013 Tesla Technology Convention on the Tensor Fields. Brian has also created several new modalities of subtle energy work, and teaches workshops around the world.

2PM - 3PM - Dan Mangum

Music, Frequency, and Sound. This presentation will demonstrate some of the radionic applications of music, frequency, and sound. Musical notes and tones as well as other principals of music theory such as the perfect fifth and chords. Use of other non musical frequencies and a signal generator. Music and nature sounds as reagents. Also covered will be the Solfeggio tones and the “sound” of Dinshah colors. A practical demonstration of combining music and radionics will be shown.

Dan Mangum - is a radionic researcher who uses radionics to maintain a garden, greenhouse, fruit and nut trees, honeybees, a handful of horses and shetland sheep, and his dogs. His background includes studying mysticism, magic, and world religions, rife machines, orgone accumulators, homeopathy, biodynamics, and an organic diet. Dan is a licensed electrician who occasionally installs off grid solar power and lives off grid himself.

3:15PM - 5PM - Stephen Quong

Geomantic and Radionic Protocols for Clearing Black Streams and Dark Pools. One of the most difficult forms of geopathic stress to clear are the so-called “black streams” and “dark pools” of decomposing material in ancient underground stream beds. These underground deposits might be millions of years old, and yet they still emit noxious gases and harmful subtle energy fields which are very disturbing to the health of living beings. This lecture will present a specific protocol combining elements of ancient Tao Geomancy and modern Western radionics, which you can use to neutralize this and other similar forms of geopathic stress.

Stephen Quong - is recognized internationally as one of the foremost Vedic Astrologers in the Western world. He has been certified as an instructor of Qi-Mag Feng Shui and Tao Geomancy; Qinyang Qigong; Vipassana Meditation, the Yuen Method of energetic healing, and the Medicine Buddha Healing Dharma. He has also studied and practiced Pranic Healing, Matrix Energetics, Quantum Healing, Neutrakon hypnotherapy, and many other healing modalities for many years. Stephen has practiced and taught dowsing and energy healing since 1972, and worked with radionic devices for over 30 years. His presentation will introduce various concepts and techniques from Vedic, Buddhist, Taoist and Shamanistic traditions, which can enhance our use of Kelly-type, analog radionic devices. His full biography is available online at www.jyotisha.com/bio.html. Email: smquong@gmail.com. Office telephone: (925) 754 8858 PT.

Short News, Notes, and Queries

(If anyone would like to make a short news announcement, report something, has a question about anything related to psychotronics and related subjects, or has any information or comments about any of the following notes and queries, please write to the editor, John Reed at: joreed43@gmail.com)

1. Neurophone Devices Wanted: Does anyone have any old neurophones that they would be willing to sell, rent, or lend for research and application purposes? The neurophone was originally invented by G. Patrick Flanagan in the 1950's, and enabled people who were completely deaf to hear. This non-invasive device was somehow able to bypass the auditory nerve, and interact directly with the auditory region of the brain, allowing a deaf person to hear. This device is needed to treat a patient of a colleague of John H. Reed, M.D. Please write him at: joreed43@gmail.com if you have such a device or know someone who does.
2. Seeking Radionics Practitioner in Ohio: Rebecca Cotterman is looking for a radionics practitioner in Ohio. If you are a practitioner in Ohio, or know one in Ohio, please contact Rebecca at: cotterman@hotmail.com
3. Does anyone know anything about a man named William Lehr (1933-1996), who lived in Scammon, Kansas, and who developed several energy and healing devices, and made a reproduction of the T. Henry Moray energy device? In addition, Lehr is said to have created a high-powered spark-gap device for healing purposes that cured a man who had been sent home to die, as well as, a huge bibliography of articles and books dealing with new energy sources and energy medicine and treatment.
4. Does anyone know the whereabouts and/or contact information of Dr. Robert N. Miller? At the 1978 USPA Conference, Dr. Miller gave a presentation with Pierre Paul Sauvin titled "Methods of Detecting and Measuring Healing Energies." That was the only time that Dr. Miller ever spoke at a USPA conference, and we would like to follow up with him on any research he has done since that time.
5. We have been recently informed that one of the radionics devices that Jerry Gallimore invented in the 1970's or 1980's used a GSR meter in place of a stick plate. Does anyone happen to have or know anything about this particular device?

Such a device would be very significant, because if there is a such a radionics device that can be successfully used without a stick plate, which depends on the sensitivities and subjectivity of the user, it would enable nearly anyone to use that radionics device. One of the problems that beginners in radionics often have is the detection of the “stick”, on the stick plate, and some people are never able to develop this ability.

6. Do any of you know anyone who has ever owned, used, or did research on the Dotto Ring? This was an electrotherapy treatment device, pictured at left, developed by Dr. Gianni Dotto back in the 1970's and is said to have been used successfully to treat cancer and other diseases in humans and animals. In addition, the Dotto Ring was also said to be able to slow down the aging process and even rejuvenate individuals to some degree.

7. Does anyone have video tapes of the presentations that Andrija Puharich made at the 1982 US Psychotronics Association Conference? The title of Dr. Puharich's first presentation was: “Chemical Compounds: Receptors of Artificial ELF”, and was sold for a period of time on the USPA website with this title and catalog number F6. The second presentation that Dr. Puharich made at the 1982 USPA Conference was the Keynote Address at the Awards banquet. The Title of this presentation was “Kindling + 1” and had catalog number F7. If anyone has either or both of these tapes, please contact the editor, John Reed at: joreed43@gmail.com.

Among the Missing, (and Updates): A Column about Missing People, Organizations, Periodicals, Books, Artifacts, and Collections in the Psychotronics Field

by John H. Reed, M.D

This is a new “column” or section of the USPA Newsletter, and will be an ongoing part of every issue, with the purpose of helping the USPA, as well as, our members and research associates locate people, organizations, periodicals, books, artifacts, devices, collections, and other items that have seemingly disappeared, or have been extremely difficult to find. Updates will be added, and each missing item will be retained in future issues until it is found or otherwise resolved, since some readers may not have seen prior issues of the USPA Newsletter or the original notice of the missing item.

In addition, this will also serve as a “People Locator Service” to help find authors and researchers on psychotronics, radionics, subtle energies, energy medicine, and related subjects, who have “disappeared” or have died long ago, and whose relatives you may be trying to find in order to preserve the research papers and collection of that person.

In our research and reading, we all have encountered people, organizations, periodicals, books, articles, or other things that we have tried to find, and some people have searched for years to find something, but have not yet found it, despite the vast resources of the Internet. However, with our large USPA membership, we can all help one another find what we have been searching for. Some of you may have experience in genealogical research, or private investigation, law enforcement, or even intelligence work which you could utilize to help each other, or perhaps just make suggestions on how or where to search for something.

So if there is anything you have been searching for and need help to find, please write to me, John H. Reed, M.D. at: joreed43@gmail.com, and I will include your search help request in the next and subsequent issues of the USPA Newsletter. And if you have any information about an item that is listed in “Among the Missing”, please write to the same email address and share what you know or your suggestions. If there is something that is confidential, your confidentiality request will be honored and protected.

