for more than four years!

Section I - What's Happening SOON:

Saturday, June 24, 2023, 1:00 pm CT Kathy Forti will present the 43rd Free USPA Masterclass, "Applying Mathematical Algorithms for Healing"

Kathy's Presentation: After experiencing a near death experience in 2003, clinical psychologist Kathy J. Forti, came back with a new-found knowledge of the mathematical coding encompassed within the cellular structure of the human body.

About Dr. Forti. She is a clinical psychologist with over 30 years of experience in the mental health field working with individuals and families from all cultures and backgrounds.
As a direct result of her near-death experience in 2003, Dr.
Forti brought back information which led to the development of the Trinfinity8 and Ascension11 energetic healing software systems.

May 24, 2023 1:00 pm. CT: Masterclass #43 Applying Mathematical Algorithms for Healing with Kathy Forti

Applying Mathematical Algorithms for Healing

After experiencing a near death experience in 2003, clinical psychologist Kathy J. Forti, came back with a new-found knowledge of the mathematical coding encompassed within the cellular structure of the human body.

Over a five-year period, she assembled this information into software-based technology which incorporates the science of fractals, mathematical algorithms, specific sound frequencies, and the use of quartz crystal rod transmission. Several research studies carried out by independent labs demonstrated positive healing benefits could be gained using this mode both in-person and remotely.

Liquid placenta research was also used, showing the use of such technology significantly heightened the DNA's electrical ability to repair itself. Dr. Forti claims this is just ancient technology re-packaged in a new format.

From Tom Valone on Steve Elswick and his upcoming Extraordinary Technology Conference:

Tom wrote, "Steve Elswick is like other one-man humanitarian dynamos that I know (Steve Bassett, Linda Moulton Howe, James Dunn, Norm Shealy, and the late Bill Tiller, Andrija Puharich, Paul LaViolette, Elizabeth Rauscher, Guy Obolensky, Bob Beck, etc.), who have given their all to educate as many as possible but generally gained no measurable revenue from their efforts.

Every year Steve Elswick performs a miracle, barely breaking even with his conference, living on social security. And yet, he manages to present another each year. This year's Extraordinary Technology conference is August 9-13th. I think you'd have a great time and learn a lot if you attend.

I'm in touch with Steve Elswick often and sometimes publish articles in his ExtraOrdinary Technology magazine. Right now, his conference of the same name is set for August and the conference booklet looks great with lots of speakers on good topics of interest to a wide range of people."

VI Books, Book, and more Books

PMH Atwater, One of USPA’s Favorite Speakers, Just Published Her Latest Book!

Soon to be available on Amazon, Edgewater, The Many Lives and Deaths of PMH Atwater, is heralded as “Brilliant,” by Mark Anthony, JD, author of evidence of eternity. Scott Taylor Ed. D., The President of Expanded Awareness Institute says, “Edge Walker led me on a fantastical journey that was agonizingly poignant and surprisingly joyful and uplifting.”

PMH has written fifteen other books, mostly dealing with near-death experiences. Her book cover says this:

“In her many books examining NDEs and other extraordinary phenomena, PMH Atwater has thus far only revealed bits and pieces about her own life. Now, in Edge Walker, she finally tells us the whole story. This book explores in great detail, her journey as a near-death experience or, prolific author, wife, mother, and spiritual human.

A courageous trailblazer, PMH has spent her entire life walking between worlds and trying to build bridges between them perhaps she sums it best in her own words: “I’ll be almost 86 when this book is published. I leave you my laughter and my life and my books and a host of questions still to be answered. No regrets. I did the best I could each step of the way.”

In 2008, Lloyd Mear and his wife, Phyllis, created the first edition of the energy balancing manual. It contained over 2,000 frequencies used to balance a person's energetic body. Since then, Lloyd has added nearly 4,000 new frequency combinations. Lloyd's original manual was made up of typed pages in a binder and had never been revised. As more energy balancing numbers were discovered, he added them to the back of the manual. Searching for the right number was challenging. But in 2014, Lloyd Mear's manual was completely updated and is now available for orders.

Some of the reviews EBBN has gotten are as follows:

"I have had clients use the numbers including Real Estate Agents for houses which are hard to sell with huge success.

Even the Postie won big time from the numbers I gave her. Spinal issues, clients have become much more resilient.

There is something about reciting the numbers the brain really resonates with. Even my husband likes this modality over many others as it is tangible for him. I find the numbers come up for many clients in the course of my work and always in a timely fashion. You need to try them to find out the magic of numbers. There is something in there for everyone."

