USPA Masterclass # 33

What really happens when we die? Is there a light at the end of the tunnel? A surprising number of people have died and lived to tell the tale -4 to 5 percent of the global population have had a near-death experience.

PMH will cover the Types, Phases, Traits and Physiological effects. Also discussing of Colloidal conditions as well as NDE for very young children. Q/A will follow her presentation.

PMH Atwater has been researching Near Death Experiences for 43 years. Atwater was born in Twin Falls, Idaho, and "died" in Boise, Idaho.

PMH, author of The Big Book of Near-Death Experiences has lived through the trauma three times to be exact.

Since those experiences, she has traveled, studied, spoken and written about what happened to her and others when they died.

Considered an authority on death, near death, and the afterlife, Atwater's book gives details and deep insights into what really happens when you die, and live to tell about it and what it truly means. She also explores such mysteries as heaven and hell, the soul's existence after death and the power of prayer. She delves into the truths and myths about death that may shed new light on the real truth about life and living.

9-17-2022 USPA Masterclass # 33: PMH Atwater “What really happens after we die?”

This Masterclass will focus on the question: What really happens when we die? Is there a light at the end of the tunnel? A surprising number of people have died and lived to tell the tale—an estimated 15 million Americans and 4 to 5 percent of the global population have had a near-death experience.

The Big Book of Near-Death Experiences is the encyclopedia of this phenomenon, including crucial research regarding the experience, its aftereffects, and the implications for all of us who someday will shed this mortal coil. This book explores the possibility of the soul, God, other worlds, heaven and hell, the afterlife, religion, and the purpose of life.

It investigates and reports on the power of changed lives, the expansion of normal faculties, and the importance of spirituality. With drawings, cartoons, and sidebars from experts, "The Big Book of Near-Death Experiences" is also simple and accessible, designed for the busy reader who wants quick little nuggets of wisdom. If you want to know what lies ahead, this book gives you a road map while exploring and affirming the presence of a spirit and the ultimate power of love.

P.M.H. Atwater was born in Twin Falls, Idaho, and “died” in Boise, Idaho. Yes, the author of this book died- three times to be exact. Since those experiences, she has traveled, studied, spoken and written about what happened to her and others when they died.

Considered an authority on death, near death, and the afterlife, Atwater has written a book that gives details and deep insights into what really happens when you die and what it truly means. She also explores such mysteries as heaven and hell, the souls’ existence after death, the power of prayer, and delves into the truths and myths about death that may shed new light on the real truth about life and living.

Masterclass # 32 with Jerry Gin

Focused on: Science and Subtle Energies – A Path to I AM and Introducing a New Powerful Subtle Vibrational Energy. Gin said, “Subtle vibrational energies are ubiquitous. As with the electromagnetic spectrum which can be characterized using wavelengths, there is a subtle vibrational energy spectrum which can be characterized by wavelength as detected by resonance. The science of detection and measurement is reproducible. Detection is dependent on the observer

In this presentation, we learned about these subtle vibrational energies, how to detect and measure them and how our thoughts interact with them.

Jerry Gin spent more than 50 years in the pharmaceutical, diagnostic, laboratory medicine, and biotechnology industries (founded ChemTrak, Oculex Pharmaceuticals, Livionex, Nuvora, and Visionex). Al's Alternative Energy Reading Corner

Al's Alternative Energy Reading Corner

Hi Readers,

Here is the new website for my team's company. <https://energybat.com/>

We have several projects that need investors. All designs are complete. All prototypes are tested.

1. Pull-Out Tool Box

Imagine a tool box for your pickup truck bed that simply pulls out and legs and wheels drop down. You can leave it at the job site and roll it around freeing up the truck for other jobs. When you are done you roll it back into the truck bed and go home.

2. Magnetic energy battery charger.

After decades of research by many people, this charges any battery type twice as fast and is more efficient than anything on the market. It also automatically desulfates lead-acid batteries.

3. Plasma Reactor Engine

Imagine a internal combustion engine (gas or diesel) that can run on mostly water and emits zero pollution. We have a prototype built ready to show qualified investors. This is the solution to our environmental issues. Electric vehicles with exploding toxic lithium batteries will never solve anything. There are not enough coal and nuclear power plants to charge all those vehicles.

Remember a vehicle takes up to 10x more electrical energy than your average home.

And last – for today; here is a link to a science show with various topics including Torsion fields:

Beverly Rubik, PhD will be speaking at Several Conferences!

She is speaking at the IAACN (International & American Associations of Clinical Nutritionists) Symposium held on September 15-17, 2022 at the Renaissance Hotel, 15201 Dallas Parkway, Addison, TX 75001.

Beverly Rubik, a USPA board member, is listed as the first speaker and her topic is “Adverse Effects of Novel Viral Gene-Based Vaccines and How Radiation from Wireless Devices May Exacerbate Them.”

Her lecture is based on the COVID vaccines, their constituents, their toxic effects, and how these toxic effects are exacerbated by exposure to wireless communication radiation (4G, 5G). For more information, click on their website, here: <https://iaacn.org/2022-scientific-symposium/>

She is also speaking at two other conferences this fall.

The first, Trinity Health Freedom Expo is held in Tinley Park, Illinois, from October 15-16th. The website is <https://trinityhealthfreedomexpo.com/> They also host a Virtual Expo next February. Her topic is “Wireless Communication Radiation: Health Impacts and Practical Solutions.” The Site says “The Trinity Health Freedom Expo is more than a convention. We are a team that works year-round to defend your right to know and freedom to choose what's best for you and your family's well-being. We provide the platform for individuals to come together to learn from natural health experts and health freedom advocates."