Missing Person: Willard Frank , also known as Bill Lawson

We are trying to find any relatives or other people who personally knew Willard Frank, also known as Bill Lawson, who was the developer of the radionics device called the Digitron. This device, a photo of which appears at left, was invented by Willard Frank in the early 1980's, and is reported to be the forerunner of the SE-5, which Don Paris has developed into one of the finest radionics devices in the world.

Willard Frank is reported to have died in 2009, and there is some question as to whether his real name was Willard Frank or Bill Lawson. If any reader knew Willard Frank, or where he lived, or any of his relatives, please contact the editor, John Reed at: joreed43@gmail.com.

The USPA would also like to obtain one of the Digitron devices for the USPA Museum. If anyone has a Digitron (or knows someone who does) and would like to donate it to the USPA or sell it for a reasonable price, please contact the editor.

Missing Inventions: The Missing Invention of Arthur H. Matthews to Control Insect Pests, Microbes, and Diseases at a Distance

Where are the patent and invention by Arthur H. Matthews, a Canadian, who in his own words stated “This refers to my invention of selective control – at a distance – with no physical contact – to control any form of germ – any sickness – all kinds of insect[s] which cause damage to forest, garden and human[s].” Those words appeared in Matthews’ own hand writing at the bottom of a reproduced letter on Appendix page A-10 of his book, The Wall of Light, which he published in 1971. But the big mystery is that the Canadian Patent Office database of patents does not show this invention or any other invention by Arthur H. Matthews.

Interestingly, correspondence of the Canadian Commissioner of Patents shows the title of the invention as “Methods for the Control of Insect Pests” and the patent application number of: 510,626, but not the number of the patent, if it was ever granted. So the question arises: What happened to this wonderful invention by Mr. Matthews, and why does the Canadian Patent database have no record of this device whatsoever in its database of patents?

Further details on this mystery are available in an article titled, “Among the Missing” Special: The Missing Invention of Arthur H. Matthews to Control Insect Pests, Microbes, and Diseases at a Distance” in the February, 2018, issue of the USPA Journal and Newsletter, pages 24-27, available here.

If anyone has any information about this invention by Arthur H. Matthews, please write to the USPA editor, John H. Reed, M.D. at: joreed43@gmail.com.

Missing Device: Marcel Vogel’s Omega- 1 Radionics Instrument

In a 1987 meeting presentation, YouTube Video, available here, beginning about 4:20, Marcel Vogel states that he had been trying to find a way by which he could measure the subtle energies and fields in the crystals he was working with, and that he prayed to God to give him an instrument to make such measurements. Marcel says that about two months later, a man named Daniel Perkins, apparently guided by higher forces to build such an instrument, came to Marcel’s door and said, “Here is your instrument, the Omega-1. You will know how to use it,” and walked away. But where is that particular Omega-1, and were any other Omega-1 instruments built? It is known that other Omega models of radionics instruments were produced, especially Omega-5 instruments, but it is not known if the company that built them still exists. In addition, does anyone know who Daniel Perkins is, and where he is located? Anyone who can shed light on this mystery, please write to the editor at: joreed43@gmail.com.

Missing Psychotronics Device:

The AGRAD Machine: In the 1970's Mankind Research Unlimited, Inc.(MRU), headed by Dr. Carl Schleicher, was offering for sale a device called the AGRAD Machine. It was intended to be used in the electromagnetic treatment of crops and the control of insect populations, and sold for $390.00. MRU claimed that AGRAD machines had been used for several years by MRU researchers to conduct experimental applications of the type described in The Secret Life of Plants by Christopher Bird and Peter Tompkins, and Report on Radionics by Edward W. Russell. Theoretically, the AGRAD machine was intended to produce effects through electromagnetic wavefronts that would interact with and control insects by disturbing the insect sensor mechanisms. A photo of the device and additional information appeared in one of MRU's publications which you can access here.

Preventative Medicine/Self Healing via One's Personal Biofield Pumping and Balancing *

by

William A. Tiller, Ph.D.

Introduction

In my book "Science and Human Transformation"⁽¹⁾, I utilized human energy field insights gained from some of my 1960-1980 experimental research studies to produce self-healing and preventative medicine for myself and my family. I have always been pleased to share these insights with others when they show an interest. I have found great personal benefits via following and expanding these procedures but, at present, I do not know how universal all of these results might be for others. I do know that some of them have been stated to be quite beneficial for others.

In the 1970's, I did a variety of energy field experiments with a well-known dowser, WC,⁽²⁾ and came to recognize a seeming-correlation between our three proposed main energy circuits in the body and the Eeman's Relaxation Circuit of the 1920's^(3a). Eeman's experimental arrangement is illustrated in Figure 1a and consists of a subject plus copper mats and copper wires^(3b). The back of the head (base of the brain) and the left hand appeared to be of one subtle energy polarity while the base of the spine and the right hand appeared to be of the opposite subtle energy polarity. Under ideal conditions, the individual subject is aligned along the magnetic flux lines of the earth with their head to the north and their feet to the south (with ankles crossed left over right). If he/she is energy right-handed and connected in this way, they will just deeply relax in this particular circuit and this brings about both balancing of the energies in his/her body plus an influx of new energy into their system (at least that has been my personal experience).

If the hand connections are reversed, a tension circuit is created which energy right-handed people find almost unbearable after a little while. If the individual is left-handed, energy-wise, the situation is reversed. In the experiments I have personally carried out on myself with this type of circuit, I have utilized the slightly simpler circuit illustrated in Figure 1b. Each copper mat of Figure 1a has been replaced by a simple copper loop, one around the head making contact at the base of the brain and looping around to the front over a region ~3 inches above the eyebrows and a couple of inches away from the head. The other copper loop is around the waist making contact at the base of the spine level with a loop diameter large enough to easily pull on over the shoes and trousers and slide up the body to the hips leaving the front part of the loop about 2 inches to 3 inches above the body.

When lying on top of a bed in the Figure 1b circuit connection (not always with the head pointing north), I noted a strong subjective feeling of energy flowing through my body, sometimes quite intensely in certain locations of the body before that part completely relaxes. After a one-half hour session in the circuit, I felt greatly relaxed, energized and mentally centered for the following 6 to 10 hours. I learned to do this before mid-afternoon in order not to be wide awake at my normal bed-time. Back in the 1970's-1980's, I found this to be so effective that I would even take this on business trips to ensure that I was able to deliver high quality performance.

I eventually came to attribute the utility of this modified Eeman's circuit to an equalization of some biological "subtle energy" potential within the three main body circuits⁽⁴⁾. My hypothesis was that the left hand drew energy from the head circuit, fed it through the trunk of the body and out the right hand into the leg circuit. I hypothesized that, in this way, the three main information wave (Qi) circuits of the physical body were "shorted out" to equalize their subtle domain potentials and that it was this that allowed my normal electric charge-based physical body to deeply relax.

I eventually assumed that this line of speculation was close to the truth and that the copper serves only as a reasonable conductor of this information wave (Qi) energy present in the human biofield. I then decided that, in principle, if a human could learn to “pump” this energy within their own bodies, similar results might be obtained by just using one’s bare hands.