~The Body Detective Alison Hoyte; z.hoyte@xtra.co.nz

"I have many success stories, from the everyday stuff to more deep rooted issues like my eczema. Lloyd's work has been an important part of my healing journey and I am forever grateful. Balancing By Numbers is a wonderful addition to my energy work." ~ Danielle Fischer Artful Alchemist, North Port, FL

I've been using the Energy Balancing by Numbers method quite successfully in my holistic practice for many years. The frequencies have helped my clients balance their bodies to overcome chronic conditions such as eczema, arthritis, Lyme disease, herpes, diabetic retinopathy, anxiety, depression, and much more.

The manual is easy to use and very well organized. The work of the late great Lloyd Mear lives on through his Balancing By Numbers manual. ~Paul Callahan, The Wellness

21st Century Radionics: New Frontiers in Vibrational Medicine by Nick Franks

SYNOPSIS September 2022: 21st Century Radionics: New Horizons in Vibrational Medicine 2nd edition. ISBN 978-0-9573111-2-1

The first edition was published in July 2012 after nearly four years of work. The second edition has many expansions of the text, rewrites of some chapters, general clarifications, and developments of themes. The general purport and ideas of the first edition remain intact, however, and the underlying concepts originally proposed have not changed in any significant aspect.

A general description of the book: Radionics is a sometimes-controversial therapeutic modality which combines Radiesthesia with the use of psychoactivated codes, symbols and instruments. This system supports and amplifies the practitioner's healing intention, allowing analysis and treatment at a distance; practitioner and patient may be on opposite sides of the planet. Beginning with the work of Dr. Albert Abrams (1863 - 1924), Radionics has developed such that it may be used to treat not only humans but also animals, crops and soils, and, potentially, the ecosphere itself. The basis is the contention that human consciousness can influence the action of Nature to positive effect.

21st Century Radionics, focusing on human Radionics, serves two purposes. The first is to give an outline of the concepts, methods and techniques used in Radionic practice. This includes an overview of dowsing and the Radiesthetic sense; an extended model of the human Subtle Anatomy - the complex of energy and information fields which underlie the physical body; a description of the wide range of stressors that may compromise this field and produce illness; and techniques which might be used to normalise disturbed fields - in short, techniques of analysis and treatment. Techniques for making Radionic codes and Rates are discussed, as is the important area of remedy synthesis - the encoding of vibrational remedies such as homoeopathics into carrier materials such as water or sac lac.

The second purpose is the attempt to address the central question 'how could it possibly work?' To answer the author combines insights from thinkers such as Jung, Maslow, Bohm and Sheldrake with ideas drawn from Quantum Mechanics and other areas of present-day science. The attempt to answer this question suggests a rethink of fundamental ideas about man, Nature, and the origins of what we perceive to be reality. In response to critiques of Radionics which claim it is some form of magic or chicanery, the author proposes that its techniques arise from the inner structure of Nature itself, supporting the contention of Richard Gerber M.D. that 'Radionics is certainly the strangest of all vibrational-medicine approaches, but is one that may ultimately teach us the most about the vibrational nature of healing and human consciousness itself.'

The book is available from Nick directly (nick.franks@radionics.co.uk) and the usual distribution outlets such as Amazon. In the USA it is available through www.aethereahealth.com

21st Century Radionics is divided into 16 Chapters.

Chapter 1, WHAT IS RADIONICS, gives a general overview of Radionic practice, considered from both technical and theoretical perspectives. In short, what the practitioner does, and hopes to achieve, through Radionic treatment. The underlying concept is that the material world emerges from much deeper organisational fields which originate in the interaction of consciousness and energy. These combine to produce a range of formative forces, which in turn bring about the emergence of the physical world. Radiesthetic methods allow a degree of investigation of this inner reality, according to the abilities and talents of the dowser. These techniques are central to Radionic work, being used in both analysis and treatment of the patient and the development of Radionic codes.

Chapter 2, RADIONICS IN THE CONTEXT OF RADIESTHESIA, looks at the general concept of ESP (Extended Sensory Perception), the idea that human consciousness can penetrate further into reality than allowed by the use of the five senses. General examples of Radiesthetic operations are given from the work of various dowsers, notably the illustrious Abbé Mermet.