The second one is the Weston A. Price Foundation's 22nd annual conference, held in Knoxville, Tennessee, October 21–23, 2022. The website is <https://www.wisetraditions.org/>. Again, she is speaking on 5G and wireless health hazards.

This annual conference features holistic health and wellness issues, as well as health freedom. They offer many reasons to attend:

- You'll learn how to stay healthy in a toxic world
- Get clarity on which foods will truly nourish you and your family
- Explore solutions to your health concerns
- Be inspired by ancestral dietary wisdom
- Be a part of a vibrant, growing community
- Enjoy delicious, traditionally-prepared meals

Dan Taylor offers info on The Inner Evolution Summit from the Tiller Foundation: NOW – SEPT 15th

"Our Director of Research, Dr. Cindy Reed, is speaking at the FREE internet summit "Inner Evolution," sponsored by the Germany-based Mathias Berner Academy, ONLINE September 15 - 25, 2022

For the first time in years you can learn about Dr. William Tiller's Psychoenergetic Science model and what The Tiller Foundation is doing to fulfill his vision of using his proprietary technology to benefit humanity and raise consciousness on the planet.

Dr. Reed first met Dr. Tiller when as a graduate PhD student. She became the first to use Dr. Tiller's' Intention Science technology with humans, significantly decreasing depression and anxiety. That study was the beginning of the many remarkable intention science studies. Find out more.

The invitation to the Inner Evolution Summit and the link to your FREE registration are below.

A new era is dawning! Humanity, self-responsibility and our individual potential development will become more widespread. Meditation, spirituality and modern science will change humanity like never before.

Mathias Berner has once again put together a very special online congress. The FREE Inner Evolution Summit takes place from 09/15/2022 to 09/25/2022. Nearly 50 world-renowned specialists and inspiring people from the fields of science, spirit, consciousness and healing will share their extensive knowledge with you!

We are looking forward to a congress that will offer solutions in these turbulent times. Solutions that are due now to make a mark.

The world is at a stage where we can reapply ancient knowledge in the light of science. Healing that includes the human being and the soul will make a health industry superfluous that puts profit before the interests of the people. Thinking in the categories of "good and evil" is outdated and just shows us its helplessness.

After this congress you will know what you can do now for yourself and your fellow humans. You will get a vision of why we as humanity are standing here right now and what opportunity is being revealed.

Attending this congress will be of great help and enrichment to you, your colleagues, friends and patients. There is also exciting and helpful bonus material such as studies, exercises and meditation instructions, entire interviews are summarized in writing, and much more.

Daniel Taylor offers an article -What if consciousness is not an emergent property of the brain?

This is from the website: <https://www.frontiersin.org/>

There are Observational and empirical challenges to materialistic models. The nature of consciousness is considered one of science's most perplexing and persistent mysteries. We all know the subjective experience of consciousness, but where does it arise? What is its purpose? What are its full capacities?

The assumption within today's neuroscience is that all aspects of consciousness arise solely from interactions among neurons in the brain. However, the origin and mechanisms of qualia (i.e., subjective or phenomenological experience) are not understood. David Chalmers coined the term "the hard problem" to describe the difficulties in elucidating the origins of subjectivity from the point of view of reductive materialism. We propose that the hard problem arises because one or more assumptions within a materialistic worldview are either wrong or incomplete.

If consciousness entails more than the activity of neurons, then we can contemplate new ways of thinking about the hard problem. This review examines phenomena that apparently contradict the notion that consciousness is exclusively dependent on brain activity, including phenomena where consciousness appears to extend beyond the physical brain and body in both space and time.

The mechanisms underlying these "non-local" properties are vaguely suggestive of quantum entanglement in physics, but how such effects might manifest remains highly speculative. The existence of these non-local effects appears to support the proposal that post-materialistic models of consciousness may be required to break the conceptual impasse presented by the hard problem of consciousness.

What is consciousness?

The term "consciousness" means different things to different audiences. From a lay perspective, the fact of consciousness (here meaning awareness) is so self-evident that the only question that may arise is why anyone would consider consciousness to be mysterious in the first place, akin to asking a fish, "What is water?"

From a scientific perspective, the unsolved mystery is how consciousness emerges from brain activity. How does a three-pound lump of tissue inside the skull give rise to a mind that is self-aware and enjoys subjective experience?

In philosophy, which has debated the "mind-body problem" for millennia, many sets of assumptions have been proposed, ranging from materialism (i.e., all is dependent on or reducible to the physical) to idealism (i.e., ideas or thoughts make up fundamental reality). For mystics and others entranced by the esoteric traditions, the problem is not so much about the mind but how the physical world emerges from a non-physical "substance."

Over the past few decades, most scientifically oriented research on consciousness has studied consciousness as a controlled variable. They have reduced consciousness to simpler constructs, such as perception, and focused on comparisons in brain processes during conscious and unconscious conditions, the so-called "contrastive approach."

In this approach, differences in brain activity are examined when the same stimulus is subjectively perceived versus when it is not (Baars, 2005).

Several scientific theories of consciousness are primed to be tested experimentally instead of merely identifying correlations between conscious/unconscious events and brain activity. In the sections below, we briefly summarize the main neuroscience theories, referred to as physicalist or reductionist theories, most of which assume that consciousness emerges from the brain. While most physicalist theories aim to explain different aspects of consciousness, they often share similarities and have been recently grouped into four categories: higher-order theories (HOTs), global work-space theories (GWTs), integrated information theory (IIT), and re-entry and predictive processing theories

(Seth and Bayne, 2022). Here, we follow this categorization and present a brief summary. However, a full review of each theory is beyond this article's scope (see Seth and Bayne, 2022, for a full review).