Learning How to Pump “The Subtle Energy”

In my case, I found that by sitting quietly (often watching a television program), and placing my hands in full contact, palm to palm, while resting the hands in my lap, I subjectively felt some type of weak energy current flow up my left arm and down my right arm. It seemed to cross the trunk of my body from left to right. The longer I did this, the stronger the flow of this current seemed to be. It was almost as if the flow of this subtle current reduced the resistance to this flow which, in turn, increased the magnitude of this current flow. Separating the palms seemed to reduce the magnitude of the current flow.

I speculated on an explanation for this phenomenon and eventually hypothesized that the minor chakras at the center of each palm were intimately involved in this subtle energy flow process. For me, this subtle energy appeared to flow out of the right palm chakra into the air to become part of my biofield and from my general biofield into the left palm chakra up the left arm, across the trunk of my body and down the right arm, etc. From my experimental work with dowzers, particularly WC⁽²⁾, a second major body circuit was in-flow via the minor chakra in the center of the sole of the left foot, flow up the left leg and across the groin followed by flow down the right leg and out the minor chakra at the sole-center of the right foot. The third discrete energy circuit of the body appeared to be in-flow from the biofield through the left eye and out-flow through the right eye to the general biofield.

Presuming that the impedance to this subtle energy flow is appreciably larger for travel through the air than for travel through the epidermis and dermis, placing the two palms in intimate contact should enhance the magnitude of this flow through the arm/trunk circuit. Likewise, placing the soles of the feet together should also be therapeutic. In any event, I performed the palm-to-palm exercise for about 30 to 60 minutes a day for about a month and subjectively noticed an appreciable increase in subtle energy flows within my body plus an enhanced body vitality. I felt that I was now ready to perform a few “healing” experiments on myself.

Some Self-healing Experiments

1. In the early 1970's, I began to wear glasses for reading and for driving my car and I didn't like the inconvenience. About the same time, an MD friend told me about an experiment conducted in China on children with vision problems who needed to wear strong glasses to see and read effectively. They were told to massage certain acupuncture points around the eyes as these relaxed the tensions in the eye muscles. After a few months of doing these exercises daily, most of the children were able to see and read well without using their glasses. This sounded like something I could check out by trying it on myself.

Figure 2⁽⁵⁾ is a diagram of the eyes and nose with the location of six points, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 clearly marked around both eyes:

- #1, situated at the inner edge of the eyebrow (a bladder meridian point).
- #2, situated at the inner corner of the eye (the start point of the bladder meridian).
- #3, situated about 0.5 inches below the center of the eye (the start point of the stomach meridian).
- #4, situated about 0.25 inches beyond the outer corner of the eye (the start point of the gall bladder meridian).
- #5, situated about 0.25 inches beyond the outer edge of the eyebrow (the end point of the triple warmer meridian).
- #6, situated about 0.5 inches above the center of the eyebrow (a point of the gall bladder meridian).

My steps in this personal experiment were as follows:

- A. With light to medium pressure, starting with point #1 on each eyebrow, massage in a clockwise/counter clockwise direction for 9, 18 or 27 rotations and then do likewise in the opposite direction for the same number of rotations.
- B. Do the same procedure for points #2, #3, #4, #5 and #6 in sequence.
- C. Then, placing two finger tips touching the bridge of the nose between the eyebrows, run the finger tips in opposite directions at moderate pressure out along the eye brows in a rotary motion around the eye and up the outer nostrils back to the starting point. Do this 9, 18 or 27 times. This should feel very good!

I did this, and still do this several decades later, every morning for about 5 to 10 minutes. Within about two months of starting the exercise, I no longer needed to wear glasses for either reading or driving. That was about 40 years ago and I still have excellent vision (although now that such small print is being used for newspapers, I now use 1.5 times drugstore magnifiers for easy reading).

2. All during the 1960's and early 1970's, I had a severe lower back problem and would generally visit my favorite chiropractor every winter when the weather turned cold. The severity was such that I would go three times a week for the first month (diathermy, manipulation, etc.), twice a week for the second month and once a week for the third. In the early 70's I decided to try an experiment using my own hands to heal the problem. Every day, first thing in the morning and last thing at night, I would sit erect and place my hands on my back (overlapping my spine) and start as high up on the back as I could reach. Initially, I would leave the hands there for ~1 minute or so and then shift them a palm-width lower for the next minute or so and then progressively lower until I reached my tailbone. It seemed as if my right hand was acting like an energy hose injecting energy into the back, which stimulated the neural system and activated the vascular system. I didn't miss a day of this practice and found that I suddenly didn't need to visit the chiropractor at all for the next 15 years.

So long as I didn't do anything stupid like walking a long way carrying a heavy suitcase in one hand or spend a long time shoveling heavy snow, I no longer needed to visit my friendly chiropractor.

3. A common malady for some people is that they have trouble turning off their brain in order to fall asleep. I was one of those people when I was younger. However, once I learned how to pump subtle energy, I discovered a solution to my sleeping problem via using my hands instead of copper wires in the Figure 1a configuration.

I would lie in bed on my left side with my head on the pillow. My left hand placed on my neck at the base of my skull, my right hand was placed on my tail-bone and my left ankle was placed over my right. I would lie that way for 15-20 minutes and then resume my normal sleeping position and I quickly fell into restful sleep for the duration of the night. The body orientation with respect to north does not seem to be strongly critical.

4. Over the years, I have found it possible to reduce and often eliminate the stress from a certain region of the body by placing the hands on the body in such a placement as to enhance the natural subtle energy flow. For example:

- (1) Sore Left Thigh: Place the right palm on the thigh closer to the knee and the left palm closer to the groin, thus bracketing the sore region and increasing the bioenergy flux through the left thigh region.
- (2) Sore Right Thigh: Place the right palm on the thigh closer to the groin and the left palm closer to the knee, thus bracketing the sore region and increasing the bioenergy flux through the right thigh region.

- (3) Indigestion after eating: Place the left palm on or below the stomach and the right palm higher up on the chest, both being centrally located on the body.

The procedure #3 above has also been therapeutic for the elimination of female menstrual cramps by having the female lie face-up on a couch and me kneeling on the floor beside it. I place the left hand under the base of her skull while the right hand is placed under the tailbone of her spine. Relief of her internal stress usually occurs within 5 to 10 minutes. In all cases where one person is using their hands to ease the pain, stress or ailment of another, I have found it useful to run cold water over the wrists after such a treatment.

My working hypothesis is that everyone has the inherent capacity to build the necessary infrastructure into themselves by practice, practice, practice on themselves to find out what works best for them. In all of these procedures, as the energy form causing the initial pain passes out of the region and through one's trunk circuit, a type of energy polarization can often develop in the wrist joints and this diminishes the magnitude of the subtle energy current flow. Thus, periodically, I have found it useful to rotate the wrists which appears to discharge this polarization energy (often with a sharp "crack" sound). This seems to allow the subtle energy current flow magnitude to increase back to its initial level.