Chapter 3, RADIESTHESIA IN THE CONTEXT OF RADIONICS, expands upon the discussion set out in Chapter 2, and indicates some ways in which radiesthetic techniques have been used in Radionics. The theme of a 'deeper' reality is developed, incorporating certain ideas from Carl Jung and Rupert Sheldrake, amongst others. The Chapter concludes with a section on the relationship between religion and dowsing.

Chapter 4, ORGANISATION OF PERCEPTION AND MENTAL FOCUS IN RADIONICS, studies further the question of the existence and nature of an underlying reality. The barrier between conscious and subconscious perception is discussed. Some basic techniques used in Radionics to organise perception, and the use of these in querying levels of reality normally below the threshold of conscious perception, are described.

Chapter 5, DAVID TANSLEY AND THE DEMATERIALIZATION OF RADIONICS, discusses the development of Radionics from the largely 'physical' approach of pioneers such as Ruth Drown through to the introduction of an esoteric model of the human system by David Tansley in the 1970s. Ideas in Radionics conflict strongly with the materialist model proposed by present-day science, and there is some discussion about evolution, in particular, neo-Darwinism.

Chapter 6, HUMAN SUBTLE ANATOMY, commences by questioning certain aspects of Tansley's view as to the objectives of Radionics and attempts to re-establish it centrally as a therapeutic discipline. An outline model of the human Subtle Anatomy then follows, discussing, in general terms, the basic divisions - the Subtle Bodies. These are somewhat recontextualized by presenting them in experiential and psychological terms, as to opposed to the rather severe esoteric model proposed by Tansley.

Chapter 7, THE ETHERIC BODY, studies the role of the Etheric field as the absolutely detailed counterpart of the physical body. The Etheric Body is seen as the means of translation of formative forces into physical form. In this context the role of concepts found in Quantum Mechanics - such as the collapse of the wave function - are introduced as a possible aspect of the action of the Etheric Body. Here an attempt is made to fuse esoteric and scientific concepts into a new and potentially rather powerful model. The work of Harold Saxton Burr is described and a correlation between Burr's L-Fields (Life Fields) and Sheldrake's morphic fields is suggested.

Chapter 8, RAYS, CHAKRAS AND THE AURA, looks at the role of these vibrational phenomena and energetic structures in the human Subtle Anatomy. The psychological model proposed by Maslow is somewhat equated with the development of the Chakras. There is a discussion of Chakras and the Nadis.

Chapters 9 and 10, DISEASED ENERGY, outline 12 categories of disturbance that may lead to the production of the symptoms indicative of illness. The central concept is that illness results when an impact to the Subtle Anatomy and Vital Force is so strong that they cannot self-correct. The 12 categories include various sub-categories; these, taken together with the Locations in the Subtle Anatomy described in the previous Chapters, provide the basis for an in-depth energetic analysis of the patient.

Chapter 11, DISEASED ENERGY - MIASMS AND MIASMATIC INHIBITION, studies the Miasm concept introduced by Samuel Hahnemann, the founder of Homoeopathy. A great deal of mystery and confusion surrounds this concept; the objective is to clarify the situation and also introduce a new idea about the nature of the 'classical' Miasms, considered from a Radionic point of view.

Chapter 12, ANALYSIS, discusses methods of, and approaches to, Radionic analysis and the means by which they can lead to a deeper understanding of the central causes of illness in the patient.

Chapter 13, TREATMENT, discusses methods of treatment in Radionics and describes the two fundamental categories of energetic pattern described by Radionic codes.

Chapter 14, INSTRUMENTS AND CODES, explains the use and value of Radionic instruments. It also seeks to clarify some basic concepts of etheric engineering to be used in the design of such instruments. Some problems in the development of Radionic coding systems are given, with examples of different types of coding method.

Chapter 15, REMEDY SIMULATION AND THE RADIONIC MODEL, considers the matter of Radionic synthesis (manufacture) of homoeopathic and other remedies by imprinting the energy pattern into carrier materials such as water. Through a study of this problem a further deep insight into the relationship between physical matter, consciousness, and the underlying formative forces is suggested. As noted, this generally proposes that the physical Universe at every level, including biological evolution, arises through the dynamic and ongoing interplay of underlying principles; and in addition, that Radionics is a means by which the practitioner can participate, to a certain degree, in this process.