From Andrew Michrowski: Mark Seifer announces his new book, Tesla, Wizard at War (July 2021)

I'm happy to announce that my new book TESLA: WIZARD AT WAR: The Genius, The Particle Beam Weapon & The Pursuit of Power is out now as an audio download from Tantor Media (June 29). The reader is the inimitable Simon Vance. As many of you know, my Tesla biography entitled WIZARD set a new standard for understanding this rare genius. One key to the success of that book was to create a comprehensive timeline so that we could find out what Tesla was doing literally every year of his adult life.

My research, however, continued, and I found to my astonishment that Tesla was not some old man withering away at the Hotel New Yorker during his final years. No, what he was doing was doing his level best to protect the Allies from a Nazi invasion by inventing a particle beam weapon that he claimed would generate a shield that would prevent an invasion by air or sea. After obtaining recently declassified documents from the Soviet Union, the USA and various Tesla archives I have been able to establish that Tesla was negotiating with the very height of power at this time in the run up to and during WWII, including Joseph Stalin himself who ok'd the purchase of Tesla's death ray secrets, General McNaughton, head of secret weapons development for Canada and thus the British Empire (third in line to head up Allied command behind Mountbatten and Eisenhower) and Franklin Roosevelt himself who tried to meet with Tesla shortly before he died.

There is of course a lot more to this book including Tesla's connections to Louis Comfort Tiffany, William Randolph Hearst, Daisy Maud Gordon, Theodore Dreiser (author of the novel An American Tragedy which was morphed into the movie A Star is Born) and many others. Suffice it to say that TESLA: WIZARD AT WAR enlarges greatly our understanding of this rare electrical genius. To preorder the audio download or purchase the physical audio book which will be out in July: M.S.

From: Toby Grotz – A Review of TESLA Wizard at War, by Marc J. Seifer

In his second book about Tesla, Marc Seifer once again breaks through the legend, the enigma, and the life and times of a man who brought more technical innovation to humanity than any other in history. This book is a treasure trove of never before published details about Tesla's invention and his personal relationships with the celebrities, scientists and business moguls of the early twentieth century.

Marc's detailed search of archived letters, correspondence, documents and new documents released under Freedom of Information Act requests has resulted in a detailed account of Nikola Tesla's involvement with scientists, diplomats and businessmen during the First World War and leading up to the Second World War. From what Tesla said, quoted in an article published in the New York Times on December 8th, 1915, it appears that he had invented a particle beam weapon. Tesla announced his particle beam weapon in 1934, three years after he made the cover of TIME magazine celebrating his 75th birthday.

The details of the design were sold to the Russians shortly thereafter. How it worked and what became of the technology is detailed in WIZARD at War. Included for experimenters, engineers and scientists are details not only of the particle beam weapon but of the design of the Wardenclyffe wireless power transmission installation. The intended patent application and drawings for the particle beam weapon were first published in 1984 in the proceedings of the Tesla Centennial Symposium held in Colorado Springs, CO, an event I co-hosted with the physicist Elizabeth Rauscher. In fact, it was at that time that I first met Marc who spoke at the conference.

In a major contribution to the study of gravity there is a chapter devoted to Tesla's Dynamic Theory of Gravity and the necessity of including the aether in any attempt at understanding gravity and the origin of matter. Well known scientists such as Sir Oliver Lodge, J.J. Thompson, Lord Kelvin and Einstein all recognized the need for aether in order to explain the physical phenomenon of inertia and gravity.

Tesla spoke of his theory in 1937 in a prepared statement to the press prior to interviews on his 81st birthday. The prepared statement from 1937 is presented in Tesla Said, published in 1984 by John T. Ratzlaff of the Tesla Book Company. On May 12th, 1938 he spoke again about his gravity theory to The Institute of Immigrant Welfare. In 1951 the US Government Library of Congress acknowledged it had "research studies by Dr. Nikola Tesla...on gravity..." This theory closely resembles the theory of gravity and the aether worked out by Paramahansa Tewari described here: <https://vimeo.com/manage/videos/161261940> and here: <https://vimeo.com/manage/videos/161180836>. Tewari's work resulted in a reactionless generator demonstrated here: <https://vimeo.com/190251670>.

TESLA Wizard at War is essential reading for anyone interested in the life and times of Nikola Tesla and an important follow up to Marc's 1997 book, Wizard, The Life and Times of Nikola Tesla, Biography of a Genius.

Swami Vivekananda, from whom Tesla learned the Sanskrit words from the ancient Vedic texts of India that describe the origins of matter, said "in Tesla's electrical discharges I even felt the presence of Brahma himself."

Samuel Cohen, writing in the Electrical Experimenter in July, 1915, described Tesla as "...one of the world's most distinguished scientists of whom it has rightly been said, 'He lives a hundred years ahead of his time.'"

Toby Grotz Shared "Bruce DePalma – Free Energy and the N Machine" (1935-1997)

The full publication is now available in our USPA online Library, at <https://www.psychotronics.org/pub/lib/depalma-free-energy-and-the-n-machine-2003.pdf>

Some Background from the website <https://brucedepalma.com/>:

Bruce DePalma graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1954. Over the next 40 years he would conduct series of experiments which would lead to earthshaking implications regarding principals of rotating masses. This website and media presented herein is dedicated to his series of experiments and his life's work.

Earlier observations laid the foundation to rediscover Michael Faraday's idea of rotating a magnet and extracting the electricity from the conductor and magnet connected together. A Homopolar design. It was DePalma's belief that this configuration would produce efficiencies greater than 100% which would mean producing more energy out-put than the energy required to rotate the device.

Clearly at odds with established physical laws, his work has been ignored by the traditional scientific community.