A second mode of subtle energy (Qi-energy) adjustment appears to be the one-handed mode. For example, by placing one's left hand on one's own body or on someone else's body, subtle energy of this particular type can be removed from that location. By using only the right hand, this particular type of subtle energy can be introduced into the body at a specific location. If an individual has a pain at a particular location in his/her body, then he/she or someone else appear to be able to diminish the magnitude of such pain by simply placing the left hand on the particular location of the body and holding the right hand away from the body to release the subtle energy stream into the atmosphere. The left palm appears to act something like a suction pump to pull a subtle energy stream from the subject's body at the location of contact, with this stream passing through the practitioner's body and out into the atmosphere via the right palm. My present working hypothesis is that this subtle energy stream carries with it some quality of the particular subtle energy form causing the pain.

I have observed that, if one makes contact with the acupuncture meridian and acupuncture points of that pain area, the effective treatment time is decreased. When one presses on these acupuncture points with the fingertips (even through clothing), the effective treatment time is further decreased.

The Great Importance of Human Intention and the Coupled State of Physical Reality

In White Papers #1⁽⁶⁾ and #3⁽⁷⁾, the great difference between the coupled state vs. the uncoupled state of physical reality was described. Experimentally we learned that one of the characteristics of the coupled state was what was labeled the D.C. magnetic field polarity behavior⁽⁸⁾. In our normal reality, the uncoupled state, a magnetic dipole cannot influence the pH (acid/alkaline balance) of water. This is because the magnetic force and magnetic energy of a magnetic dipole are independent of dipole orientation in a space of the U(1) electromagnetic gauge symmetry state. However, when one lifts the EM gauge symmetry state of an experimental space via use of an intention-host device, the same DC magnetic field polarity experiment shows that, with the south pole of the magnet pointing into the water, the pH-measurement increases strongly in the alkalinity direction. Inverting the direction of the magnet relative to the water so that the north pole of the magnet points into the water, causes the pH-measurement to decrease strongly in the acidic direction (see Figure 3).

Using a kinesiology procedure of muscle testing⁽⁹⁾ while bringing a pencil-shaped bar magnet up to unique body points showed that, when the south-pole of the magnet was within ~1 centimeter of the points, the arm tested very strong. However, when the magnet was simply turned end over end so that the north-pole faced these same body points at about ~1 centimeter separation, the arm tested very weak⁽⁹⁾. Thus a D.C. magnetic field polarity effect is present in humans indicating that some human body system is at the coupled state of physical reality! Since the proprioceptors in human muscles are subtly connected to the body's acupuncture meridian system, this strongly supports the working hypothesis that the human acupuncture meridian system is always at the coupled state of physical reality. Thus, humans have the latent ability to utilize their own specific intentions to alter various properties of their own body's tissues, muscles and organs in beneficial ways if they will only believe that they can do so and make the personal effort to train themselves to do so.

For some time, ~3-4 years, my colleagues and I have had the technical ability to experimentally measure the quantitative change in excess thermodynamic free energy for the aqueous hydrogen ion, H^+ , as a space transitions from the uncoupled state of physical reality to the coupled state of physical reality via the use of our intention-host devices. Since that time, we have wanted to convert such a measurement system into a user-friendly biofeedback device for human self-training to significantly increase their ability to “intend” to make such beneficial changes to the materials and organs of their own bodies. Hopefully, within the next year we will find the funds to seriously set this project in motion! The following section outlines why I think it is possible for us to significantly upgrade our preventative medicine capabilities.

From Maintained Intention to Body Structure Changes

Our body structure at the physical level is stable and sustained by a type of chemical homeostasis or chemical pattern which, in turn is kept stable by a pattern of electrical and magnetic potentials and other positive space-time patterns of potential. The positive space-time patterns of energy are themselves kept stable by specific reciprocal space (R-space) patterns of energy which themselves are stabilized by energy field patterns at the mind and emotion levels of the universe. At this point it is useful to recall Wolf's Law of bone structure. If one of our bones receives a non-uniform stress for an extended period of time, the bone will grow new trabeculae (a type of bone girder) in the exact location needed to maximally support this stress distribution. The system, via the piezoelectric effect, produces certain field changes, and these changes cause ions and molecules to be carried to specific locations where they can agglomerate into the specific tissue and structural components of the trabeculae.

Carrying this idea further, we can think of mental field patterns as acting like a stress to influence the magnetochemical potential of the magnetic information wave molecules at the reciprocal (R-space) level of the body. Via the deltron coupler link, this pattern produces the required correlate at the positive space-time level (D-space) of physical chemicals and thus finally to influence the physical structure of the body.

It is important to realize that, when we remove the body stress that creates a certain pattern of trabeculae in a bone, the trabeculae do not dissolve at once. Rather, they may dissolve only very slowly (under the proper regime of physical exercise) because of the detailed molecular dynamics involved. They may maintain the body's distorted shape for a very long time even though the initial cause has been removed. The same is true for physical structures generated by emotional or mental states. However, when these unharmonious patterns, which scatter energy from the main flow at the various levels already discussed, are finally removed, more energy will be available for body function.

To illustrate further how maintained intention can produce structural changes in the body gland or organ to enhance its level of functioning, consider one process for making a magnetic material in the laboratory. Let us say that we are going to make a magnetic material out of a metallic alloy called permalloy. One way is to heat the solid up to a high temperature where the magnetic precipitates in the alloy go into solution in the solid (very much like salt or sugar and water would go into solution as you heat the water). Then after soaking at the high temperature range for some time, you cool the material through a critical temperature range and you find that little particles of a magnetic material come out of solution (again very much like salt or sugar would come out of solution if you cool it enough).

Now, think of these little magnetic particles as being like needles with a field direction arrow on them. They precipitate out of solution and the arrows are pointing in all kinds of different directions as illustrated in Figure 4a. The total or net magnetic field, H_{net} , of this material would be the sum of all the components of these arrows pointing in a particular direction. Of course because most of the individual arrows are almost randomly oriented, the sum in any direction is very small. Thus, although we have made a magnetic material, it is not a very good one! All right, now what can we do about that? Suppose we think "let us apply a strong magnetic field, $H_{imposed}$, directed upwards along the axis of the bar as illustrated in Figure 4b. Now, with this imposed magnetic field present, as the magnetic particles come out of solution both their birth and growth are influenced. Now, instead of being randomly oriented, they align themselves more closely with this applied field. After you cool the sample down and take away the imposed magnetic field, you find that your bar now has a very strong net magnetic field when you add up all the little arrows. You now have a material with a very large internal magnetic field.

Basically, you have processed the material in such a way as to increase the polarization in a particular direction; that is, to a useful polarization in this direction. You have done it via the influence of an applied external field during the birth and growth process of these magnetic precipitates. Now that we have this physical picture firmly in mind, let us see how it can be done with a gland in our body.

I first want to postulate that a key part of the glandular functioning is related to the gland functioning the way it does largely because of its structure on a cellular level. What we want to do is alter that essential structure at the subtle level. We make this alteration by the sustained application of a specific mind/emotion field; that is, we decide what is the ideal behavior and we mentally apply that image to the gland.