Chapter 16, RADIONICS IN THE CONTEXT OF THE PRESENT AGE, continues the discussion set out in the preceding Chapter and concludes the book by again considering the implications of the Radionic model for scientific materialism. The author's view is that Radionics is not some form of supernaturalism or magic but is a technique which arises from the very structure of Nature. This viewpoint contrasts strongly with scientific materialism and the contradiction between the two is discussed to a certain extent. On the one hand Radionics considers the Universe to be an interactive conscious organism, whereas materialistic science presents the Universe as being comprised of dead matter which somehow manages to spontaneously develop into complex forms such as life without any vivifying or organising principle. Finishing the book without any didactic conclusion, the author leaves the question in the reader's mind for further consideration. 21st Century Radionics also contains 37 Figures, 4 Tables, an Introduction, Bibliography, Index, and various colour plates.

Psychotronics and a Biodynamic Garden: How to Grow and Harvest Healthier Food through Radionics and Dowsing by George Kuepper

Although George's book was released in April 2021, notice of its publication bears repetition, as we enter a new farming/gardening season across the country.

Book Description:

Dowsing and radionics are two practices and procedures for interpreting and interacting with the natural world. They nurture the processes of gardening, farming, and landscaping through communication with subtle levels of reality.

Nature spirits and other forms of intelligence in nature play major roles. They can be readily contacted and nourished when we combine psychotronic methods with the traditional practices of a biodynamic approach. George Kuepper describes and discusses numerous procedures that have evolved from decades of working with agricultural radionics and recent research in his biodynamic garden.

This guidebook to growing better food is well referenced, with numerous illustrations, photos, tables, and examples. Gardeners and farmers who want to improve their plants and harvests using sustainable methods will find practical help and much food for thought here.

One reviewer, R. Todish writes:

"I own nearly every book ever written on Radionics over the last 50+ years and this is by far the best! Although the book mostly focuses on agriculture, which only slightly interests me, it is very well written, very logical, methodical and with simple explanations of what Radionics is and how to use it.

It's because of this book that I ordered my Kelly Radionics machine. I was on the fence before but this is what the author owns and I wanted the best.

I'm hoping he writes another book delving even deeper.

Great news: coming soon - the missing USPA Proceedings.

About two years ago, we scanned all of the USPA conference proceedings to pdf format so that they could be purchased and downloaded. All that we could find, that is. We discovered we were missing the 1996 volume. Then, a year ago, Scott found on in the USPA storage unit and shipped it to Gail with some photos to scan. ALAS! The package got lost in the m ails. Despite diligent tracking and USPS correspondence it remains AWOL.

We had been seeking a hard copy of the 1996 proceedings via email and word of mouth. Tom Valone happened to come across his copy a few days ago, and has shipped it to Gail. She will disassemble it, scan it and re-assemble the original. With any luck, by the time the next newsletter comes out, the 1996 proceedings pdf will take its place among the set.

Quick Background of our Proceedings Evolution.

Since its first meeting in 1975, hundreds of top scientists, educators and researchers have made presentations at USPAs annual conferences. They are from the leading edges of their fields, especially regarding the phenomena of Mind-Body connection, energy and emerging technologies. The first audio recordings were made in 1978.

Then, in 1985, USPA produced a perfect-bound Proceedings book for its tenth conference. The proceedings went through quite an evolution, much like our audio and video presentations. In 2010 they went through a “final” stage and the proceedings are now produced as pdf documents.

6 USPA Journals and 18 out of 19 Proceedings are now available for purchase.

The 6 USPA Journals and 18 of our 19 Annual Proceedings can be purchased in pdf format from our webstore at: <https://www.psychotronics.org/product-category/uspa-publications-journals-proceedings/>

All USPA publications are copyright protected and are property of the USPA. They may not be reprinted without permission of the Board of USPA.

Section X “Members Only” Perk: Over 140 Presentations For Free Online Viewing.

One big advantage to being a member of USPA is the Members Only page of our website.

We have over 140 presentations FREE for viewing by USPA members. If you are not a member yet, you can ‘fix’ that in just a few minutes at <https://www.psychotronics.org/join/>

You Asked For It – Here It Is: The Full List Of Everything In The Member’s Only Tab On The Website – in future newsletters, only new additions will be listed. The full list will print again in 6 months.

What is USPA?

The United States Psychotronics Association (USPA) is a federally recognized, nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization founded in 1975 to serve as a focal point for scientific and technical exploration of the universe of esoteric, spiritual, and psychic arts in the United States of America.

The USPA has been hosting annual conferences for its membership since its formation and has featured countless individuals with cutting-edge viewpoints, research, or theories to share, allowing any interested persons to openly discuss their work.

What is Psychotronics?