Three Essential DePalma Truths:

In the three-decades following Bruce DePalma's ex-communication from the orthodox priesthood of science, he demonstrated three essential truths:

1. Gravitation and Inertia are not equivalent. Contrary to Einstein's assumption, rotation alters both gravitation and inertia, making them both variable under its influence.
2. There exists a generally unrecognized 'mass field' of polarized inertia around a real rotating object. This field affects the properties of matter, energy and living systems exposed to it.
3. A rotating magnetized gyroscope (homo-polar generator) does not conform to the Law of Conservation of Energy.

After a lifetime of resistance to these emerging new energy concepts in the United States, DePalma finally sought a more favorable climate for his experimental and theoretical pursuits. He found support and acceptance in New Zealand, ultimately becoming a permanent resident.

During the last five-years of his life, DePalma would build three separate prototypes with the assistance of New Zealand and Australian investors. The second unit was calorimetrically tested by University of Auckland faculty and shown to produce 1.25 watts for every 1-watt of input power.

The question of where the one-piece Faraday Disc (N-machine/Space Power Generator) derives its energy remains unanswered by mainstream science. Since there is no relative motion between magnet and conductor, it is believed that only space itself can be the medium from which its power is precipitated.

Indeed, the Free Energy paradigm rests on the reality of space as a dynamic medium, wherein all potentials are isotropically (uniformly) distributed. When rotation is coupled (superposed) with a magnetic field, the combined effect is a potent distortion of space sufficient to cause electrons to 'pop' into existence within an N-machine's conductors. Quantum Theory now admits that particles are being created and destroyed all the time, moving in and out of existence at random. This is referred to as Zero Point Energy fluctuations, and is now accepted to be a viable explanation for what we observe in several Free Energy technologies. A Special Report by Toby Grotz How we published highly classified, never before seen, information in the 1984 proceedings.

The Tesla ‘Death Ray’ papers were handed to me by Andrija Puharich in August of 1984 when he arrived for the 1984 Tesla Centennial Symposium in Colorado springs, Colorado. He immediately told me that these papers had been copied from microfiche. The Symposium was described in the New York Times on August 28, 1984, pg. C1, in an article titled Tesla, a Bizarre Genius, Retains Aura of Greatness.

Anrija Puharich was an MD, researcher and inventor whose conference paper was Method and Means for Shielding a Person from the Polluting Effects of Extremely Low Frequency (ELF) Magnetic Waves and all other Environmental Electromagnetic Emissions.

<https://universe-inside-you.com/nikola-teslas-death-ray/>

For many years, since the first mention of the Death Ray by Tesla, there had been no corroboration that such a device existed or had been designed. Puharich had handed me what looked like a US Patent Application detailing the design of a high voltage power supply connected to an open ended vacuum tube, out of which was to be propelled ionized tungsten particles.

As Symposium Chairs and editors of the Symposium Proceedings, Dr. Elizabeth Rauscher and I were torn between publishing what looked like Tesla’s patent application without verification, or leaving it out of the proceedings. As we read and re-read the application, both Dr. Rauscher and I, who had read many of Tesla’s patents, concluded that the style and word usage was so unique to Tesla, that it must have be the real thing.

At the time, 1984, I was working in an environmental test facility at an aerospace company that had a solar simulator and vacuum chamber of man rated space craft tasing. I took the Death Ray papers to the vacuum engineer who sat a couple of drafting tables away from me and said “Dick, for you think an open ended vacuum tube as described in these papers is possible for the intended application”? Dick cranked the numbers and came back with a “yes”.

During my employment in aerospace, ARPA, the Advanced Research Projects Agency, on a yearly basis, would solicit ideas for development. I decided to fill out the multipage form with the concepts outlined in the Death Ray patent application papers and attached the drawings. Our lab submitted the form and I waited to hear back from the agency. After months with no response I got on the phone and called up the chain of command to find out the status of my submission and if there was any interest. The voice on the phone reported “We think it’s very interesting.” I never heard another word.

The origin of the Death Ray papers was in all probably Ralph Bergstressor. Ralph was an electrical engineer who after college went to work for David Sarnoff of RCA Laboratories. When WW II broke out, Ralph enlisted as a Captain in the Army. When Tesla offered all his inventions and research to the War Department, Ralph was tasked with the review of Tesla's papers. During this time Ralph had access to all of the Tesla papers and it was then and there that he saw the Death Ray papers. I visited Ralph at his home in Scottsdale, AZ, circa 1988. Ralph told me that he would go to Tesla's hotel room on Sunday afternoon and go through the papers. Later in the 1950's Ralph worked briefly with T. Henry Moray at an electronics company.

Ralph was very interested in the effects of what might be termed psychic energy and energy medicine or vibrational healing. When I met him he had been making and selling anodized aluminum purple energy plates. Because of his interest in psychic phenomenon and vibrational healing he had met numerous researchers and practitioners in the 1950's and 1960's. It was probably during this time that he met Dr. Robert "Bob" Beck. I have surmised but never had direct confirmation, that it was Bob Beck who passed on copies of the Death Ray papers to Andrija Puharich.

Subsequent to Tesla's death, it appears the Death Ray was built and tested. Below is the timeline as I described it in Development Of A Particle Beam Weapon Based On Nikola Tesla's Design Of 1937, Proceedings of the 26th Intersociety Energy Conversion Engineering Conference, Boston, MA, Vol. 4, pp 410-415. This paper published in the proceedings of an established, professional society conference would not have been made possible without the help of Patrick Bailey who organized the Advanced Energy section of the conference. The list of papers presented in Boston in 1991 and San Diego 1992 at the IECEC conferences can be found here at the link above.