As an illustrative example, let us pick up on the thymus gland that we wish to alter. We want to make it polarized so as to much more easily radiate via the love mode than the hate mode. Thus, we take our highest conception of what is the expression of love and we intentionally apply that to the thymus and literally hold that image on the gland. Metaphorically, we can now think of this gland with some intention field pointing in a particular vector direction that represents a high expression of love. In the gland as in other parts of the body, millions of cells die as new ones are born every moment. Now we have a situation wherein cells are born in the presence of this influence field, this polarization field, and so orient or polarize themselves to be more closely aligned to this influence field rather than the field of the unconstrained gland. Think of the influence of this intention field as that of putting a constraint on the gland so that it functions more easily when it operates in the love expression mode. However, it is still difficult for it to function consistently in this mode because its easy groove of operation is the habit groove, and that may not be a very high expression of love. With the persistent application of a specific intention, all the cells in that gland will have been born under the influence of that field. With time, the gland is restructured in the presence of the specific intention, and it is eventually able to function in its new habit mode when it expresses this new image of love. Then the intention field may be removed and consciousness can be directed to work elsewhere because the gland will now respond automatically in this new ideal way.

This same procedure is the one responsible for the generation of the vital circuitry between the glands or between the subtle sensory system and the brain; that is, this is how the key linkages are made at the neural level of the physical and subtle bodies. The repeated act of trying to do a particular thing focuses the intention on the unconnected nerve ends that are important for successful fulfillment of the act. This intention field is ultimately manifest at the physical level as a voltage gradient between these nerve ends. The electrical stress polarizes the intervening cells so that they are eventually organized into appropriate nerve cells and the connection between the nerve endings is made. Electrical pulses can now flow and information can be transferred along this new transmission line so that the brain may now know of the message that the sensory receptors have been trying to get through for so long. It seems to be a continual "muscle-building" type of process, wherein greater and greater degrees of organization are developed in our bodies, allowing us to function with ever-growing capabilities. This is indeed the path of conscious evolution.

A Simple Exercise to Nourish our R-space Body

I have always taken as an important working hypothesis that the R-space body (magnetic information wave body) which contains the acupuncture meridian system and a portion of the chakra system, is the template and precursor for construction of the electric charge-based atom/molecule body. In this regard, it is important to note that all the meridians end or start at the fingers and toes specifically at the base of the nails (see Figures 5 and Table 1)⁽¹⁰⁾. The processes of walking, running, working with one's hands, etc., produce stimuli to these particular points which beneficially activate these meridians which, in turn, tend to nourish our D-space body.

About a year or so ago, I decided to further stimulate this meridian stimulation process by adding it to my daily acupressure/massage morning routine, specific attention to the base of the nail's points (immediate following my "around the eyes" set of points). I started first with the hands and then the feet. While sitting in a chair, my left hand was placed on my right thigh just above the knee and, starting with my baby finger, I took my right thumb and forefinger and both squeezed and pressed down on the finger at the base of the nail (I do it 36 times). I do the same, one finger at a time progressing towards the left thumb (which I do 45 times, instead of 36). Then I reverse the roles of the hands and, with the left thumb and forefinger, start on the right hand baby finger and squeeze/press down exactly, as with treatment of the left hand.

Next, while still sitting in the chair, I bend down to my bare feet and simultaneously treat my left toe nails with my left hand for squeezing/pressing (from baby toe to big toe) and treat my right toes in an identical fashion with my right hand. This entire process takes only about 5 to 10 minutes a day. Note that the middle toe has its kidney meridian first point starting at the sole of the foot located between the two mounds. This point should be pressed 36 times. My personal experience is that doing this is beneficial for my body but also that the rate of observed beneficial change in health state is slower than with the eye exercises. However, this may be the situation because I am a fairly healthy person (at age 80) and more obvious changes might be apparent if I had heart issues or other particular organ issues (once again, look carefully at Figures 5 and Table 1 for which finger and toe correlates with which organ).

To complete the acupuncture meridian picture with identified start and end points that one may wish to massage as an investigative experience, see Figures 6⁽¹¹⁾.

Dr. Ruth B. Drown's RADIOVISION
Update and Extension
by
Trevor James Constable

Researchers in the 21st century attempting to replicate Drown Radiovision, usually attempt to work with the published patent for this device. Nobody has yet reproduced a functional Radiovision unit from this particular base. As one who was closely associated with Dr. Drown in her last days, my recommendation is that future researchers simply discard the published Radiovision schematic, including the photo-electric cell component, not only as obsolete, but an encumbrance to clear understanding of Radiovision as Drown actually carried out the process herself, immediately before her arrest, persecution and consequent death. As a personal witness to these events, right in the darkroom with Dr. Drown, my account can be considered authentic. My own long practical involvement with etheric technology, beginning in photography, helps further clarify the Radiovision process as RBD left it in the world.

Primary in its influence on the thinking that must accompany a fruitful exploration of Radiovision, is the recognition that Drown Radiovision photographs are depictions of the ETHERIC BODY. These photographs are not of the physical organs, glands and tissues. The etheric body is a subtle, unseen duplicate of the physical body in all its parts. The etheric body animates the physical body, and its energies are indispensable to the living existence of the physical body. Without the ether body, a corpse appears. Death is the withdrawal of the ether body.

The energies of the ether body are accessible to the seemingly simple instruments and medical technology developed by Dr. Ruth B. Drown. Each organ, gland, tissue and fluid of the human body has its own distinctive etheric rate of vibration, always the same, until the onset of disease. The Drown rates, thousands of them, were empirically established over decades of work, for the entire body as well as for most diseases and pathological conditions. While these Drown rates correlate numerically to the Atomic Numbers on the accepted Periodic Table, they also connect the human body to complex functions of the Cosmos – as they are theoretically postulated and expounded in the esoteric Qabala. The human body is thus integrated with the Cosmos of which it is both part and product. Ruth Drown elucidated all this for suffering mankind – leaving humanity a monumental legacy.

The entire Drown technology is solidly anchored to mathematics, and is one hundred percent a numerically-based approach to diagnosis. This entire breakthrough will take wings when men and women find the courage and inspiration to synthesize these discoveries with the computer age and its burgeoning technology. Ruth Drown laid it all out for them, and now, they have to do a little work themselves, and take a few hits from an Establishment that is crumbling before our eyes.

These Drown numbers are etheric numbers, and the investigator of today must begin by recognizing that without the etheric presence, without the animation that the etheric world imparts to the physical world, we have only dust. From the Qabala we learn a technical fact vital to understanding Radiovision. As various densities or Sephiroth, descend from the Great Unmanifest to the physical plane, each Sephirah is POSITIVE IN POLARITY TO THE SEPHIRAH FOLLOWING.

Applying this technical fact to the relationship between the etheric plane, and the following physical plane, the etheric plane is POSITIVE to the physical, and positive to physical light. This is why the etheric body or etheric sheath, cannot be directly perceived by normal human sight, unless some process removes our optical limitation, or otherwise brings the etheric events to our perception. The etheric body can be irradiated electrically in various ways to make it perceptible, the well-known Soviet work with what they called "bioplasma" being an example.