USPA defines psychotronics as the science of mind-body-environment relationships, an interdisciplinary science concerned with the interactions of matter, energy, and consciousness.

Psychotronics involves the study, research, and applications of the physics and technology of the mind, brain, spirit, consciousness, and the underlying forces of life and nature – hence the term “psychotronics.” A true understanding of the universe must include the spiritual as well as the technical. USPA provides an opportunity for amateur researchers to present their findings along with the professionals. USPA stresses research, with documentation of results, and practical applications, rather than personal experience and unsupported hypotheses

Section XII - USPA Generous Donors Recognition Page

The USPA would like to give special recognition on a continuing basis to people who have made generous donations to the United States Psychotronics Association in past years.

This special "USPA Generous Donors Recognition Page" will be carried in each issue of the USPA Journal & Newsletter, and new names will be added as donations are received.

Section XIV – J.G. Gallimore's Five Rare Books Are Now Available!

Jerry G. Gallimore was one of the founders of the USPA in 1975, and was a leading researcher in psychotronics and unusual energies until his untimely death in 1989.

All five of J.G. Gallimore's rare books on psychotronics subjects and unusual energies have been reprinted by the United States Psychotronics Association (USPA) and are being made available at a fraction of the cost that used copies were being sold at online.

So rare have these books been, that only a few libraries in the entire world had them in their collections, and some original Gallimore's books were being sold for several hundred dollars each online. However, with these newly reprinted volumes, each will be available for less than $30.00. All are: Available at Amazon.com

Gallimore discusses in depth the research, discoveries, and inventions of all the major researchers in subtle energies, the aether, biological 62 fields, pyramid energy, radiesthesia, radionics, crystal transduction, and related subjects.

These include the works of Baron Von Reichenbach's and his odic energy, Dr. Wilhelm Reich's orgone energy, Dr. Harold Burr's biological life fields, Kozyrev's time mirror, Edgar Cayce's transmission of energy, and related research done by many others.

Of particular importance is Gallimore's 127 page chapter on radionics. In this chapter he discusses in depth the research and devices of Ruth Drown, T. Galen Hieronymus, Rho Sigma, Dr. L. P. Corte and other prominent people in the radionics field.

This is the second book in the "Unusual Energies" series that J.G. Gallimore published. It covers Gallimore's research on Albert Abrams, the founder of modern radionics, psychological physics, psychic energy, thought resonance, subtle energies, crystals, and related subjects.

In addition, a number of radionics devices are discussed, such as the De La Warr Diagnostic Instrument. And very helpfully, the rates are provided for substances, body organs, and medical diseases and disorders. I very interesting interview of Christopher Bird, conducted by J.G. Gallimore is provided, as well as a discussion of Walter Russell and his research

This book describes in depth the research and theories of J.G. Gallimore into the question of "parapsychology transmission" -the question of how such things as telepathy, remote viewing, ESP, and similar phenomena can physically occur.

He discusses the various emanations, radiations, and energy fields of all matter and life including the ancient Chinese energy called "chi" (qi), the ancient Indian's prana energy, Reichenbach's "odic force," Gurwitsch's "mitogenic radiation," Wilhelm Reich's orgone energy, and other subtle energies. He shows how all of these energies are similar, how they interact, and how they are related to gravity.

He also discusses crystals as transducers of these energies, and provides diagrams of devices that could potentially be used to harness or control these energies.

This book covers the visionary research and theories developed by J.G. Gallimore about anti-gravity, space, time, and biophysics. He discusses in depth the dimensions of space, time, and gravity, and new discoveries in each of these areas. In addition, he covers research being done on anti-gravity and then discusses anti-gravity patents that have been obtained.

He also discusses the intriguing concept of aura energy fields surrounding humans and other living things, and how extra-sensory perception (ESP) might be explained through biophysical principles.

This book is about psychotronics, radionics, electromagnetic fields and waves, psi-plasma, plasma fields, subtle energies, bio-electromagnetic energy, and other unusual energies emitted by living and non-living things. It also is about how living things interact with and are affected by these energies, which may enhance health or harm health.

The book covers the research of Wilhelm Reich on Orgone energy, of Baron Reichenback on the odic forces, as well as research done by Cazzamalli on brain radiations and Lakhovsky on using high frequency radiations to successfully treat cancer in humans. In addition, Lakhovsky used similar methods to enhance the growth of plants. Gallimore shows how these energies, forces, and fields are all inter-related and provides hypotheses and ideas on their possible unification.