US Government interest in the particle beam weapon designed by Nikola Tesla is well documented in a number of declassified documents obtained under FOIA requests. The documents begin two days after Tesla's death in New York City on January 7th, 1943. A memorandum written by special agent Fred B. Cornels reports that the "government was vitally interested in the effects of TESLA, particularly those dealing with the wireless transmission of electrical energy and the "death ray", and for agents in doing all they "could to preserve them". [1] The memo also reported that an electrical engineer named Bloyce Fitzgerald "had become a confidant of TESLA and he knew that TESLA had and was carrying on extensive experiments for transmitting electrical power by wireless and with propelling electrical rays possessing sufficient power to destroy im plem ents of w ar fare such as airplanes and submarines". Fitzgerald also stated that the "so called death ray would be a deadly weapon in the hands of any power". Fitzgerald at that time was a design engineer with the Ordinance Department of the U.S. Army, both in Washington D.C. and in New York City.

Several days later, in a memo for the Director of the FBI, John Edgar Hoover, agent D.M. Ladd suggested arresting Tesla's nephew, Sava Kosonovich, on a trumped up burglary charge in order to obtain the papers reported to have been taken from Tesla's safe shortly after his death.[2]

Two years later, E.E. Conroy, SAC, in a letter to the Director of the FBI, reported again on the activities of Fitzgerald, Kosonovich, and Tesla. This memo describes Fitzgerald as a director of research at Wright Field in Dayton Ohio. It was reported that "Fitzgerald is presently working on the perfection of. TESLA'S "death ray" which in Fitzgerald's opinion is the only possible defense against offensive use by another nation of the Atomic Bomb. The memo also states that it had been determined that the effects of Tesla were being stored in the Manhattan Storage Warehouse in New York City.[3]

Two days later L.C. Cragie, Brigadier General, Chief, Engineering Division, in a letter to the FBI, requested that "in the interest of National Defense, access be given to the effects of Dr. Nicola Tesla held in the Manhattan warehouse...It is understood that Dr. Tesla was well versed in the particular field of investigation under study by the Army Air Forces, and it is believed that the data from his estate may assist us further". [4]

The last memo in this series of declassified documents, from the New York Office to the Director of the FBI is an unsigned report dated April 17th, 1950. The memo details an interview agents of the New York Office had with J.V. Potts, Vice President of the Manhattan Warehouse and Storage company. Mr Potts revealed that on only one occasion on January 26 and 27, 1943, representatives of the Alien Property Custodian made a thorough review of the entire effects of the TESLA estate. Mr. Michael King, floor supervisor during that time added that "at that time numerous photographs were taken by the examiners. His description of the equipment used would tend to show that a microfilm reproduction was made of some of the papers of the deceased scientist. Mr. King added that several of the group making the examination wore U.S. Navy uniforms, and during the two days required to complete the examination the civilian assistants in the group were identified to him only as "FEDERAL AUTHORITIES".[5]

Were the Death Ray Papers Real?

Subsequent to the publication of the proceedings of the 1984 Tesla Centennial Symposium, circa 1987, I received a note from Leland Anderson, one of earliest and most prolific investigators of Tesla's life and work. Enclosed with the note was a copy of the patent application drawings with the stamp of the Nikola Tesla Museum on each page. Lee had received these copies which, he was told, had been smuggled out of the Museum. For numerous reasons, including the Cold War between the United States and Russia, the Nikola Tesla Museum, during those days, had been very tight lipped and not cooperative with western researchers. Indeed, due to the exact match between what we had published, and the copies sent to us by Lee Anderson, one longtime researcher of Tesla, suspects that the drawings from the Nikola Tesla Museum originated from the Proceedings of the 1984 Tesla Centennial Symposium [6].

My conclusion, based on the history presented above and the work of Marc Seifer, author Wizard, the Life and Times of Nikola Tesla, Biography of a Genius, is that the papers were from the Tesla archives and that the invention has been tested and that particle beam weapons are real and currently in orbit.

The Radionic Association in England is offering an Online Course: Introduction to Radionics
Click the following link for information and registration: A PRACTICAL FIVE WEEK ZOOM COURSE Mondays 19 & 26 September And 3, 10, & 17 October 2022 7 – 8.30 Pm
Extra Dowsing Session on 12 Sept 2022

ONLINE INTRODUCTION TO RADIONICS

A PRACTICAL FIVE WEEK COURSE MONDAYS 19 & 26 Sept and 3, 10 & 17 October 2022

Discover radionics' unique approach to improving health. This course is designed to enable everyone to help their family and friends and also to give practitioners in other therapies useful tools to obtain a more in-depth approach to their work.

YOU WILL LEARN:

- The important role of our subtle bodies in health
- How to ground and protect yourself
- The powerhouse of chakras & the endocrine system
- How to complete an in-depth analysis
- Frequent causes of illness and how to ease them
- Basic treatments to improve health with rates, and using Bach Flower remedies and colour

Note: It is essential to be able to dowse before starting this course.

ADDITIONAL DOWSING TUTORIAL ON 12 SEPTEMBER

Contact: The Radionic Association

Tel: 01869 338852

email: secretary@radionic.co.uk

5-week course:
incl. manual &
small instrument
£400
Dowsing tutorial:
£50

The five week course will be led by tutors of the School of Radionics and is equally important for those who would like to be able to help their family and friends and therapists from other modalities who wish to have a better understanding of their clients.

Each session will consist of a practical tutorial of about one hour followed by 30 minutes of Q&A. On completion of the six weeks you will have sufficient information to carry out a basic analysis and to give simple treatments to support health and wellbeing. It is necessary to be proficient at dowsing before commencing the course as this is the basis of radionic work. If you have any doubts about your ability please attend the dowsing session on Monday 12 September. All are recorded.

After confirmation of your booking on the course you will be emailed a detailed pdf manual to guide you through the sessions. You will receive a small DT10 instrument on which to broadcast your treatments and a pack of colour gels. You will need to buy a pendulum and to have a timer.