Let us now transfer this knowledge to the final reaches of Radiovision as practised by Dr. Drown:

On making a Drown diagnosis, she would at its completion have identified the FIRST CAUSE of the patient's problems. Symptoms tend to cascade through the organism, manifesting in various misleading symptoms that are secondary to the First Cause. To keep this illustration anchored in familiar territory, let us consider the well-known Radiovision photograph of an abscessed molar tooth in a patient. The tooth rate and the rate of the attendant abscess are set up on the diagnostic instrument, and may be considered present at the instrument output. The entire assembly is now "tuned" to the problem. Under the original regimen, this complex "signal" would be used in the photographic attachment. Under the updated Drown approach, she found it was possible to DISPENSE ENTIRELY WITH THE PHOTOGRAPHIC ATTACHMENT.

Dr. Drown found that it was necessary only to clip the diagnostic instrument output briefly to one corner of the standard, 8 x 10 Agfa cut film that she used for Radiovision. When this was done, the image-bearing output of the diagnostic instrument would be impressed in the film emulsion. That this image-impression may have been due to the supernal gifts and talents of this incredible woman, is one of the things that the researchers of tomorrow will have to establish. Either that, or they will find that such image impression is yet another of the bewildering array of capabilities natively belonging to the etheric plane. Most likely is the latter the truth of the matter.

Carrying the process further, as I personally witnessed Dr. Drown carrying it out in her own darkroom: The simple process of momentarily clipping the diagnostic instrument output to the film's corner, is carried out in total darkness. The "exposed" film is then conveyed to a tall, glass-walled developing tank of standard commercial type. The film is placed in a standard developer. After a period of about 40-60 seconds, Dr. Drown would turn on a naked, 60 watt incandescent bulb in a holder, and allow it to shine against the glass wall of the developing tank. This is a step that would under normal photographic technique, result in a NON-PHOTOGRAPH – in complete obliteration of any image on the film. Dr. Drown would agitate the film in the developer, until IMAGES BEGAN TO EMERGE OUT OF THE FILM EMULSION. These forms could be clearly seen in outline. At this point, Dr. Drown extinguished the incandescent lamp, and the film development was completed in the orthodox way, via stop bath and thence into the hypo for fixing.

When the film was washed and dried in the conventional way, it could be placed on a standard, illuminated viewer and studied just like an x-ray, except that the Radiovision photo was CROSS-SECTIONAL THROUGH BOTH HARD AND SOFT TISSUE. In the example chosen from hundreds of real-world Radiovision pictures, the abscessed tooth is shown as though vertically sectioned, right through bone, pulp and gum, blood vessels and all, abscess in the picture center. You look at one wall of this incision. This sectioning goes right through the abscess to which the instrument was tuned, the abscess showing a sinus of infection from the root of the tooth, through the gum to discharge inside the patient's mouth.

The crucial key to these achievements, is that the film was exposed to light while in the developer undergoing development. This was a complete REVERSAL of standard practise. This caused the physical objectification of otherwise concealed and latent etheric images. This is one of the master keys to the revivification and renewal of Radiovision technology. Another vital point arises here: Dr. Drown greatly simplified Radiovision in her final days, by getting rid of the photographic attachment in the well-known patent drawing.

This simplification was based on one of Ruth Drown's favorite sayings, drawn from her profound knowledge of the etheric world and its functioning: "EVERYTHING IS HERE, NOW. ALL WE HAVE TO DO IS TUNE IN ON IT." Thus it was that with the diagnostic instrument tuned to the organ and the pathology, at the etheric level, the entire imagery was present at the instrument output. The inference is that once the etheric energy entered into some kind of chemical union with the emulsion, that composite repelled future interaction. The image of the etheric lay latent until activated by incandescent light while developing was in process.

The many years this writer spent in photographing UFOs – in full recognition that these are phenomena rooted in the etheric – put him in instant recognition of the polarity problem involved that Dr. Drown had solved. This writer's appreciation of Ruth Drown's genius was further enhanced by this farewell demonstration of its elegant simplicity. Her final aspiration was to unite her work with the then incoming wonders of videotape recording. Motion pictures of functioning organs and pathologies were within easy reach for this prodigious genius, whose motivation was the service of humanity.

Among the potential uses for Radiovision first used during the final period before Dr. Drown's arrest, was taking cross-sectional photographs of artifacts. This used the same principle as medical Radiovision, but without the complex prelude of medical diagnosis. As a practical example, the UFO subject has resulted in large numbers of fake and fraudulent photographs being published and circulated, with the motive of confusing clear thought on this subject. If an authentic UFO photograph is placed on the input to a Drown diagnostic instrument, a "rate" or frequency can be established for that artifact. This is usually a long rate of many digits. A fraudulent or fake photograph will not have such a rate and probably no rate at all.

Dr. Drown and myself checked many famous UFOs this way, and found that they produced no Drown rate at all, and had been faked. Others that had been panned and ridiculed by our corrupt media, proved to have long rates. Many of the UFO photos taken by Dr. Jim Woods and myself on the high desert, had rates that identified them as biological organisms and not ships from other planets. In the case of one of George Adamski's famous photographs, showing a large, fusiform vehicle in space, this photo and the rest of his photos were panned by the media and other critics. We found these images to be authentic via Drown analysis.

The large, fusiform craft had a long rate. When a Radiovision photograph of this rate was taken by the means previously described, this craft appeared on the etheric photograph in cross-section. Compartments within the vehicle were sectioned and showed indeterminate objects within those compartments. Ramps leading to the outside of the vehicle were identifiable, including one ramp upon which a smaller or "scout" UFO was seen as a compact, glowing object, either in the process of launching or docking. Dr. Drown had this photo enlarged to 24x36 and showed it enthusiastically to friends, and included it in a public display of radiovision photos at a meeting she convoked at the Insitute of Aeronautical Sciences in Los Angeles. I introduced this exhibit at her request. Most of these photos disappeared in the horrible turmoil of her arrest and consequent death.

The potential of this kind of remote photography in cross-section was without limit, and remains without limit to this day. The remote location of ships and submarines and missing persons, especially political persons, was carried out successfully in Drown's own lifetime, but was concealed for justified fear of clandestine, official retribution. Future researchers please note.

History will characterize as demented barbarism the cruelty with which men of earth treated this God-like lady in her eighth decade. Almost a half century later, formal science still pathologically evades etheric force. This despite their own major advances having been secretly retrieved from crashed extraterrestrial spacecraft that were propelled by etheric force, confounding our brightest minds. Dr. Ruth Drown boldly crossed this technical frontier decades ago, and gave humanity radiovision. This technology VERIFIES ITSELF with inarguable cross-sectional images of organs, glands and pathologies. Were this earth plane not a sink of negativity, her gifts would long ago have blessed suffering mankind.

"Everything is here, now. All we have to do is tune in on it."

This is an excellent book that summarizes the huge potential in using light waves, other electromagnetic waves, and ultrasound to treat Alzheimer's Disease, as well as, Parkinson's Disease, and numerous other neurological disorders.

The author cites and describes numerous completed studies, as well as ongoing research, which indicate that these debilitating disorders can be successfully treated with certain frequencies, pulse rates, and wave patterns of energy, including near infrared light, radio frequencies, and ultrasonic waves. These non-invasive and non-ionizing energy method induce biological activity that results in healing.