Seeking Millionaire Sponsor

USPA is beginning a search for a lifetime patron of the organization, one who will help establish a small permanent library site. USPA has thousands of books in storage, currently under the care of John Reed.

He has scanned many of them to PDF to guard against the loss of their information, but in the interest of guarding the digital information against loss, a permanent safe place is needed for the physical books and materials.

This would require the gift of a small building, and the funding of a stipend for a part time secretary as well as utilities and upkeep of the building. It is a big dream, but somewhere there must be someone who can help! Contact Scott at uspsychotronics@yahoo.com

Six Ways Yoga and Meditation Benefits Businesses by Roger V. Schmitt

The traditional business office is somewhat a dying way of work. Business owners and managers are turning to a more progressive way of approaching productivity, and yoga and meditation have proven to be excellent resources for employers and employees.

1. You Can Focus Better

Yoga and meditation can boost your focus and concentration abilities. For example, yoga poses get the blood flowing to your brain and increase your cognitive ability. When you reach the level where you can do a handstand, you'll find that you can focus better afterward. Meditation helps you practice mindfulness so that your mind wanders less. It teaches you to discipline your brain to let go of thoughts that slow you down rather than allowing them to control you throughout the day.

2. Improves Mood and Mental Clarity

The postures you use in yoga are actual forms of meditation. Many promote the release of tension and emotional stress building up in the body, much like a massage during a spa treatment. Tension tends to settle in the muscles and create pain and aches. Pain negatively affects your mood and distracts you from positive thoughts. Meditating through yoga will also teach you breathing exercises that promote mental clarity and relax the mind.

3. Teaches You Discipline

Meditation requires discipline, especially for those that struggle to focus. It can take time to train your mind to clear and your body to relax, especially, when you are accustomed to going 100 miles per hour on a daily basis. The ability to slow your mind down will develop over time. The greatest benefit of learning self-discipline is the confidence you accrue along with it. The more you are able to control your emotions and feel in tune with your body and its needs, the better your overall well-being becomes.

Of course, what you do with this newfound discipline is up to you! This could be the perfect time to learn a new skill or go back to school. Otherwise, you could start your own business!

4. Helps You Manage Stress

Even the simplest of yoga poses encourage mental and physical relaxation. Relaxing decreases cortisol production, which then reduces stress and anxiety. Research shows that the best way to take advantage of the stress-reducing benefits of yoga and meditation is to listen to your body, forget about trying to get it right, and concentrate on your breathing technique. Yoga is less about perfect form and more about how you feel doing it.

5. Boosts Creativity

The core of creativity is trusting yourself. The meditation you can experience during yoga allows you to get past your fear of expressing yourself physically and learn to trust yourself. Nothing hinders creativity as well as fear. When you can train your mind to ignore your inner critic, you open yourself to a world of creative thoughts. If you can create a team of workers with the confidence to express themselves, you'll be an unstoppable innovative machine.

6. Can Help With Physical Ailments

Yoga can help reduce physical pain and create an overall stronger body. For example, the stretching component of yoga is great for easing back pain. It can increase mobility and ease arthritis symptoms. Additionally, the decrease in inflammation all over the body promotes a healthier heart.

Learning to be more mindful of your mental state is a powerful resource for you and your employees. The benefits of yoga and meditation are vast. However, it may not be for everyone. Talk to your employees about their experiences and if there are any other health-conscious components you could implement into office culture.

Section VIII – Come to the Website – Visit the Ever-changing USPA Library

The new USPA Library tab is the place to go for Newsletters, (new and old), donations of articles, PowerPoint presentations by our Masterclass Speakers, The Toby Grots Collection, pdf lists of audio and videos available in the store, and much more.

The Library Lion: John Reed

The backbone of this work is John Reed, USPA's Master Librarian, (former Newsletter Editor and Current Board Member.) John is adding out of print, open copyright books to the library for anyone to download.

From John Reed: About the Journal PSI Research

I want to let everyone know, that I have digitized and donated to the USPA library, a complete set of physical copies of the journal, PSI Research, the journal in which Russell Targ's report was published.

PSI Research was edited by my friend Larissa Vilenskaya, a Russian researcher, who was translating and publishing large amounts of research on psychotronics conducted by Russian and Eastern European researchers.

That is why the CIA, DIA, and others were so interested in PSI Research, and why they had the article that Daniel sent in its files.

Unfortunately, some people did not like what Larissa was doing, and she was killed in 2001 by "accidentally" falling in front of an oncoming train. However, many people believe that the fall was assisted by a push, just as the train was arriving.

By the way, Larissa attended the USPA-IAPR joint meeting in Milwaukee in 1993.

Best wishes to all.

John

Section IX - USPA Publications: Proceedings and Journals are Digitized and in the Shop!!

Quick Background of our Proceedings Evolution

Since its first meeting in 1975, hundreds of top scientists, educators and researchers have made presentations at USPAs annual conferences. They are from the leading edges of their fields, especially regarding the phenomena of Mind-Body connection, energy and emerging technologies. The first audio recordings were made in 1978.

Then, in 1985, USPA produced a perfect-bound Proceedings book for its tenth conference. The proceedings went through quite an evolution, much like our audio and video presentations. In 2010 they went through a “final” stage and the proceedings are now produced as pdf documents.

6 USPA Journals and 18 out of 19 Proceedings are now available for purchase.

The 6 USPA Journals and 18 of our 19 Annual Proceedings can be purchased in pdf format from our webstore at: <https://www.psychotronics.org/product-category/uspa-publications-journals-proceedings/>

All USPA publications are copyright protected and are property of the USPA. They may not be reprinted without permission of the Board of USPA.

Section XI - What Are Others Up To? They are wondering What YOU want to do!

USPA sent out a survey July 24th asking about everyone’s preferences regarding an in-person conference. We can’t publish the results of the survey just yet. As of this newsletter printing, out of 2,458 that we sent the survey to, only 57 people actually answered it!

Please, check your inbox, trash or spambox for the USPA July 24th email with subject line “We’d Love Your Feedback.” It is only 15 multiple choice questions. It would take you less than five minutes to respond.

We really need to know if people are interested in coming to an in-person conference. It takes massive amounts of time and LOTS of money to present a conference. We can’t even think of doing it if we won’t have enough people who want to come.

Meantime, thanks and double thanks to those who have already responded!

Section XII - Editor’s Feedback Nook:

Good News. That’s what I want to Publish

PLEASE, tell me if you - or any other scientist, inventor, creator, theorist or windmill chaser you know - have had any great breakthroughs, even little breakthroughs.

Share lectures, honors, prizes, contest wins, trips taken or in the works. Let me know of recent collaborations, new laboratories, restored laboratories, books or articles published. Write a few sentences about a great conference you attended. Here’s the place where you can crow about your accomplishments or give praise for someone you think deserves the limelight. Giant Sinkhole in China Reveals Massive Ancient Forest

Chinese cave explorers have found a primeval forest filled with 130-foot tall ancient trees in China's Guangxi region. by Dan Heching May 20, 2022 12:54 AM

Cave explorers in the Guangxi region of China have found a secret ancient forest hidden inside a 630-foot-deep sinkhole.

As seen in a Twitter video posted by the China state-affiliated media organization CGTN earlier this month, the karst sinkhole — formed by rainwater that dissolves bedrock — exceeds 5 million cubic meters in area.

Inside, explorers found a primeval forest with ancient trees measuring 130 feet in height, Chinese outlet Xinhua News reported.

The outlet added that it took the expedition team several hours to reach the bottom of the sinkhole, after they rappelled down almost 330 feet. Team leader Chen Lixin told Xinhua that the plants they found at the bottom grew densely together, coming up to his shoulders.

The explorers referred to the sinkhole as "tiankeng" in Mandarin, or "heavenly pit," AccuWeather reported.

"I wouldn't be surprised to know that there are species found in these caves that have never been reported or described by science until now," George Veni, executive director of the National Cave and Karst Research Institute in New Mexico, told AccuWeather Wednesday.

"Because of local differences in geology, climate, and other factors, the way karst appears at the surface can be dramatically different," he added. "So in China, you have this incredibly visually spectacular karst with enormous sinkholes and giant cave entrances and so forth. In other parts of the world, you walk out on the karst, and you really don't notice anything. Sinkholes might be quite subdued, only a meter or two in diameter. Cave entrances might be very small, so you have to squeeze your way into them."

The Twitter video specified that the recent find brings China's number of this type of sinkholes to 30. It also mentioned that the newest sinkhole originated from an underground river system called Fugui, while the previous 29 came about from the Bailang underground river.

The country is also home to the world's largest sinkhole, known as the Xiaozhai Tiankeng in Chongqing's Tiankeng Difeng National Park.

What is USPA?

The United States Psychotronics Association (USPA) is a federally recognized, nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization founded in 1975 to serve as a focal point for scientific and technical exploration of the universe of esoteric, spiritual, and psychic arts in the United States of America.

The USPA has been hosting annual conferences for its membership since its formation and has featured countless individuals with cutting-edge viewpoints, research, or theories to share, allowing any interested persons to openly discuss their work.

What is Psychotronics?

USPA defines psychotronics as the science of mind-body-environment relationships, an interdisciplinary science concerned with the interactions of matter, energy, and consciousness.

Psychotronics involves the study, research, and applications of the physics and technology of the mind, brain, spirit, consciousness, and the underlying forces of life and nature – hence the term “psychotronics.” A true understanding of the universe must include the spiritual as well as the technical. USPA provides an opportunity for amateur researchers to present their findings along with the professionals. USPA stresses research, with documentation of results, and practical applications, rather than personal experience and unsupported hypotheses.

HONORING MY FATHER & MOTHER by Samm Simpson

HONORING MY FATHER & MOTHER

by Samm Simpson

ISBN 9781645508120

Sam began as a radio broadcaster in the 1970s. Television followed, along with seasons of political and social activism. She's written thousands of TV and radio scripts, produced and directed hundreds of TV and radio broadcasts and penned a bevy of unpublished short stories and poems. This is her first book. As a child, she was acquainted with a love for truth. She was acquainted with grief. Both polarities endured. Sam remains a child, working out her own salvation with fear and trembling

Samm Simpson says,

“On the thirty first day of the first pagan month in the year numbered 2019, my mother, Lila Lee Simpson, said goodbye to this bountiful Earth, a destiny awaiting all living beings. Her body shone luminous and the day was miraculous. I had the honor and privilege of being with her and laying her body to rest as it should be – intact, whole, no embalming, no cremation, no funeral industry chemicals, body plugs, wires, glues or make up. The story grew much larger than a simple descriptive narrative. It morphed into a tale of my idyllic childhood, seen through the lens of America's self-destruction and fall from grace.

You will read of miracles as well as be exposed to difficult or uncomfortable topics. At the time of this writing, they were not yet banned. You are under no obligation to believe what I've written. But, while a semblance of freedom to think independently still exists, I urge you to do your own research until books are burned and Big Tech fully sanitizes the internet.”

One reader commented: "I loved how it weaved an America that used to be, with miracles of an amazing death and burial, along with hard core truths that help explain the madness of today's culture.”