If you have a loved one with Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI), or other neurological disorders, this book will be very enlightening, and will show that great progress is being made to put an end to these scourges of humanity.

About the Author:

Michael Weiner started his business career at Xerox Corporation in 1975, eventually working in the marketing headquarters in Rochester, NY. In 1999 he began working with pacemaker pioneer, Wilson Greatbatch*. Together they tackled the problem of making pacemakers safe with MRI devices, working with industry and the FDA via a CRADA (Collaborative Research and Development Agreement), eventually selling the technology to Medtronic.

In 2010, on a trip to Vienna, Austria, Mike met with technology expert Armin Bernhard, Ph.D. an inventor of one of the cochlear implants. Dr. Bernhard first alerted Mike that Alzheimer's and other CNS diseases appeared to be the result of an energy deficiency, which could be resolved with non-invasive therapy, such as transcranial magnetic stimulation (TMS), delivered transcranially and non-invasively (and is approved for use for depression in the US).

Back in the US, Mike learned of Marvin Berman, Ph.D.'s pioneering work in Philadelphia, at the Quietmind Foundation, combining light therapy (LLLT, aka photobiomodulation) in combination with neurofeedback, for a revolutionary solution, working for Alzheimer's. Dr. Berman described the energy therapy as a form of "vitamins, not antibiotics."

Mike then learned of research led by Dallas Hack, MD MPH, heading neuroscience for the US Army, in traumatic brain injury (TBI) that led to the discovery that infrared light helped soldiers dealing with TBI. The NIH was briefed on this solution, working in humans, as far back as 2009. Mike took it to the Alzheimer's Association in 2015.

There is a Catch 22, described in this book, as to why something that works, without harm, can be ignored, by science and industry. This book is to provide the community of concerned citizens, scientists, and clinicians, needed information on where a promising solution is now hiding in plain sight. Public and media awareness of this opportunity should very much help move it forward. Mike lives in Estero, Florida, north of Naples. bio: www.lifeboat.com/ex/bios.michael.l.weiner

This is an introduction to the biotechnologies of water vitalization, and reveals the deeper secrets of the water, including its memory. It shows the practical applications founded on the work of such pioneers of water research as Viktor Schauberger, Theodor Schwenk, Masaru Emoto, and Jacques Benveniste. This book also describes various water dynamization devices currently available commercially.

The book shows that water is more than the simple liquid evoked by its scientific name H₂O. The discoveries by pioneering figures like Viktor Schauberger and Masaru Emoto have shown that this essential substance is much more complex than originally believed. Water is incredibly sensitive to the micro-information from the surrounding environment and it also possesses a memory. Unfortunately, many of the modern techniques for making water readily available have resulted in depreciating its vitality. Many of the benefits that water can provide when in its optimum natural state have been lost.

But there are now methods that have been perfected over the past several decades that can transform our banal tap water back to its natural potent state as the elixir of life. Experience has shown that these methods and devices can even transform water that has been heavily polluted by agriculture or industry into a potable fluid that looks like the product of a limpid mountain spring. Tests show that no trace of the pollutants remain. Many of these devices are available commercially, offering to all the possibility of enjoying the optimum benefits water can deliver when in its healthy, natural state.

Arnold Reinhold

Eric Rowley

The USP wishes to extend our thanks and gratitude for their generosity.

To make a tax deductibe donation to the United States Psychotronics Association (USPA) online, please go to the USPA donations page and scroll down to the orange “Donate” button, where you can make a donation using your credit, debit card, or PayPal. For those who wish to make a donation by check, please make your check payable to USPA and mail it to the USPA treasurer, Scott Beutlich, 525 Juanita Vista, Crystal Lake, IL 60014.

USPA Psychotronics Periodicals Library

In order to do good psychotronics research of any kind, whether it involves radionics, radiesthesia, psionic medicine, dowsing, subtle energies, biophotons, or any other subject covered by psychotronics, one needs access to as much of the periodical literature as possible on these subjects.

To address this issue, the United States Psychotronics Association has resolved to identify, acquire, and digitize copies of every psychotronics related periodical that has ever been published anywhere in the world, and to retain copies in the USPA Library.

As a first step, we have developed an online list of psychotronics related periodicals \(click here\) that focus on or frequently have articles on the psychotronics subjects noted above. This is a growing list, since we know there are probably other psychotronics periodicals that have been published, but that we do not yet know about.

Please look over the online list and check your own personal physical libraries and your computer files, thumb discs, and other external hard drives to see if you have any issues of the periodicals on this list. Even if you just have one issue, please let us know, because that may be the one we need to complete all the issues of a particular periodical. Please write to me (John Reed) at: joreed43@gmail.com, since I am the USPA librarian and archivist coordinating this effort,and tell me what periodicals you have.

As a whole, the members of USPA and other interested non-members, have a huge “library” of periodicals, but it just happens to be “distributed” among these people at this point in time. However, we can work together, and if you would be willing to loan, donate, xerox, or as a last resort, sell copies of your periodicals to the USPA Library, then we will be able to build a large centralized library of all psychotronics periodicals. And all USPA members will then be able to use these periodicals in their research or for their reading enjoyment.

USPA Local Groups and Affiliates Update

As mentioned in the May, 2016, USPA Newsletter, one of our goals is to reactivate all of the former 24 USPA Chapters that once existed across the US and Mexico. In addition, we plan to establish new local groups of people interested in psychotronics and related subjects in other major cities in the US and other countries as well. All such local groups and affiliates will be independent, but will work together with the USPA in a mutually beneficial relationship to achieve our goals of advancing research and applications in psychotronics, radionics, subtle energy, and related fields.

So I would like to invite all of former USPA Chapters leaders and members to contact me (John Reed) at: joreed43@gmail.com and let me know if you would like to help reactivate your local chapter. In addition, if you are a leader or member of a psychotronics or related organization which was never a chapter of USPA, and we would welcome you as a USPA affiliated organization as well.

We will be establishing a USPA affiliated groups as traditional organizations and also via the Meetup.com online group platform. This will enable current and former members to more easily have local get-togethers, meetings, and other activities, and those activities, times, and other details can be posted online. So please let me know if you would like to be the leader of a group in your area.

If you do decide to use Meetup.com to establish your local group, you could do it quickly and easily by going to www.meetup.com , and clicking on the big red word “Start” in the upper left, and then just following the step-by-step procedures.

You can give your local group any name you want, but it should probably have a name that relates to psychotronics in some way. And if you need any help, please let me know, and I will help you in any way I can. Perhaps the most important thing is enthusiasm and determination, so write to me, even if you don’t know any other USPA members in your area, and I will help you set up a local group: joreed43@gmail.com

Exchange Corner and Advertisements

The "Exchange Corner", is a place where people can advertise to buy, exchange, or sell items of interest, or request information or other help in relation to something wanted. So if there is anything you want to buy, sell or trade that has to do with psychotronics, radionics, subtle energy, or related subjects, please contacted the Classified Ads manager at: joreed43@gmail.com. Advertisements are free of charge to USPA member within certain limits, but non-members will be charged for any classified or display ads. So please send your ads and wanted requests to: joreed43@gmail.com.