Another wrote: I would make this required reading for students. This book is about a different time, not so long ago in our society where we lived and played as family and neighbors. The title alone tells you what has long been forgotten, as so many don't even know who their parents are in this life. Those who do their parents are sons and daughters of the greatest generation. This is what broke our society. This is a book that demonstrates those who understand what has been lost, and how they chose to honor their parents in life as well as when they left our world.

This book will be cherished by all who read it, those who also honor their mother and father. Hopefully broken families will understand what it takes to break this cycle and will want to, after reading this book.

Personal Ads: If you have any “psychotronic related items” to sell, (books, radionic machines, etc.) we charge 20 cents per word, 20.00 per half page with supplied artwork or photos or 35.00 per whole page. Your paid ad will run in the next three issues of the newsletter.

If you would like to publicize an event for a non-profit organization, USPA will advertise for you up to 750 words free. We ask for mutual links to our website from yours.

If you would like to publicize a for-profit event, or a business USPA charges reasonable ad rates. Link to the ad rates is posted on our Donate page of the website, or CLICK HERE

Please Note: USPA is not responsible for the content or condition of items sold from this newsletter by any private person or company, nor does it back any treatment, modality or veracity of presentation. It does not back any claim of medical efficacy of machines or treatments. USPA cannot recommend specific radionic practitioners, or offer radionic treatments from its board of directors or officers.

Section XV – J.G. Gallimore’s Five Rare Books Are Now Available!

Jerry G. Gallimore was one of the founders of the USPA in 1975, and was a leading researcher in psychotronics and unusual energies until his untimely death in 1989.

All five of J.G. Gallimore’s rare books on psychotronics subjects and unusual energies have been reprinted by the United States Psychotronics Association (USPA) and are being made available at a fraction of the cost that used copies were being sold at online.

So rare have these books been, that only a few libraries in the entire world had them in their collections, and some original Gallimore’s books were being sold for several hundred dollars each online. However, with these newly reprinted volumes, each will be available for less than $30.00. All are:

The Handbook of Unusual Energies: Volume 1 of Handbook of Unusual Energies	ISBN-10: 1543024998 ISBN-13: 978-1543024999	The first book of three volumes on unusual energies	468 Pages
Gallimore discusses in depth the research, discoveries, and inventions of all the major researchers in subtle energies, the aether, biological 62 fields, pyramid energy, radiesthesia, radionics, crystal transduction, and related subjects. These include the works of Baron Von Reichenbach's and his odic energy, Dr. Wilhelm Reich's orgone energy, Dr. Harold Burr's biological life fields, Kozyrev's time mirror, Edgar Cayce's transmission of energy, and related research done by many others. Of particular importance is Gallimore's 127 page chapter on radionics. In this chapter he discusses in depth the research and devices of Ruth Drown, T. Galen Hieronymus, Rho Sigma, Dr. L. P. Corte and other prominent people in the radionics field.
Collected Properties & Writings of J. G. Gallimore: Volume 2	ISBN-10: 1543025048 ISBN-13: 978-1543025040	The second book of three volumes on unusual energies	258 Pages
This is the second book in the “Unusual Energies” series that J.G. Gallimore published. It covers Gallimore’s research on Albert Abrams, the founder of modern radionics, psychological physics, psychic energy, thought resonance, subtle energies, crystals, and related subjects. In addition, a number of radionics devices are discussed, such as the De La Warr Diagnostic Instrument. And very helpfully, the rates are provided for substances, body organs, and medical diseases and disorders. I very interesting interview of Christopher Bird, conducted by J.G. Gallimore is provided, as well as a discussion of Walter Russell and his research

Relationship Between Parapsychology and Gravity: Volume 3	ISBN-10: 1543024947 ISBN-13: 978-1543024944	The third book of three volumes on unusual energies	228 Pages
This book describes in depth the research and theories of J.G. Gallimore into the question of parapsychology transmission" -the question of how such things as telepathy, remote viewing, ESP, and similar phenomena can physically occur. He discusses the various emanations, radiations, and energy fields of all matter and life including the ancient Chinese energy called "chi" (qi), the ancient Indian's prana energy, Reichenback's "odic force," Gurwitsch's "mitogenic radiation," Wilhelm Reich's orgone energy, and other subtle energies. He shows how all of these energies are similar, how they interact, and how they are related to gravity. He also discusses crystals as transducers of these energies, and provides diagrams of devices that could potentially be used to harness or control these energies.
Transverse Paraphysics: The New Science of Space, Time, and Gravity Control	ISBN-10: 1543024920 ISBN-13: 978-1543024920		374 Pages
This book covers the visionary research and theories developed by J.G. Gallimore about anti-gravity, space, time, and biophysics. He discusses in depth the dimensions of space, time, and gravity, and new discoveries in each of these areas. In addition, he covers research being done on anti-gravity and then discusses anti-gravity patents that have been obtained. He also discusses the intriguing concept of aura energy fields surrounding humans and other living things, and how extra-sensory perception (ESP) might be explained through biophysical principles.
Unified Field Theory Research Book: Using Subjective Response to Psi-Plasma for Analysis of Properties Neutral Charge Plasma Fields	ISBN-10: 1543024831 ISBN-13: 978-1543024838		134 Pages
This book is about psychotronics, radionics, electromagnetic fields and waves, psi-plasma, plasma fields, subtle energies, bio-electromagnetic energy, and other unusual energies emitted by living and non-living things. It also is about how living things interact with and are affected by these energies, which may enhance health or harm health. The book covers the research of Wilhelm Reich on Orgone energy, of Baron Reichenback on the odic forces, as well as research done by Cazzamalli on brain radiations and Lakhovsky on using high frequency radiations to successfully treat cancer in humans. In addition, Lakhovsky used similar methods to enhance the growth of plants. Gallimore shows how these energies, forces, and fields are all inter-related and provides hypotheses and ideas on their possible unification.