Wanted: Any articles, periodicals, books, devices, or other materials on psychotronic related subjects that you can donate or lend to the USPA for its library, archives, and museum. The USPA is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3), tax exempt organization, and as such, you are able to make tax deductible donations to the USPA. Please email the USPA at: joreed43@gmail.com to make shipping arrangements. Thank you for your generosity.

What Research and Subjects Does Psychotronics Cover?

The United States Psychotronics Association defines psychotronics as the science of mind-body-environment relationships, an interdisciplinary science concerned with the interactions of matter, energy, and consciousness. Psychotronics involves the study, research, and applications of the physics and technology of the mind, brain, spirit, consciousness, and the underlying forces of life and nature – hence the term “psychotronics”.

We believe that a true understanding of the universe must include the spiritual, as well as, the technical, and provide an opportunity for amateur researchers to present their findings along with the professionals. We stress research, with documentation of results, and practical applications, rather than personal experience and unsupported hypotheses.

Some Prominent People in the history of psychotronics research and application: Albert Abrams, Thomas Bearden, Robert C. Beck, Robert O. Becker, Jacques Benveniste, David Bohm, Harold Saxon Burr, George W. Crile, Ruth Drown, T. Galen Hieronymus, Vlail P. Kaznacheyev, Georges Lakhovsky, Wilhelm Reich, Royal R. Rife, Rupert Sheldrake, Nikola Tesla, Marcel Vogel, and others.

Some of the forces, fields, waves, and energies studied and researched in psychotronics include: bioelectromagnetism, biophotons, biopotentials, electromagnetic wave pollution and harmful effects; coherent emanations of DNA, emanations of matter, “free energy”, morphogenetic fields, non-hertzian waves, orgone energy, pyramid energy and power, qi (chi), quantum fields, scalar waves, subtle energies, ultra-weak radiation of living matter, zero-point energy, and others.

Some of the phenomena believed to be produced or involved with the above fields and energies: action-at-a-distance, the aura of the body and other living things, bioinformation, bioluminescence, chakras, consciousness, distant intercellular interactions, meridians of the body, mind-body interactions, non-locality, the placebo effect, quantum consciousness, spontaneous remission of cancer and other diseases, water memory, water structure, and others.

Related fields of study and research covering the above forces, energies, and phenomena of psychotronics: bioelectromagnetics, bioenergetics, biophotonics, biophysics, psionics, psychoenergetics, psychoneuroimmunology, quantum biology, radionics, scalar electromagnetics, and others.

Some practices, techniques, and applications related to psychotronics include: acupuncture, biogeometry, brain entrainment, clairvoyance, dowsing, energy healing and medicine, extrasensory perception, feng shui, homeopathy, kirlian photography, magnetic therapy, pendulum use and methods, prayer effects, psionic medicine, psychic healing, psychometry, qigong, radiesthesia, radionics, remote viewing, shamanism, sound and sonic healing, telekinesis, telepathy, and others.

J.G. Gallimore's Five Rare Books Now Available for Sale

All five of J.G. Gallimore's rare books on psychotronics subjects and unusual energies have been reprinted by the United States Psychotronics Association (USPA) and are being made available at a fraction of the cost that used copies were being sold at online. So rare have these books been, that only a few libraries in the entire world had them in their collections, and some of Gallimore's books were being sold for several hundred dollars each online. However, with these newly reprinted volumes, each will be available for less than $30.00. Each of Gallimore's books is described below with links to Amazon.com.

Jerry G. Gallimore was one of the founders of the USPA in 1975, and was a leading researcher in psychotronics and unusual energies until his untimely death in 1989.

This is J.G. Gallimore's first book of three volumes on unusual energies, and at 468 pages, it is a magnificent work. In this book, Gallimore discusses in depth the research, discoveries, and inventions of all the major researchers in subtle energies, the aether, biological fields, pyramid energy, radiesthesia, radionics, crystal transduction, and related subjects. These include the works of Baron Von Reichenbach's and his odic energy, Dr. Wilhelm Reich's orgone energy, Dr. Harold Burr's biological life fields, Kozyrev's time mirror, Edgar Cayce's transmission of energy, and related research done by many others. Of particular importance is Gallimore's 127 page chapter on radionics. In this chapter he discusses in depth the research and devices of Ruth Drown, T. Galen Hieronymus, Rho Sigma, Dr. L. P. Corte and other prominent people in the radionics field. But in addition, Gallimore provided diagrams showing how such devices are made and how they actually work.

In addition, a number of radionics devices are discussed, such as the De La Warr Diagnostic Instrument. And very helpfully, the rates are provided for substances, body organs, and medical diseases and disorders. A very interesting interview of Christopher Bird, conducted by J.G. Gallimore is provided, as well as a discussion of Walter Russell and his research.

Relationship Between Parapsychology and Gravity: Volume 3 of Handbook of Unusual Energies

The Relationship Between Parapsychology and Gravity is Volume 3 of J.G. Gallimore's series of three handbooks of unusual energies. This book describes in depth the research and theories of J.G. Gallimore into the question of "parapsychology transmission" --the question of how such things as telepathy, remote viewing, ESP, and similar phenomena can physically occur. Gallimore discusses various explanation on how they occur, including the possibility that gravity waves may play a role. He also discusses the various emanations, radiations, and energy fields of all matter and life. This includes the ancient Chinese energy called "chi" (qi), the ancient Indian's prana energy, Reichenback's "odhic force", Gurwitsch's "mitogenic radiation", Wilhelm Reich's orgone energy, and other subtle energies of life and matter. Gallimore shows how all of these energies are the same or similar, how they interact, and how they are related to gravity. He also discusses crystals as transducers of these energies, and provides diagrams of devices that could potentially be used to harness or control these energies.

Transverse Paraphysics: The New Science of Space, Time, and Gravity Control

Available at Amazon.com

This book covers the visionary research and theories developed by J.G. Gallimore about anti-gravity, space, time, and biophysics. He discusses in depth the dimensions of space, time, and gravity, and new discoveries in each of these areas. In addition, he covers research being done on anti-gravity and then discusses anti-gravity patents that have been obtained. He also discusses the intriguing concept of aura energy fields surrounding humans and other living things, and how extra-sensory perception (ESP) might be explained through biophysical principles.

Unified Field Theory Research Book: Using Subjective Response to Psi-Plasma for Analysis of Properties Neutral Charge Plasma Fields

by J.G. Gallimore

Product Dimensions: 8.5 x 0.3 x 11
inches

Available from Amazon.com

This book is about psychotronics, radionics, electromagnetic fields and waves, psi-plasma, plasma fields, subtle energies, bioelectromagnetic energy, and other unusual energies emitted by living and non-living things. It also is about how living things interact with and are affected by these energies, which may enhance health or harm health. The book covers the research of Wilhem Reich on orgone energy, of Baron Reichenback on the odic forces, as well as research done by Cazzamalli on brain radiations and Lakhovsky on using high frequency radiations to successfully treat cancer in humans. In addition, Lakhovsky used similar methods to enhance the growth of plants. Gallimore shows how these energies, forces, and fields are all inter-related and provides hypotheses and ideas on their possible unification.
